In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Amanda Josephine Boyington, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before this Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of Amanda Josephine Boyington, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

It appears from the evidence herein that said applicant died in 1880.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is therefore ordered that the application made for the enrollment of Amanda Josephine Boyington, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same is, hereby, dismissed.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Peggy Blange, et al., as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, consolidating the applications of:

Peggy Blange,	Cherokee D-1387
Mary Blange,	Cherokee D-1388
Flora Stevenson,	Cherokee D-1389

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before this Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made applications for the enrollment of Peggy Blange, Mary Blange and Flora Stevenson, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

The record herein further shows that all of said applicants died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 716), provides:--

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is therefore ordered that the applications made for the enrollment of Peggy Blange, Mary Blange and Flora Stevenson, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same are, hereby dismissed.

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Asst Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and made applications for the enrollment of James Chisholm, Mary Chisholm, Ida Chisholm and Polly Chisholm as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicants were duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee cards D 1390, 1391, 1392 and 1389, respectively.

The records further show that said applicants possess the right to enrollment as citizens of the Creek Nation; that they are duly enrolled citizens thereof, their names appearing on a partial list of citizens by blood of the Creek Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902, and that they have voluntarily selected their allotments of land in said Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 25, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said James Chisholm, Mary Chisholm, Ida Chisholm and Pelly Chisholm, to be enrolled as citizens of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of their allotments of land in said Nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1906 (36 Stat., 493), James Chisholm, Mary Chisholm, Ida Chisholm and Pelly Chisholm, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Cherokee Enrollment Division,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that James Chisholm, age 45 years, and his wife, Mary, age 45 years, and their children, Polly, Lizzie, Henry S., Grover C., William and Ida Chisholm, ages 18, 17, 9, 5, 3 and 22 years, respectively, are regularly enrolled on Creek Indian Card, Field No. 1917; that selections of land have been made for them in the Creek Nation, and that their names are included in partial roll of Creek citizens by blood approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902.

It appears from the records of the Creek Enrollment Division, that said James Chisholm is the son of John Chisholm, deceased, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation; and Polly Chisholm, a citizen of the Creek Nation; and that said Mary Chisholm is the daughter of Lewis Martin, deceased, a citizen of the Creek Nation; and that the names of all the above appear upon the Cherokee rolls.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

LAND
6145-1906.

February 16, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby dated January 17, 1906, relative to the application for the enrollment of James Mary, Ida and Polly Chisholm as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, including the Commissioner's decision of January 17, 1906, rejecting the application.

It is shown by the record that on June 30, 1902, application was made, as above, for the enrollment of the persons mentioned. It appears, however, that the applicants are duly enrolled citizens of the Creek Nation and that they have voluntarily selected their allotments of land therein.

Although no formal election appears to have been made, it is considered that the voluntary selection by the applicants of their allotments of land in the Creek Nation is equivalent to an election, and it is therefore recommended that the application for their enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation be denied, in accordance with the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of June 25, 1896 (30 Stat.L., 495).

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Pelly Chishelm,

Cherokee D 1390
Cherokee D 1391

Cherokee D 1389

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Huset Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and made applications for the enrollment of James Chishelm, Mary Chishelm, Ida Chishelm and Pelly Chishelm as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicants were duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee cards D 1390, 1391, 1392 and 1389, respectively.

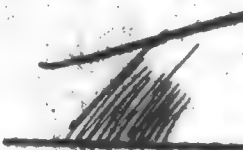

The records further show that said applicants possess the right to enrollment as citizens of the Creek Nation; that they are duly enrolled citizens thereof, their names appearing on a partial list of citizens by blood of the Creek Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902, and that they have voluntarily selected their allotments of land in said Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1898 (30 Stat., 496), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said James Chishelm, Mary Chishelm, Ida Chishelm and Felly Chishelm, to be enrolled as citizens of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of their allotments of land in said Nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1906 (30 Stat., 498), James Chishelm, Mary Chishelm, Ida Chishelm and Felly Chishelm, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 23, 1902

Cherokee Enrollment Division,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that James Chisholm, age 45 years, and his wife, Mary, age 45 years, and their children, Polly, Lizzie, Henry S., Grover C., William and Ida Chisholm, ages 18 17 8, 5, 3 and 22 years, respectively, are regularly enrolled on Creek Indian Card, Field No. 1917; that selections of land have been made for them in the Creek Nation, and that their names are included in partial roll of Creek citizens by blood approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902.

It appears from the records of the Creek Enrollment Division that said James Chisholm is the son of John Chisholm, deceased, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and Polly Chisholm, a citizen of the Creek Nation; and that said Mary Chisholm is the daughter of Lewis Martin, deceased, a citizen of the Creek Nation; and that the names of all the above appear upon the Cherokee rolls.

February 16, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby dated January 17, 1906, relative to the application for the enrollment of James Mary, Ida and Pelly Chisholm as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, including the Commissioner's decision of January 17, 1906, rejecting the application.

It is shown by the record that on June 30, 1902, application was made, as above, for the enrollment of the persons mentioned. It appears, however, that the applicants are duly enrolled citizens of the Creek Nation and that they have voluntarily selected their allotments of land therein.

Although no formal election appears to have been made, it is considered that the voluntary selection by the applicants of their allotments of land in the Creek Nation is equivalent to an election, and it is therefore recommended that the application for their enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation be denied, in accordance with the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of June 26, 1896 (30 Stat.L., 495).

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and made applications for the enrollment of James Chisholm, Mary Chisholm, Ida Chisholm and Polly Chisholm as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicants were duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee cards D 1390, 1391, 1392 and 1389, respectively.

The records further show that said applicants possess the right to enrollment as citizens of the Creek Nation; that they are duly enrolled citizens thereof, their names appearing on a partial list of citizens by blood of the Creek Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902, and that they have voluntarily selected their allotments of land in said Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 493), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said James Chisholm, Mary Chisholm, Ida Chisholm, and Pally Chisholm, to be enrolled as citizens of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of their allotments of land in said Nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 496), James Chisholm, Mary Chisholm, Ida Chisholm and Pally Chisholm, are not entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 26, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

Cherokee Enrollment Division,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Gentlemen:

The Creek Enrollment Division is in receipt of your letter of August 4, 1902, asking for information relative to the enrollment of Pelly and Ida Chisholm, William Fisher and Tookah and Lewis Garland, as Creek citizens, and requesting to be furnished with the post office address of Pelly and Ida Chisholm.

Replying thereto you are advised that four of these persons have been listed for enrollment as citizens of the Creek Nation, and their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 28, 1902. Their enrollment is as follows:

Pelly Chisholm	Creek Card #1916	Roll No. 6021	Age, 80.
Ida Chisholm	" " 1917	" " 6029	" 22.
Tookah Garland	" " 1586	" " 5097	" 44.
Lewis Garland	" " 1586	" " 5098	" 23.

Replying to your inquiry relative to the enrollment of William Fisher, you are advised that one, Willie Fisher, is listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation, on Creek freedmen card, Field No. 1891; he is 30 years of age, and the names of his parents are Josiah and Caroline Fisher. His enrollment as a citizen of said nation has not been approved by the

2 Cherokee Enrollment Division.

Secretary of the Interior. There appears on the 1890 authenticated Creek roll, Hickory Ground town, the name of Willie Fisher, who has not been listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation, for the reason that he has never made application for enrollment as a citizen of said nation. It further appears that his name was omitted from the 1895 Creek roll for the reason that he was residing in the Cherokee Nation when the payment was made in that year. He is reported to have returned to the Creek Nation about two years ago. The names of his parents are William and Betsey Fisher, both Creek citizens. His present post office address is Muskula, Indian Territory.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 16, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated January 17, 1906, relative to the application for the enrollment of James, Mary, Ida and Polly Chisholm as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, including the Commissioner's decision of January 17, 1906, rejecting the application.

It is shown by the record that on June 30, 1902, application was made, as above, for the enrollment of the persons mentioned. It appears, however, that the applicants are duly enrolled citizens of the Creek Nation and that they have voluntarily selected their allotments of land therein.

Although no formal election appears to have been made, it is considered that the voluntary selection by the applicants of their allotments of land in the Creek Nation is equivalent to an election, and it is therefore recommended that the application for their enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation be denied, in accordance with the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of June 25, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495).

Very respectfully,

C. E. Larrabee,

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date, shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of John Chisholm as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

I don't think that John Chisholm was enrolled in the creek Nation if he was it was where the Creek drew $4.00 pr head as bread money. for he was dead when the $29.00 Percapty Payment was made. You may find his name on the Chorkee roll when they made a Percapity Payment of $16.00 as bread money, but I am not cirten of that. hoping the above statement May prove satisfactory

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Martha Chisholm as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1394.

The records further show that said applicant possesses rights to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; that, under the name of Mattie H. Chisholm, she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof on Creek Indian card field No. 1968, Roll No. 4144, that her enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902, and that on April 4, 1901, she voluntarily selected her allotment of land in the Creek Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Mattie M. (Martha) Chisholm to be enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of her allotment of land in said nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress above noted, Martha Chisholm is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith report of the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 17, 1906, forwarding the record of proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Martha Chisholm as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, including the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 17, 1906, rejecting the application.

The record shows that Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, and made application for the enrollment of Martha Chisholm as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The record further shows that the applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; that under the name of Mattie E. In the matter of the application for the enrollment of David Chisholm, et al., as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, consolidating the applications of:-

David Chisholm,	Cherokee D-1395
Katie Chisholm,	Cherokee D-1396

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before this Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made applications for the enrollment of David Chisholm and Katie Chisholm, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

It further appears that the applicant herein died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716), provides:-

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is therefore ordered that the applications made for the enrollment of David Chisholm and Katie Chisholm, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same are, hereby, dismissed.

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Eliza Chisholm as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1397.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; that, under the name of Eliza Wadsworth, she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof on Creek Indian Card, Field No. 2491, Roll No. 8628, and that her enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 28, 1902; and that on June 30, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes made an arbitrary allotment of land to the said Eliza Wadsworth in the Creek Nation; that said allotment was accepted by said applicant and that she claims no right as a Cherokee.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

Section twenty-eight of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"No person whose name appears upon the roll made by the Dawes Commission as a citizen or freedman of any other tribe shall be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation."

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of the Acts of Congress above noted, Eliza Chisholm is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 19, 1906, transmitting the record relative to the application of Eliza Chisholm for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

At Muskogee, I.T., on June 30, 1902, Emmet Star applied for the enrollment of Eliza Chisholm as a citizen, and the applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1397. On April 19, 1906, the Commissioner held that the applicant was not entitled to such enrollment.

The record in this case shows that the applicant possessed the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation, and that under the name of Eliza Wadsworth she was duly enrolled as a citizen thereon on Creek Indian Card, Field No. 2491, Roll No. 8628, and that this enrollment was approved by the Department of the Interior on March 28, 1902; and that on June 30, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes made an arbitrary allotment of land to Eliza Wadsworth in the Creek Nation, and that this allotment was accepted by the applicant and she claimed no right as a Cherokee.

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Emily Chishelm as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1398.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation, and that, under the name of Emily Depriest, she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof, on Creek Indian card Field No. 747, Roll No. 2463, and that her enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 13, 1902.

The records further show that the said Emily Depriest, nee Chishelm, has voluntarily selected her allotment of land in the Creek Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 23, 1898, provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Nelly Harriet (Whishelm) to be enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of her allotment of land in said nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress above cited, Nelly Whishelm is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jenny Chishelm as a citizen of the Cherokee nation.

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Jenny Chishelm as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1399.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation, and that, under the name of Jennie Brown, she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof, on Creek Indian card Field No. 2023, Roll No. 1674, and that her enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 28, 1902, and that she has voluntarily selected her allotment of land in said Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 30, 1896 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for Jenny Chisholm to be enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of her allotment of land in said Nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress above cited, Jenny Chisholm is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Dear Madam:

From an examination of the 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, it appears that the following persons are identified upon that roll with the members of the Chisholm family, with whom you are identified:

John Chisholm, aged at that time six months; Martha Chisholm, aged twenty years; David Chisholm, thirty-four years; and Jennie Chisholm, twenty-four years.

The records of the Creek Enrollment Division of this Commission show that your enrollment as a citizen of that Nation has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, together with certain other members of the Chisholm family.

From the information the Commission has at this time, it is unable to determine whether or not the above mentioned persons have been listed for enrollment as citizens of the Creek Nation.

You are requested to advise the Commission whether or not the above named persons are living, and, if so, to furnish their present names and post office address.

Dear Sir:

An examination of the 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shows that the following named persons appear thereon:

John Chisholm, aged at that time six months; Martha Chisholm, aged twenty years; David Chisholm, thirty-four years; and Jennie Chisholm, aged twenty-four years.

The Commission is informed that you are in position to give some information in regard to these persons.

You are requested to advise the Commission whether or not the above named persons are living, and, if so, to furnish their present names and post office address.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

ORDER.

--O--

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of ~~Henry Starr~~ as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said ~~Henry Starr~~ is identified on the Cherokee ~~roll~~ roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1860 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Nancy Drummer on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of ~~Nancy Drummer~~ as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and made applications for the enrollment of Tookah Garland and Lewis Garland as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicants were duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee cards D 1408 and D 1409, respectively.

The records further show that said applicants possess rights to enrollment as citizens of the Creek Nation; that they are duly enrolled as citizens thereof, their names appearing upon a partial list of citizens by blood of the Creek Nation approved by the secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902, and that they have voluntarily selected their allotments of land in said Nation.

Paragraph eight, Section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1896, (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Teekah Garland and Lewis Garland to be enrolled as citizens of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of their allotments of land in said Nation, is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of Paragraph eight, Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress above noted, Teekah Garland and Lewis Garland are not entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Cherokee Enrollment Division,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that Tookah Garland, age 44 years, and Louis, Libbie M., David M. and Floyd M. Garland, her children, ages 23, 17, 10 and 3 years, respectively, are regularly enrolled on Creek Indian Card, Field No. 1586; that selections of land have been made for them in the Creek Nation, and that their names are included in partial roll of Creek citizens by blood approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902.

It appears from the records of the Creek Enrollment Division, that said Tookah Garland is the daughter of John Nivens, deceased, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and Delilah Nivens, deceased, a citizen of the Creek Nation; that S. F. Garland, a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, is the father of said above named children, and that all of the above appear to be on the Cherokee rolls.

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the five civilized Tribes, and made applications for the enrollment of Tookah Garland and Lewis Garland as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicants were duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee cards D 1408 and D 1409, respectively.

The records further show that said applicants possess rights to enrollment as citizens of the Creek Nation; that they are duly enrolled as citizens thereof, their names appearing upon a partial list of citizens by blood of the Creek Nation approved by the secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902, and that they have voluntarily selected their allotments of land in said Nation.

Paragraph eight, Section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 25, 1898, (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Teekah Garland and Lewis Garland to be enrolled as citizens of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of their allotments of land in said Nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of Paragraph eight, Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress above cited, Teekah Garland and Lewis Garland are not entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

ORDER.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of S. C. Hilsertown as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said S. C. Hilsertown is identified on the Cherokee ~~enrollment~~ roll of 1891 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation; during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session; each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of S. C. Hilderbrand on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of S. C. Hilderbrand as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

His Sonnet (Cherokee 2-9848) is also identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

An examination of the said tribal rolls shows that all the applicants are of Indian nationality, of either Cherokee or Shawnee blood.

The Commission has made diligent inquiry, covering a period of nearly two years, to secure information relative to the status of the applicants, and, from information obtained by the various field parties of the Commission, and received from citizens appearing at the Cherokee Land Office, principally from old residents of the respective districts in which the applicants were enrolled, it finds that all of such applicants died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (Public - No. 241), and duly ratified, as provided in Section 75 thereof, provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes".

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of John Cockey, Levi Rysell, J. W. Fern, David McDaniel, George Morgan, V. J. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of W. H. Russell
as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

ORDER.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of W. H. Russell as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said W. H. Russell is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1896 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1860 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of W. H. Hysell on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of W. H. Hysell as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this DEC 27 1905

Cher. D-1413.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, November 9, 1903.

Sarah Riley,

Bennett, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:-

Application has been made to this Commission for the enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of one W. H. Hysell, age about 24, who is identified with you on the Cherokee tribal roll of 1880 in Canadian District.

Do you know anything concerning the said W. H. Hysell? If so, will you please give this Commission such information as you may have concerning him and his present post office address, if known to you, so that the proper steps may be taken to ascertain his right to enrollment.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge
Cherokee Land Office.

JOC.

Cher D 1414

Q You were divorced people, were they not? A Yes, sir. They never Q They were divorced people, then never paid any attention to them.
 Q You never visited her in prison, did you? No, sir.
 Q The reason you did not visit her in prison was that you considered that you were not legally married to this woman, was that a right to

The name of John Harmon appears on the authenticated roll of 1880, as well as the census roll of 1880. He being fully listed and having made proof of his residence, he will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood. He was then he lived with one Alice Harmon for about a year, as man and wife, in the year 1879, and that afterwards he separated from her and married Margaret Turpin, a non citizen of the Cherokee Nation; and so events that he married her under Cherokee law, but presents no certificate of marriage; he also avers that as a result of that marriage with his last wife, he has a child named Mary Harmon, sixteen years old, the name of his last wife, and his child, appearing on the census roll of 1890. He makes no proof of having been divorced from his first wife.
 (The statement in regard to that matter will be found in the testimony.) Consequently, the said Margaret Harmon, his second wife, whose name also appears on the census roll of 1880, and his child, Mary Harmon, whose name also appears on the census roll of 1890;
 final judgment will be entered and their names will be placed on a doubtful card, and he will be permitted to file such evidence in the process as he may desire; he will also be permitted to file proof as to the legality of his marriage with his second wife, Margaret Harmon.

R. R. Gravens, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported the foregoing case, and that the above and foregoing is a true, full and correct transcript of his statement, his name in said case.

By Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative.

Q Were you divorced from Alice Harman, your former wife?
A We never were married.
Q Were you living with her in 1880? A I do not think I was.
Q Did you ever live with her? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live with her? A Something over a year.
Q You lived with her, as husband and wife, during that time?
A Yes sir.
Q Have any children by her? A No sir.
Q Is this second wife a white woman? A Yes sir.

By the Commission:

Q I understand that you lived with a former wife, named Alice Harman and that she was enrolled as your wife in 1880?
A I never enrolled myself in 1880; my uncle enrolled me.
Q What was this first woman's name before you married her?
A Thomas.
Q She was a non-citizen? A Yes sir.
Q You lived with her about a year? A Yes sir.

Q Then you parted from her? A Yes sir.
 Q You lived with her then as man and wife? A A while, sir.
 Q You never got a divorce? A No sir.
 Q You never have gotten one up to this day? A No sir.
 Q Why did you not get a divorce from your first wife?
 A There was no way to get a divorce then; we were not married then, and we could not get a divorce, because I was not married.
 Q You know there were Indian Courts at that time? A Yes sir.
 Q They were divorcing people, were they not? A Yes sir. They never divorced this kind of people, they never paid any attention to them.
 Q You never applied for a divorce, did you? A No sir.
 Q The reason you did not apply for a divorce was that you considered that you were not legally married to this woman, and had a right to go and marry whom you pleased? A Yes sir.

The name of John Harmon appears on the authenticated roll of 1890, as well as the census roll of 1896, he being fully identified, and having made proof of his residence, he will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood. He avers that he lived with one Alice Harmon for about a year, as man and wife, in the year 1879, and that afterwards he separated from her and married Margaret Turpin, a non citizen of the Cherokee Nation; and he avers that he married her under Cherokee law, but presents no certificate of marriage; he also avers that as a result of that marriage with his last wife, he has a child named Mary Harmon, sixteen years old, the names of his last wife, and his child, appearing on the census roll of 1896. He makes no proof of having been divorced from his first wife (The statement in regard to that matter will be found in the testimony); Consequently, the said Margaret Harmon, his second wife, whose name also appears on the census roll of 1896, and his child, Mary Harmon, whose name also appears on the census roll of 1896; final judgment will be suspended and their names will be placed on a doubtful card, and he will be permitted to file such evidence in the premises as he may desire; he will also be permitted to file proof as to the legality of his marriage with his second wife, Margaret Harmon.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of ALICE HARMAN as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 30, 1902 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Alice Harman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 2, 1902. Copies of the testimony taken at Fort Gibson, Indian Territory, August 20, 1900 in the matter of the application for the enrollment of John Harman, et al. as citizens of the Cherokee Nation are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Alice Harman, is a white woman and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as she may have acquired by virtue of her alleged marriage to one John Harman, who was at the time of said alleged marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Canadian District opposite No. 614 as a native Cherokee. The date of said alleged marriage cannot be established. It is further shown that shortly after said marriage the said John Harman and Alice Harman separated and have not since resided together as husband and wife. January 5, 1902 a communication was received from the applicant stating that she was not a claimant for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and requesting that her name be dropped from the roll. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation "married out".

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Alice Harman, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Dear Sir:

Upon examination of the 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, it is found that Alice Harmon, a white woman aged at that time twenty-one years, was enrolled with you as your wife.

You are requested to advise the Commission whether the said Alice Harmon is living, and, if so, her present name and post office address.

Yours truly,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of James H. Starr as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

ORDER.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of James H. Starr as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said James H. Starr is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Jenny Hilderbrand or September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Jenny Hilderbrand as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Emma Eildersburg as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

--O--

ORDER.

--O--

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emma Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Emma Eildersburg as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Emma Eildersburg is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session; each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Laura Hilderbrand on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Laura Hilderbrand as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Arley
Starr
as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

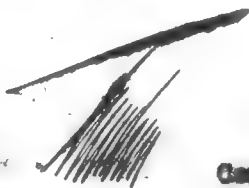

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Arley
Starr
is identified on the Cherokee enrollment roll of 1890 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Arley James on September 1, 1905.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Arley James as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Samuel Lasley as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Samuel Lasley as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1424.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; that he is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof on Creek Indian card, Field No. 2990, Roll No. 8221, that his enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 28, 1902, and that on June 30, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes made an arbitrary allotment of land to the said Samuel Lasley in the Creek Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

Section Twenty-eight of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"No person whose name appears upon the roll made by the Dawes Commission as a citizen or freedman of any other tribe shall be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation."

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of the Acts of Congress above noted, Samuel Lasky is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Dear Sir:

The records of this office show that your enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Creek Nation was approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 28, 1902, and that on June 30, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes designated an allotment of land to you in the Creek Nation. The records further show that on June 30, 1902, you were listed for enrollment from information as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation and your name placed on a doubtful card.

Paragraph 8 of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

Section 28 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), provides:

Samuel Lasley--2.

The records of this office fail to show that you have ever made formal election of the nation in which you desire to be enrolled, and you are, therefore, hereby notified to appear before the offices of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes at nine o'clock A. M., on Thursday, March 8, 1906, at which time you will be given an opportunity to make such election and if you desire to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation to introduce any testimony you desire tending to prove your right to enrollment as a citizen of that Nation.

In the event it is your desire to be enrolled and to receive your allotment of land as a citizen of the Creek Nation, and you do not desire to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, you are requested to advise this office by return mail, and in that event it will not be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner.

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:-

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated April 19, 1906, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by Samuel Lasley.

April 19, 1906, the Commissioner decided adversely to the applicant.

The record shows that the applicant's name is found opposite No. 8221 on the Creek roll approved by the Department March 28, 1902, and that on June 30, 1902 the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes made an arbitrary allotment of land to him in the Creek Nation.

In view of the record the approval of the Commissioner's decision adverse to the applicant is recommended.

Q Is his mother living? A No sir, she is dead.
Q Is John R. Lesenree a recognized Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q About what degree of Cherokee blood has he? A I would not suppose he is more than one-sixteenth, if that much.
Q How long have you known John R. Lesenree? A I have known him from the time he was a child up to the time he ran away from here.
Q What time was it he ran away, about how long ago? A It is five six or seven years ago. It has been several years. Could not say just how long it has been. I was living up here at Tahlequah, and I don't remember whether it was when I was here at Tahlequah, or after I moved back down home. His mother was a Carr, and he had two cousins right by me, and had an aunt. Minerva Hendricks lives at Muskogee, and Mrs. George Elliott lives at Muskogee.
Q You are positive that John R. Lesenree left the country more than four years ago? S Yes sir.
Q You have not known of his being in the Cherokee Nation since that time? A No sir.
Q He got into some trouble up about Wagoner? A Yes sir, that is my understanding.
Q Is it your understanding that he is now on scout? A Yes sir.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John R. Lessenbee, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before this Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of John R. Lessenbee, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application, at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on August 15, 1902.

The evidence herein shows that the said John R. Lessenbee, was a Cherokee Indian duly enrolled on the Cherokee Authenticated Tribal Roll of 1880; that during the early part of his life he was a resident of the Cherokee Nation; that about July, 1894, he left said Nation and all trace of him was lost, and that since that date his whereabouts has been unknown to his friends and members of his family.

An Act of Congress approved May 2, 1890, (26 Stats., 182), put in force in the Indian Territory, chapter 59 of Mansfield's Digest of the Statutes of Arkansas. Section 2850 of said chapter 59, provides:

"Any person absenting himself beyond the limits of this state for five years successively shall be presumed to be dead, in any case in which his death may come in question unless proof be made that he was alive within that time."

In Sharp v Johnson, 22 Ark. 79, 90, it was held that "By our statute, a person once resident in the state, and absent from it for five years, is presumed to be dead, unless proven to be alive within that time."

In Sensenderfer v Pac. Mut. Life Ins. Co., 19 Fed. 68, it was held that "Absence of a person alone does not raise a presumption of his death. But such absence, in connection with surrounding circumstances, such as the failure by his family and friends to learn of his whereabouts, create a very strong presumption of death; the law being satisfied with less than certainly, yet requiring a preponderance of proof."

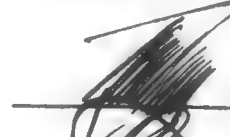

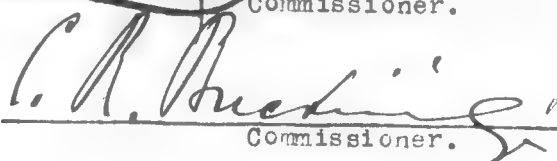

In view of the law applicable to the facts as established by the evidence in this case, it is considered by this Commission that the said John R. Lessenbee died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section Twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is therefore ordered that the application for the enrollment of John R. Lesenbee, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same is, without prejudice, hereby dismissed, under the provisions of Section Twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716).

Mr. Fred A. Kerr,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Upon examination of the 1900 census roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, it is found that the name of one John E. Lesenbee, aged at that time twenty years, appears upon the said roll, with a note to the effect that the said Lesenbee was enrolled by you.

You are requested to inform the Commission whether John E. Lesenbee is living, and, if so, his present post office address.

Yours truly,

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Emmet Starr as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

--O--

ORDER.

--O--

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Emmet Starr as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Emmet Starr is identified on the Cherokee enrollment roll of 1880 as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Mary Levejay on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Mary Levejay as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

ACTING COMMISSIONER

Department of the Interior
Commissioner of the General Land Office
Washington, D. C.

In the matter of the application for and admission of the heirs of the deceased to the land of the United States as a portion of the public domain.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The following facts are stated to show the history of the land in question and the rights of the parties thereto.

On the 14th day of May, 1891, the United States, by its Commissioner of the General Land Office, issued a patent to the heirs of the deceased, to the land in question.

The title of the land in question is "Tract of Land in the County of [County Name], State of [State Name], and the heirs of the deceased, to the land in question."

It is ordered that the heirs of the deceased be admitted to the land in question as a portion of the public domain.

Very truly yours,

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

The tribal rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation have been examined, and the name of the applicant is identified there on as follows:

1883 roll, #632, Illinois District, as Aggie Martin.

The tribal rolls of the Cherokee nation for the years 1890, 1894 and 1896 have been examined, and the name of the applicant cannot be identified of record thereon.

It is ordered that this statement be filed with and made a part of the record in the matter of the enrollment of Aggy Martin, Cherokee D-1430.

C. R. McIsaac
Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Julia Quinton, et al., as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, consolidating the applications of:

Julia Quinton, Cherokee D-1429
Aggy Martin, Cherokee D-1430
Ellen Martin, Cherokee D-1431

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before this Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of Julia Quinton, Aggy Martin and Ellen Martin, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Additional proceedings were had in the matter of said applications at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on August 15, 1902.

The evidence herein shows that all the applicants are identified upon the 1880 Authenticated Cherokee Tribal Roll, and on the margin of said roll opposite said names appears a note that they are Osage Indians.

It further appears from the evidence herein that the said Julia Quinton (as Julia Quinton), Aggy Martin (as Aggy Ware) and Ellen Martin (as Ellen McCombs), are recognized as Osage Indians and are carried on the rolls of the Osage Indian Agency in Oklahoma.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that Julia Quinton, Aggy Martin and Ellen Martin are not entitled to share in the lands and funds of the Cherokee Nation, and that the applications made for their enrollment as citizens of said nation should be denied, and it is so ordered.

- Q Where do his children live? A Myrtle lives on Dog Creek close to Claremore.
- Q Is she married? A No sir.
- Q Why do they call her Myrtle Patton? A That's the name of her step-father.
- Q Where do the others live? A Aggie Martin married Clark Ware and lives at Bartlesville. Julia married a man by the name of Edwards and lives about 5 miles from Pawhuska.
- Q What is the name of the father of A. L. Martin? A Joe Martin.
- Q He's dead? A Yes sir. He was a Cherokee.
- Q And his mother? A Her name was Julia Lumba. She was a fullblood Osage.
- Q What was the name of Ellen's mother? A Caroline Pettit.
- Q And the mother of Aggy? A Her name was Rachel Sanders.
- Q And the mother of Julia? A The same as Ellen's mother.
- Q Have they ever made application for enrollment in any other Nation? A All except Myrtle are enrolled in the Osage Nation.
- Q Have they received allotments in that Nation? A Yes sir. They have been there about 16 years.
- Q You are sure they have allotments in the Osage Nation?
- A Yes sir. I live right close to them and have known them all their lives.
- Q Has Myrtle ever been enrolled in any other Nation? A No sir.
- Q Why wasn't she enrolled in the Osage Nation? A She was enrolled in the Cherokee Nation by her mother.

Gentlemen,-

Replying to your several letters, dated Nov. 21, 1902, Cherokee D1428, 1429, 1430 and 1431, inquiring relative to certain claimants for enrollment on the Cherokee roll, you are advised,

That A. L. Martin is not on the Osage roll, nor is he recognized as an Osage. He has some children on the roll who obtained their Osage blood from their mother.

No such name as Julia Martin appears on the Osage roll. If she is the wife of, or rather the widow of Felix Quinton, she is enrolled on the Osage roll as Julia Quinton, and is the daughter of Alex Martin.

No such name as Aggie Martin appears on the Osage roll. If she is married to a man by the name of Ware and is the daughter of Alex Martin, she and her children are enrolled as Osages. The wife of Felix Quinton was Julia Martin, a daughter of Alex Martin.

The name of Ella Martin does not appear on the Osage roll. Is she is married to a man by the name of McCombs and is the daughter of Alex Martin she is carried on the Osage roll as Ellen McCombs.

Very respectfully,

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 20, 1905, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation of Julia Quinton, Aggy Martin and Ellen Martin.

April 30, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that all the applicants are identified upon the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll and on the margin of said roll appears a note that they are Osage Indians. It further appears that all of the applicants are recognized as Osage Indians and are carried on the rolls of the Osage Indian Agency.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicants is recommended.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

The tribal rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined, and the name of applicant identified thereon as

1883 roll, #633, Illinois District.

1886 roll, Page 46, #906, Illinois District.

The tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation for the years 1890, 1894 and 1898 have been examined, and the name of the applicant cannot be identified of record thereon.

It is ordered that this statement be filed with and made a

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Julia Quinton, et al., as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, consolidating the applications of:

Julia Quinton,	Cherokee D-1429
Aggy Martin,	Cherokee D-1430
Ellen Martin,	Cherokee D-1431

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before this Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of Julia Quinton, Aggy Martin and Ellen Martin, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Additional proceedings were had in the matter of said applications at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on August 15, 1902.

The evidence herein shows that all the applicants are identified upon the 1880 Authenticated Cherokee Tribal Roll, and on the margin of said roll opposite said names appears a note that they are Osage Indians.

It further appears from the evidence herein that the said Julia Quinton (as Julia Quinton), Aggy Martin (as Aggy Ware) and Ellen Martin (as Ellen McCombs), are recognized as Osage Indians and are carried on the rolls of the Osage Indian Agency in Oklahoma.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that Julia Quinton, Aggy Martin and Ellen Martin are not entitled to share in the lands and funds of the Cherokee Nation, and that the applications made for their enrollment as citizens of said nation should be denied, and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the applications for the enrollment of A. L. Martin, Myrtle Patton, Julia Quinton, Aggy Martin and Ellen Martin, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

ANNIE CALDWELL, being duly sworn by Joe Chambers, a Notary Public, and examined on behalf of the Commissioner, testified as follows:—

- Q What is your name? A Annie Caldwell. I am on the roll as Annie Martin, but I married.
- Q How old are you? A I am 38 years old.
- Q What is your post-office? A Pawhuska, Oklahoma.
- Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know A. L. Martin? A Yes sir.
- Q Myrtle Patton, Julia Quinton, Aggy Martin and Ellen Martin are all his children? A Yes sir.
- Q They are all living? A Yes sir.
- Q Whereabouts does A. L. Martin live? A Right in Pawhuska.
- Q Where do his children live? A Myrtle lives on Dog Creek close to Claremore.
- Q Is she married? A No sir.
- Q Why do they call her Myrtle Patton? A That's the name of her step-father.
- Q Where do the others live? A Aggie Martin married Clark Ware and lives at Bartlesville. Julia married a man by the name of Edwards and lives about 5 miles from Pawhuska.
- Q What is the name of the father of A. L. Martin? A Joe Martin.
- Q He's dead? A Yes sir. He was a Cherokee.
- Q And his mother? A Her name was Julia Lumka. She was a fullblood Osage.
- Q What was the name of Ellen's mother? A Caroline Pettit.
- Q And the mother of Aggy? A Her name was Rachel Sanders.
- Q And the mother of Julia? A The same as Ellen's mother.
- Q Have they ever made application for enrollment in any other Nation? A All except Myrtle are enrolled in the Osage Nation.
- Q Have they received allotments in that Nation? A Yes sir. They have been there about 16 years.
- Q You are sure they have allotments in the Osage Nation?
- A Yes sir. I live right close to them and have known them all their lives.
- Q Has Myrtle ever been enrolled in any other Nation? A No sir.
- Q Why wasn't she enrolled in the Osage Nation? A She was enrolled in the Cherokee Nation by her mother.

Sir:-

There appears upon the 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the name of one Ellen Martin, aged 24 years. A note on said roll is to the effect that she is now a citizen of the Osage Nation.

You are requested to advise the Commission if this person is a regularly enrolled and recognized member of the Osage tribe of Indians.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

UNITED STATES INDIAN SERVICE.

Osage Agency, Padamaka, Okla.,
December 1, 1902.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

MUSKOGEE, I.T.

Gentlemen,-

Replying to your several letters, dated Nov. 21, 1902, Cherokee D1428, 1429, 1430 and 1431, inquiring relative to certain claimants for enrollment on the Cherokee roll,, you are advised,

That A. L. Martin is not on the Osage roll, nor is he recognized as an Osage. He has some children on the roll who obtained their Osage blood from their mother.

No such name as Julia Martin appears on the Osage roll. If she is the wife of, or rather the widow of Felix Quinton, she is enrolled on the Osage roll as Julia Quinton, and is the daughter of Alex Martin.

No such name as Aggie Martin appears on the Osage roll. If she is married to a man by the name of Ware and is the daughter of Alex Martin, she and her children are enrolled as Osages. The wife of Felix Quinton was Julia Martin, a daughter of Alex Martin.

The name of Ella Martin does not appear on the Osage roll. Is she is married to a man by the name of McCombs and is the daughter of Alex Martin she is carried on the Osage roll as Ellen McCombs.

Very respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, May 3, 1905.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 20, 1905, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation of Julia Quinton, Aggy Martin and Ellen Martin.

April 30, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that all the applicants are identified upon the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll and on the margin of said roll appears a note that they are Osage Indians. It further appears that all of the applicants are recognized as Osage Indians and are carried on the rolls of the Osage Indian Agency.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicants is recommended.

Very Respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Carter, Lewis Cardrey, Thompson Gritts, Annie Gustin, Henry Gustin, Laura Johnson, Mary Phillip, Thomas Runnels, William Raft, Jennie Raft, Charlotte Sacker, Nancy Sunday and Betsey Sullatenkes, whose names appear on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

Alie Bearer (Cherokee 2-2048) is also identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

An examination of the said tribal rolls shows that all the applicants are of Indian nationality, of either Cherokee or Shawnee blood.

The Commission has made diligent inquiry, covering a period of nearly two years, to secure information relative to the status of the applicants, and, from information obtained by the various field parties of the Commission, and received from citizens appearing at the Cherokee Land Office, principally from old residents of the respective districts in which the applicants were enrolled, it finds that all of such applicants died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (Public - No. 241), and duly ratified, as provided in Section 75 thereof, provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes".

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of John Cocley, Levi Russell, J. W. Horn, David McDaniel, George Morgan, W. J. Department of the Interior.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Tahlequah, I. T., August 29, 1902.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY AND PROCEEDINGS in the matter of the enrollment of GEORGE MILLER and others as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

SUSAN WOODS, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY COMMISSIONER: What is your name? A Susan Woods.
Q How old are you? A About forty-five.
Q What is your post office address? A Tahlequah.
Q Are you a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you know George W. Miller? A Yes, I know him. He is a half brother of mine, but I don't know where he is at now. I don't know whether he ever enrolled or not.
Q Do you know whether he is living or not? A He was living about three weeks ago.
Q He is a man now about forty years of age? A He is along about forty.
Q Do you know what his post office address is? A No sir, I don't know what it is positively. I heard, though, that he was near a railroad station by the name of Stroud. I think it is a cross road running out through Oklahoma somewhere. That is the last place I heard from him.
Q Does he reside in Oklahoma? A No, he is just traveling around.
Q Is he in Oklahoma at present? A He was not when we heard from him, this side somewhere.
Q Stroud, that is in Oklahoma, isn't it? A I think it is between here and Oklahoma somewhere.
Q Is George W. Miller a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What degree of Cherokee blood has he?
A His mother is a quarter, and his father was a white man.
Q That would make him an eighth? A That's what it is.
Q Are you enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Did you and George W. Miller have the same father and mother?
A Had the same mother.
Q What is the name of the mother of George W. Miller?
A Mary Miller.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q She is a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q In what district in the Cherokee Nation does she reside?
A Canadian District.
Q What is the name of the father of George W. Miller?
A John Miller.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q You say he was a white man? A Yes sir.
Q Is George W. Miller married? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of his wife? A She was Mattie Luke. I don't know whether she is a citizen or not. They claimed it, but I don't know whether they proved it or not.
Q She is a white woman? A I suppose she was.
Q What is the name of her father? A William Luke. They always called him Bill.
Q Is William Luke living? A Yes sir, he was about three weeks ago.
Q He is a non-citizen? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the mother of Mattie Miller?
A I don't know what her name was.
Q Do you know whether or not she is living? A No, she is not living, but I don't know what her name was.

Q She was a non-citizen? A Yes sir.

Q Have George W. and Mattie Miller some children?

A They have two. Had two when we heard fro m them last.

Q What are their names? A John Tiger is the oldest one's name. The youngest one, they call him Bobby. I don't know whether that is his English name or not.

Q The names are on the 1896 roll as John W. and Robert D. Do you think that is correct? A Yes sir, they always call the baby Bobby.

Q Is John W. About twelve years old? A Yes sir.

Q Robert D. about seven years old? A Yes sir.

Q Where was George W. Miller born? A He was born in the Chickasaw Nation during the war.

Q How long after the war was it until he came to the Cherokee Nation?

A I t was about three years, as well as I can recollect, after the war, when he came back.

Q That was along about 1868? A Yes sir.

Q Then how long did he reside in the Cherokee Nation after coming here in 1868? A He has been here always until about a year ago this August he left home down there. He had never enrolled when he left there. The last time I heard from him he had not enrolled, and I thought I would see about it, and see whether he never had.

Q In what district in the Cherokee Nation does he make his home?

A Canadian.

Q Has he any improvements in the Cherokee Nation?

A He has got a place down there.

Q Where is that place? A It is near Texanna.

Q Do you know whether he has sold that place or not?

A No, I don't. I don't know whether he sold the place or not.

Q Then you don't know whether he has any improvements in the Cherokee Nation or not? A No, I am not positive that he has.

Q When was it he left Canadian District? A About a year ago, along the last of August, this August was a year ago.

Q Then where did he go? A I don't know where he went to from there. I think he went out west of Wagoner, then travelled back towards Oklahoma that way.

Q Was he over out of the Cherokee Nation for any purpose until he left this last August was a year ago? A No sir, never was out of the Cherokee Nation until this August was a year ago for any purpose unless it was to visit and back.

Q Do you know whether or not he drew Cherokee Strip money in 1894?

A Yes sir, he drew his money all right.

Q Do you know whether he drew for these children or not.

A Yes sir, he drew for one of them that I know of.

Q Were George W. Miller and Mattie Miller married?

A I guess they were, I could not swear to that, because I didn't live down there. I have not seen him in four or five years. I suppose they were.

Q So far as you know, have they been recognized as husband and wife?

A Yes sir.

Q Is George W. Miller the father and Mattie Miller the mother of these two children? A No, the oldest one's mother is dead. She was a sister to Mattie Miller, to the one he has got now. His first wife died, then he married this sister. The youngest child is her child.

Q What is the name of George W. Miller's first wife? A Lizzie.

Q Do you know anything about the marriage of George W. Miller to his first wife, Lizzie Miller? A No sir, but I suppose they were married.

Q Was George W. Miller ever married before he married Lizzie Miller?

A No sir.

Q Was Mattie Miller ever married before she married George W. Miller?

A No sir.

Q Is Mattie Miller a young woman now about twenty-three years of age?

A Yes sir, about that age, I guess.

Q Do you have any correspondences with George W. Miller?
 A No sir, I don't have any, because I don't know where he is at. I was down home about three weeks ago, and I heard of him coming back there, but he didn't stay long.
 Q When you speak of down home you mean in Canadian District?
 A Yes sir, that is where I was raised, but since I have married I live here in Tahlequah District.
 Q You say when he was there he didn't stay long, when was he there?
 A I guess it was about the 6th of August when he was there.
 Q This last August, or August was a year ago?
 A This last August. We went down there on the 3rd, and it was about the 8th, because he was down there. I heard of him being down there, but didn't get to see him.
 Q Has George W. Miller got his family with him wherever he is?
 A Yes sir, he had his family with him when he was back home, but he didn't stay long.
 Q Is George W. Miller a citizen of any other Nation in the Indian Territory? A No sir, not that I know of.
 Q Has he any other Indian blood but Cherokee blood? A No sir.
 Q He is of sound mind, is he? A Yes sir.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Mrs. Benjamin B. Graham,
Texanna, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Upon examination of the 1892 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, it appears that one George W. Miller, aged at that time seventeen years, was enrolled with you.

You are requested to inform this Commission whether the said George W. Miller is living, and, if so, his present post office address.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 7, 1903.

Mattie Miller,

Texanna, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are hereby notified that before your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation will be complete, it will be necessary for you to appear before this Commission and give further testimony as to your right to enrollment on September 1, 1902.

This testimony can be introduced before the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, on or before February 25, 1903.

When you appear please present this letter.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

George W. Miller,

Ramona, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of September 10, in regard to the status of the application for the enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of yourself and family.

In reply you are advised that the names of yourself and family are listed upon a doubtful card and no decision has yet been rendered as to your right to enrollment. Before a decision will be rendered it will be necessary that you appear at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tahlequah, and give further testimony in regard to the right to enrollment of your wife, Mattie, on September 2, 1902.

This testimony should be introduced at the earliest possible date.

Respectfully,

GRS

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dr. S. F. Moore,

McKay, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Upon an examination of the 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, it is found that your name appears thereon as a citizen by adoption. Should you desire to offer any evidence in support of an application for enrollment as a citizen by inter-marriage of the Cherokee Nation, you will be allowed fifteen days from date hereof in which to do so.

Yours truly,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of James McDaniel as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of James McDaniel as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said James McDaniel is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1890 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted
for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that
date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of James McDaniel on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of James McDaniel as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 21, 1905.

Sarah Giboney,

Texanna, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Application has been made to this Commission for the enrollment of one James McDaniel, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, his name appearing upon the 1880 Authenticated Cherokee Roll as a resident of Canadian District. His age, if living now, would be 28 years.

If you have knowledge of the whereabouts of the said James McDaniel, kindly inform the Commission of the same at the earliest possible date.

This matter should receive your immediate attention. An envelope for reply is enclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

Geo. Marshall as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

ORDER.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Geo. Marshall as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Geo. Marshall is identified on the Cherokee ~~authenticated~~ roll of 1890 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Geo. Marrel on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Geo. Marrel as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Susan Manning as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Susan Manning as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. The records further show that said Susan Manning is identified upon the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Canadian District at No. 1020.

Since the application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Susan Manning as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, the Commission and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes have dilligently sought information which would enable them to determine whether or not said applicant was living September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not she was entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of said Susan Manning on September 1, 1902.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Susan Manning as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same is, hereby, dismissed without prejudice.

The records of the Commission show that Kate McIntosh together with her children, John, Julia, Betty, Jewel and Roy McIntosh are enrolled on Creek Census Card Field number 992.

#2. Thomas McIntosh.

Q Have you any children under eighteen years of age and unmarried for whom you now desire to make application? A My wife and children have already been enrolled.

Q You are advised Mr. McIntosh that the Act of June 28, 1898 contains the following provisions:

"The several tribes may by agreement determine the rights of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right."

A Yes, sir.

Q In which Nation do you now elect to be enrolled and take your allotment of land? A Creek Nation.

Q Is there any additional statement that you now desire to make at this time? A No, sir, I think not.

You will be furnished at a later date with a copy of the decision with reference to the application made by you at this time, for enrollment as a citizen of the Creek nation, which will be mailed to you at your present postoffice address, at Checotah, Indian Territory.

Lona Cummings, having been first duly sworn, upon her oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes she reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 18th day of February, 1901, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes of said proceedings on said date.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of
T. F. McIntosh as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION

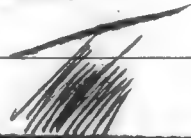

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of T. F. McIntosh as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1438.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; and that, on November 19, 1901, he appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and elected to be enrolled and to receive his allotment of lands and distribution of moneys in the Creek Nation.

Paragraph eight, Section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED; That, under the provisions of Paragraph eight, Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress above noted, T. F. McIntosh is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Cherokee Enrollment Division,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that Thomas McIntosh, age 33 years, his wife, Kate, age 23 years, and their children, John, Julia, Bettie and Jewel McIntosh, ages 6, 5, 3, 1 year, respectively, and Roy McIntosh, age one month, are regularly enrolled on Creek Indian Card, Field No. 992; that selections of land have been made for them in the Creek Nation, and that their names are included in partial roll of Creek citizens by blood approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 13, 1902.

It appears from the records of the Creek Enrollment Division, that said Thomas McIntosh is a son of William F. McIntosh, deceased, a citizen of the Creek Nation, and Bettie McIntosh, deceased, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

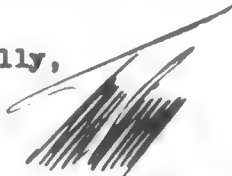

It also appears that said Thomas McIntosh has been listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that his name appears upon the Cherokee rolls.

It further appears, that said Thomas McIntosh was admitted to citizenship in the Creek Nation by the Commission, May 14,

February 7, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, Dated January 15, 1906, forwarding the record of proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of T. F. McIntosh as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, including the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 15, 1906, rejecting the application.

The record shows that Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, and made application for the enrollment of T. F. McIntosh as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The record further shows that the applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; and that on November 19, 1901, he appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and elected to be enrolled and to receive his allotment of lands and distribution of moneys in the Creek Nation.

In view of the fact that the applicant has already been allotted lands in the Creek Nation, under the provisions of paragraph 8 of Section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495), the Office concurs in the decision of Commissioner Bixby that T.F. McIntosh is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of

--o--

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Donet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Nannie Harcoony as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Nannie Harcoony is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1896 as a Cherokee by blood

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1860 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Nannie Narcoony on September 1, 1903.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Nannie Narcoony as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Josephine Nevins as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Josephine Nevins as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1440.

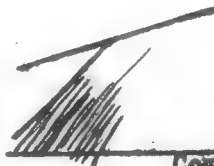

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation, and that, under the name of Josephine Higgins, she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof on Creek Indian Card 1834, Roll No. 5810, and that her enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902. It is further shown that on May 2, 1902, the said Josephine Higgins voluntarily selected her allotment of land in the Creek Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Josephine Higgins (Nevins) to be enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of her allotment of land in said nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress above noted, Josephine Nevins is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Dear sir:

You are requested to advise the Cherokee Enrollment Division whether or not Josephine Nevins who is enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Creek Nation on Creek I card Field No. 1834, Roll No. 5810, under the name of Josephine Wiggins, and whose enrollment as such was approved by the secretary of the Interior March 20, 1902, has selected her allotment of land in the Creek Nation, and if so, whether such selection was voluntarily or arbitrarily made.

Please give this matter your earliest possible attention.

Respectfully,

October 5, 1906.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:--

There is inclosed herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 16, 1906, transmitting the record relative to the application of Josephine Nivens for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

At Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr made application for the enrolment of Josephine Nivens as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and the applicant was duly listed on Cherokee card D-1440.

On April 16, 1906, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes decided that Josephine Nivens was not entitled to enrolment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application was accordingly denied.

The record in this case shows that the applicant possessed the right to enrolment as a citizen of the Creek Nation, and that under the name of Josephine Higgins she was enrolled on the records of that nation, and was identified by Creek Indian Card 1834, roll number 5810. Her enrolment was approved by the Department March 28, 1902.

It is further shown that on May 2, 1902 Josephine Higgins voluntary selected her allotment of land in the Creek Nation. In view of the record and of paragraph 8 of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), providing for the enrollment of members of the tribes, it is recommended that the Commissioner's decision be approved, and it is further recommended that the application for the enrollment of Josephine Nivens as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be denied.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee.

A. Yes sir, she was raised in the Cherokee Nation; educated at the seminary.
Q. Did you secure a license and marry her in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
Q. In what district was the license issued? A. Cooweescoowee.
Q. Who married you? A. Judge Sixkiller.
Q. Was she your first wife? A. Yes sir.
Q. Were you her first husband? A. No, she had been married twice before that; had two children.
Q. Were her former husband's dead at the time you were married to her? A. Her first husband died and her and the second man parted.
Q. Was she divorced from her second husband at the time you married her? A. Yes sir.
Q. From the time of your marriage to her until the time of her death in 1876 did you and she continuously live together as husband and wife? A. Yes sir.
Q. And have continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation, have you?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Have you remarried since her death? A. Yes sir

- Q. You have remarried since the death of your first wife?
A. Yes sir, I married a white woman.
Q. When did you marry this white woman? A. About 1883.
Q. She was not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
A. No sir, she was not.
Q. Is she living or dead? A. She is dead.
Q. When did she die? A. A year ago last February.
Q. Did you and she continuously live together as man and wife from the time of your marriage until her death? A. Yes sir.
Q. Has your residence been continuously in the Cherokee Nation since your marriage to your first wife and up to the present time? A. No sir, not all the time. About six years ago I went out to Oklahoma and have been living there since. I was forced to leave; forced to sell the place I had made and where I had bought improvements, there in Canadian. Sam Mayes was Chief, of the Cherokee Nation, and he sent a man down there to give me thirty days notice to abandon my place in Canadian District, that I had paid for; I had a fine orchard and fine improvements on it, and I was forced to leave it.
Q. Then for the last six years you have been residing in Oklahoma, have you? A. Yes sir.
Q. During that time have you owned any property in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir, I left some property here.
Q. What was the nature of the property you left in the Cherokee Nation? A. A wagon and horse; plows and farming utensils, a mowing machine and such like, and a $68.00 cooking stove.
Q. With whom did you leave that property? A. I left the stove with a man by the name of Gray, and the horse and wagon with a man by the name of Jordan, and the farming implements with a man by the name of Mitchell.
Q. Did you leave these things, this property, with the intention of abandoning it, or did you merely leave it in the care of these people?
A. I left it with them to sell?
Q. Have they sold any of this property? A. No sir, I have never got anything out of any of them.
Q. When did you return to Warner to live?
A. I have been down there about two months now; have been stopping with my son, about two and a half miles from Warner.
Q. Is that your home? A. Yes sir; that is my home.
Q. You say that this second woman that you married was a white woman and not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. No sir

The applicant, J. W. Petty, is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Canadian District, No. 1073.

BY MR. VANCE:

- Q. You say your first wife was divorced from her second husband? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where did she secure that divorce?

- A. I think in Tahlequah; she lived in Cooweescoowee district, on Grand River.
- Q. Do you know that they were divorced, or is that hearsay?
- A. Yes sir, I know that.
- Q. Were you present at the time they were divorced?
- A. No sir, but that is what she had always told me.
- Q. Are you stopping at Warner temporarily or is that your permanent home? A. It is my home now, at the present time; I may return to Oklahoma.
- Q. You intend to return to Oklahoma? A. Yes sir, I have a daughter out there.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of
J. W. Petty as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 30, 1902, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of J. W. Petty as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, August 15, 1902, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 14, 1902, September 14, 1905, and January 5, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, J. W. Petty, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Canadian District, Page 39, No. 1073, as an adopted white, claims the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of his marriage in 1872, to one Rachel Mayes, who was, at the time of said marriage, a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, with whom he resided in the Cherokee Nation from the date of his marriage until her death in 1896.

The evidence further shows that in 1883, said applicant was married to one Polly Robinson, a white woman, with whom he continued to reside in the Cherokee Nation until the date of her death in 1905.

Section 666 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation, 1892, provides:

"Should any man or woman, a citizen of the United States or of any foreign country, become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage, and be left a widow or widower by the decease of the Cherokee wife or husband, such surviving widow or widower shall continue to enjoy the rights of citizenship, unless he or she shall marry a white man or woman, or person (as the case may be), having no rights to Cherokee citizenship by blood; in that case all of his or her rights acquired under the provisions of this Act shall cease."

In view of the foregoing provision of Cherokee law, it is considered that the said applicant, by reason of his marriage to Polly Robinson, a white woman, forfeited whatever rights to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation he may have acquired by virtue of his marriage to his Cherokee wife, Rachel Mayes.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, J. W. Petty, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and made application for the enrollment of J. W. Petty as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application, on August 15, 1902, at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and on September 14, 1905, at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

The records further show that the said J. W. Petty is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That J. W. Petty claims the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of his marriage, in 1872, to one Rachel Mayes, a Cherokee by blood, with whom he resided in the Cherokee Nation from the date of his marriage until her death in 1876.

The evidence further shows that in 1883, said applicant was married to one Polly Robinson, a white woman, with whom he continued to reside until the date of her death in 1905.

Section 666 of the Cherokee Constitution , provides:

"Should any man or woman , a citizen of the United States or of any foreign country, become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage, and be left a widow or widower by the decease of the Cherokee wife or husband, such surviving widow or widower shall continue to enjoy the rights of citizenship, unless he or she shall marry a white man or woman, or person, (as the case may be), having no rights to Cherokee citizenship by blood; in that case all of his or her rights acquired under the provisions of this Act shall cease:"

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), J. W. Petty is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation,, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Gentlemen:

There is herewith transmitted, for consideration by the Commission, the record and also the original card in the matter of the application for the enrollment of J. W. Petty, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, Cherokee D-1442.

It will be seen that the applicant admits in his letter of March 30, 1903, that he married a white woman in 1885.

If further testimony is considered necessary, it is recommended that the record be returned with a note as to the evidence desired.

Respectfully,

C. R. Breckinridge

Dear Sir:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your wife, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time of your marriage to her, and whether or not you were married to her in accordance with Cherokee laws.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Saturday, January 5, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

J.M.H.

Acting Commissioner.

Q Have you the child in your possession? A No sir, he is here now.
Q He ought to apply for the enrollment of his child. A He has given it away. The child's father I don't know where he is, the child is here.

Examination by Att'y Hutchings:

- Q The child is not living with you and you have no control over it?
A Somebody ought to represent it; it has got a right here if any of us have.

Attorney Hutchings here submits law bearing upon this case, to-wit: Section 659 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation, 1892, and the sections following, and section 666.

Note: Mrs. Wood appears upon the roll of 1880, Delaware District, page 221, #141, as Amanda Boyle.

Examination by Com'r Needles:

- Q You have no married children? A No sir.
- Q It appears that your name is on the regularly authenticated roll of 1880, and that the name of your husband, H. M. Wood, is upon the Census roll of 1896 as Hiram Wood, and he is identified as being the same person, but the law of the Cherokee Nation in regard to the intermarriage of citizens with white persons is such that the Commission is not able to determine at this time as to your rights of citizenship, nor as to the rights of Mr. H. M. Wood, who applies with you. Your names will be placed upon what is known as a doubtful card, and your case will be considered by the Commission when they make up the final rolls of the Cherokee Nation. Decision of the Commission, in extenso, will be forwarded to you and Mr. Woods in the near future, by mail. If you desire, either of you, to offer any other evidence, documentary evidence, affidavits, or to give any oral testimony in regard to your case you will be permitted to do so.

Applicant, Hiram M. Wood, makes statement as follows:

Mr. Boyle paid for his and his wife's right in the Nation here when they came. Paid in the amount that was prescribed to be paid for admission.

- Q Did they pay this or did the Shawnees pay it? (No answer from Hiram M. Wood, but Amanda Wood says:) Paid like the rest of them paid it.

Amanda Wood, examined by Att'y Hutchings: --

- Q Have you ever taken any land in the Peoria Nation? A No sir.
- Q How come you to reside there all the time? A I never resided there.
- Q Didn't you state that you resided there? (Amanda Wood does not answer, but Hiram M. Wood says:) I did, before I was married.

Commissioner Needles:

And you will be permitted, either or both of you, to appear before the Commission at any time, either by person, in support of your claim for citizenship, or attorney, at the offices of the Commission at Muskogee, at any time before the rolls are made.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported the foregoing case and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL.

The record herein shows that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, of the following named persons whose names appear on the Cherokee tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission, and for whose enrollment no previous application had been made, to-wit: Susie Parris, M. A. Vann, Joe Ala, Charley Boyle, Matilda Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Berry Johnson, Jr., Joseph Bird, Elizabeth Davis and Culah-takey Jones, whose names appear on the authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and for Josie Cramp, Stand W. Winton, Catherine Hall, Lewis D. Boyd and John H. Dukes, whose names appear on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

An examination of the said tribal rolls shows that said applicants are of Indian nationality of either Cherokee or Shawnee blood.

It appears from letters on file in these cases, received in answer to inquiries by the Commission, that all of the above named applicants died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (Public - No. 241), and duly ratified, as provided in Section 75 thereof, provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the name of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes".

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of Susie Parris, M. A. Vann, Joe Ala, Charley Boyle, Matilda Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Berry Johnson, Jr., Joseph Bird, Elizabeth Davis, Culah-takey Jones, Josie Cramp, Stand W. Winton, Catherine Hall, Lewis D. Boyd and John H. Dukes as citizens of the Cherokee Nation should be, and the same are hereby, dismissed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Clinton Starr as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

ORDER.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Clinton
as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Clinton is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted
for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that
date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Chickasaw Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Clinton Smart on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Clinton Smart as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.

Mr. Henry Smart,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Upon an examination of the 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, it is found that one Clinton Smart, aged at that time three years, was enrolled with you.

You are requested to inform the Commission whether the said Clinton Smart is living at the present time, and if so, to furnish his present post office address.

Dear Sir:

On January 21, 1905, the Commission addressed you, requesting you to furnish information relative to your brother, Clinton Smart; his name appearing upon the 1880 Authenticated Cherokee Roll, as a resident of Canadian District.

If you have any knowledge relative to his whereabouts at the present time, kindly inform the Commission of the same at the earliest possible date.

This matter should receive your immediate attention. An envelope for reply is enclosed herewith.

In the matter of the application of Edward Schrimsher for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Addie Schrimsher, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Addie Schrimsher, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q State your name. A Addie Schrimsher.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-five years old.
Q What is your postoffice? A Wagoner.
Q What is your husband's name? A Edward L Schrimsher.
Q Are you claiming citizenship by intermarriage? A I haven't been claiming any, but I was notified to appear and I come to see about it.
Q When did you marry Mr. Schrimsher? A In February, 1895.
I have my license with me.

~~Exhibit~~

Applicant presents the original marriage license issued by the Clerk of the United States Court, First Judicial Division, on February 22, 1895, and certificate of marriage thereto attached showing that E. L. Schrimsher and Addie Bates were married on February 25, 1895, by N. J. Crawford, a Minister of the Gospel.

- Q Was your name Addie Bates before you married Mr. Schrimsher?
A Yes sir.

This license and certificate will be filed and made a part of the record in this case.

- Q Now your husband is a Creek citizen, is he not? A Yes sir, he has taken his land in the Creek Nation. His father is a Cherokee and his mother is a Creek.

The name of Edward Schrimsher appears on the 1880 roll page 43, No. 1192, Illinois District.

- Q Were you ever married before you married Mr. Schrimsher? A No sir.
Q Was he ever married before he married you? A No sir.
Q Have you been living together ever since you were married? A Yes sir.
Q Living at Wagoner all the time? A Yes sir.
Q Your husband has always lived in the territory, has he? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any children? A Yes sir, we have one.
Q How old is it? A Seven years old.
Q What is its name? A Gertrude.
Q Is that child enrolled as a Creek? A Yes sir.
Q You never made application to be enrolled as a Cherokee citizen?
A No sir, I didn't because I didn't think I would get any land.
Q For the reason that your husband had been enrolled as a Creek?
A Yes sir, that is the reason.
Q At the time you were married did your husband regard himself as a citizen of the Creek Nation? A No sir, he regarded himself as a Cherokee citizen.

It appears that Edward Schrimsher is enrolled on the Cherokee census roll of 1896 page 907, No. 1899, Illinois District.

- Q Do you know whether your husband drew Cherokee strip money in 1894? A Yes sir, he did.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Edward Schrimsher, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before this Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of Edward Schrimsher, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

From the records of the Commission it appears that said applicant (as Edward L. Schrimsher) is included in a partial roll of citizens by blood of the Creek Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 13, 1902, opposite No. 1649, and as such has selected his allotment of lands in the Creek Nation.

Section 28 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716), provides:-

"No person whose name appears upon the roll made by the Dawes Commission as a citizen or freedman of any other tribe shall be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application made for the enrollment of Edward Schrimsher, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, should be denied under the provisions of law above quoted, and it is so ordered.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

Upon an examination of the 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, it appears that one Edward Schrimsher, aged at that time, eight years, was enrolled with you. Placed opposite the name of Edward Schrimsher is a note to the effect that he is a Creek citizen.

You are requested to inform the Commission whether the said Edward Schrimsher is living at the present time, and if so, furnish his present post office address.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 18, 1902.

Cherokee Enrollment Division,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Gentlemen:

You are hereby advised that Edward L. Schrimsher, age 27 years, and his daughter, Gertrude, age 2 years, are regularly enrolled on Creek Indian Card, Field No. 507; that selections of land have been made for them in the Creek Nation, and that their names are included in partial roll of Creek citizens by blood approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 13, 1902.

It appears from the records of the Creek Enrollment Division, that said Edward L. Schrimsher is the son of J. W. Schrimsher, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and Rebecca Schrimsher, deceased, a citizen of the Creek Nation, and that the mother of said Gertrude Schrimsher is Addie Schrimsher, a non-citizen.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated May 4, 1905, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation of Edward Schrimsher.

May 4, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to the applicant.

The record shows that the applicant (as Edward L. Schrimsher) is included in a partial roll of citizens by blood of the Creek Nation approved by the Department March 13, 1902, and has selected his allotment of lands in the Creek Nation.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicant is recommended.

Very respectfully,

Q Has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q How long has she been out of the Cherokee Nation?

A She left the Cherokee Nation, to the best of my recollection, in 1881.

Q Do you know whether or not she has returned to the Cherokee Nation since that time? A She came back here about six or seven years ago, the time of the Strip Payment.

Q How long did she stay here at that time? A A couple of months.

Q Then she returned? A Yes sir, went back to Colorado.

Q Is her present residence in the State of Colorado? A Yes, I think it is. That is what I have been told, that they are living there yet.

Q Do you know whether she has any improvements in the Cherokee Nation or not? A No sir, I don't.

Q About what degree of Cherokee blood has Samantha Stephenson?

A About one-eighth.

Q Was Samantha Stephenson ever married? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know the name of her husband? A Stephenson is her husband, I can't think of his given name.

Q The 1880 roll shows that she was enrolled with one C. R. Stephenson, a white man? A That's it, she was married about 1880.

Q How long has it been since you have seen C. R. Stephenson?

A I have not seen him since about 1881.

Q Do you know whether he is living or not? A No sir, I don't.

Q Did he leave the Cherokee Nation with his wife Samantha? A Yes.

Q Have you known of his returning to the Cherokee Nation since that time? A No sir, he never came back with her.

Q Is it your understanding that they are living together now?

A Yes sir.

Q Did they have some children? A Yes sir, they had some children, but I don't know their names. I think there were two at that time.

Q I see the 1880 roll shows that they had two children enrolled with them at that time, J. C. Stephenson, a male, and S. E. Stephenson, also a male, children at that time seven and four years respectively.

A He himself lived in Illinois District. After he married her they lived in Illinois District town there at the old Courthouse place on Illinois River, right south of Garfield on the Illinois River. They lived there, and I don't know but what he was living there somewhere in that neighborhood when he left the country. It was in 1881 when he left, I am positive of that.

Q Did C. E. Stephenson and his wife whole family leave the Cherokee Nation at that time? A Yes sir, they all left together.

Q Have you known of either of his children being back since that time? A No, only they may have come back with their mother. I saw their mother when she came back to get on the roll, but never saw the children.

Q That was the Strip Payment roll? A yes sir, and the old lady, I met her at Braggs, and she was telling me her daughter was coming back.

Q That is Samantha? A yes sir.

Q You don't know whether she has returned to the country?

A No sir, I don't.

Q If she has you have not heard of it? A If she has I have not heard of it.

Q How far do you live from the mother of Samantha Stephenson?

A About six miles.

Q You state you are not sure whether he was living in Canadian or Illinois District in 1880? A Yes sir.

Q He lived in Canadian District a while, then moved over into Illinois, then came back to Canadian? A yes sir, along about 1880, somewhere near Elm Grove.

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORD IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That, on June 5, 1902, Samantha Stephenson appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself and minor child, Alice Stephenson, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had on June 23 and 30, at Muskogee, on August 15, at Tahlequah, and on November 14, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory. The record further shows that on October 20, 1902, the Commission rendered its decision herein denying said applicants the right to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that said decision was duly affirmed by the Department. Thereafter, on March 26, 1904 (Departmental letter I.T.D. 7988-02-7162-03), said decision was rescinded by the Department, and case remanded for further testimony and readjudication. Through an oversight on the part of the Commission, the proceedings had in this case on June 30, at Muskogee, and on August 15, 1902, at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, were omitted from the record as forwarded to the Department, and they, together with the proceedings had herein on November 14, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, are now filed in their chronological order and made a part of the record in this case.

The record further shows that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made applications for the enrollment of C. R. Stephenson, J. C. Stephenson and S. E. Stephenson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said applications were had on November 14 and 18, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Since the case of Samantha Stephenson et al., was remanded for further testimony, the Commission has used due diligence to locate all the applicants in the case as now consolidated but has reached only the applicant, J. C. (W.) Stephenson, as evidenced by his letter of February 4, 1905, filed herewith, and to which attention is particularly called.

In view of the foregoing, this case is considered closed, and will be adjudicated on the evidence now of record.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicants, Samantha, Alice, J. C. and S. E. Stephenson, are Cherokees by blood, and that the applicant, C. R. Stephenson, was an adopted white citizen of the Cherokee Nation; and that all the adult applicants herein are identified on the authenticated Cherokee tribal roll of 1880, and the applicants, Samantha, Alice and J. C. Stephenson, are identified on the Cherokee Strip payment roll of 1894, but that said applicants cannot be identified on any other roll of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Commission. In support of her application for enrollment, Samantha Stephenson appeared before the Commission on June 5 and 23, 1902, and testifies that she is fifty-two years old, that she has been in the Cherokee Nation four or five days, and that her postoffice address is Bonanza, Colorado; that she is a Cherokee by blood, was born in the Cherokee Nation, and continuously resided therein until about the year 1880; that in 1872 she was married to the applicant, C. R. Stephenson, and that the applicant, J. C. Stephenson, was born to them in 1873, and the applicant, S. E. Stephenson, in 1876 or 1877; that she and her husband and two children, continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation until some time in the year 1880, when they removed to the state of Colorado, and that her said husband and said two sons have since continuously lived outside the limits of the Indian Territory, and that, excepting occasional visits to the Cherokee Nation she has since continuously lived in said state of Colorado; that the minor applicant, Alice Stephenson, was born to her and her said husband in Colorado in 1888, and has continuously lived with her since birth; and that, at the time of her removal from the Cherokee Nation in 1880, she owned a farm in said Nation, and left some horses, hogs, cattle and household effects therein, that later, the farm was sold and the money paid into her hands, but does not know what became of the livestock. She further testifies that after her removal from the Cherokee Nation as above indicated, she and her child, Alice Stephenson, returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1893 and remained eighteen months, and again in 1895 and remained fourteen months. On cross-examination applicant admits that by reason of the advantage accruing to her, her visits to the Cherokee Nation were timed to include the Cherokee Strip and Old Settlers' payments, and that within a short time after each payment was made, she, with her child, returned to Colorado.

On June 23, 1902, Mailine Baty, mother of the said Samantha Stephenson, testifies in this case, and on direct examination her testimony on all material points corroborates that of her daughter; and further testifies, that she disposed of the said livestock left in the Cherokee Nation by her said daughter on her removal therefrom, and that of the said household effects left as above indicated, only "a wash kettle and some other vessels" remain. On cross-examination she admits that there was a payment made to the Cherokees each time her daughter visited the Cherokee Nation, and that, immediately after the payments were made, her said daughter returned to Colorado.

On August 15, 1902, at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, McCoy Smith testifies before the Commission in this case, but his testimony serves only to corroborate that of the witnesses as above set out.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSION: It is considered by the Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Clara A. Ward, (I.T.D. 5878 - 10132-04), the applicants, Samantha and C. R. Stephenson, prior to September 1, 1902, expatriated themselves from the Cherokee Nation, under the provisions of Section II, Article I, Cherokee Constitution, which, in part, provides:

"Whenever any citizen shall remove with his effects out of the limits of this Nation, and becomes a citizen of any other government, all his rights and privileges as a citizen of this Nation shall cease;"

And that the applicants, J. C. and S. E. Stephenson, were, on September 1, 1902, not less than twenty-nine and twenty-five years old, respectively, and, having failed to return to and permanently locate in the Cherokee Nation within a reasonable time after reaching their majority, their citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was forfeited under the doctrine established by the rulings of the Department in the cases of James Hunter et al., (I.T.D. 1970-03), Cleveland M. Patrick, (I.T.D. 1448-03), George Ewers Jr., et al., (I.T.D. 7066-02), Peggy A. Harlow et al., (I.T.D. 1446-03), Richard M. Locker et al., (I.T.D. 6476-03), Frederick Garrett et al., (I.T.D. 6478-03) and Archie A. Thornton (I.T.D. 5873-02); and that the minor applicant, Alice Stephenson, was born subsequent to the date that her parents forfeited their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, and that she possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee citizen other than as a descendant of her said parents.

IT IS, THEREFORE, THE OPINION OF THE COMMISSION: That, for the reasons herein set forth, its decision of October 20, 1903, should be re-affirmed, and that the application for the enrollment of Samantha Stephenson and Alton Stephenson, as citizens by blood, and the applications for the enrollment of C. E. Stephenson, J. C. Stephenson and S. E. Stephenson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 26, 1896 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

July 6, 1905.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated June 16, 1905, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation by Samantha Stephenson for herself and her minor child, Alice Stephenson and by Emmet Starr for G.R., J.C. and S.E. Stephenson.

June 16, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that on October 20, 1902, the Commission decided adversely to Samantha and Alice Stephenson and, as stated, through oversight the other applicants herein were omitted from the decision; that on March 28, 1904 (I.T.D. 7988-1902, 7162-1903) the case was remanded for further testimony and readjudication. The record shows that Samantha, Alice, J.C., and S.E. Stephenson are Cherokees by blood and the applicant, G.R. Stephenson was an adopted white citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that all of the adult applicants are identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll and Samantha, Alice and J. C. Stephenson are identified on the Cherokee Strip payment roll of 1894, but the applicants are not identified on any other Cherokee roll. It is further shown that Samantha is a Cherokee by blood, born in the Cherokee Nation and continuously resided therein until about 1880; that in 1872 she married the applicant, C. R. Stephenson and the other applicants are the offspring of their marriage; that in 1880 the principal applicant and her family removed to the State of Colorado where they have continuously lived outside of the Indian Territory excepting occasional visits to the Cherokee Nation by Samantha that while so residing in Colorado she sold her property in the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY AND PROCEEDINGS in the matter of the enrollment of SAMANTHA STEPHENSON as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

McCOY SMITH, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY COMMISSION: Your name is McCoy Smith, your age is fifty-five, your post office address is Braggs, Indian Territory? A Yes sir.

Q You are a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Samantha Stephenson? A Yes sir.

Q She is a woman now about fifty-two years of age? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know her present post office address? A No sir, I don't.

Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know the name of her father? A Her father's name is William Beatty.

Q Is he living? A No sir, he is dead.

Q Was he a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir, recognized as such.

Q Did he reside in Canadian District? A Only a little while. He was killed in 1864. He was killed in Canadian District in 1864.

Q Do you know the name of the mother of Samantha Stephenson? A Yes sir, her name was Emiline Beatty.

Q Is she living? A Yes, she is living.

Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know her present post office address? A Braggs, I. T.

Q Illinois District? A Yes sir she resides in Illinois District. She lived in Canadian up to a few years ago.

Q How long have you known Samantha Stephenson? A I got acquainted with her in 1866.

Q Has she resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since that time? A No sir.

Q Has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q How long has she been out of the Cherokee Nation? A She left the Cherokee Nation, to the best of my recollection, in 1881.

Q Do you know whether or not she has returned to the Cherokee Nation since that time? A She came back here about six or seven years ago, the time of the Strip Payment.

Q How long did she stay here at that time? A A couple of months.

Q Then she returned? A Yes sir, went back to Colorado.

Q Is her present residence in the State of Colorado? A Yes, I think it is. That is what I have been told, that they are living there yet.

Q Do you know whether she has any improvements in the Cherokee Nation or not? A No sir, I don't.

Q About what degree of Cherokee blood has Samantha Stephenson? A About one-eighth.

Q Was Samantha Stephenson ever married? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know the name of her husband? A Stephenson is her husband. I can't think of his given name.

Q The 1880 roll shows that she was enrolled with one C. R. Stephenson, a white man? A That's it, she was married about 1880.

Q How long has it been since you have seen C. R. Stephenson? A I have not seen him since about 1881.

Q Do you know whether he is living or not? A No sir, I don't.

Q Did he leave the Cherokee Nation with his wife Samantha? A Yes.

Q Have you known of his returning to the Cherokee Nation since that time? A No sir, he never came back with her.

Q Is it your understanding that they are living together now? A Yes sir.

Q Did they have some children? A Yes sir, they had some children, but I don't know their names. I think there was two at that time.

Q I see the 1880 roll shows that they had two children enrolled with them at that time, J.C. Stephenson, a male, and S.E. Stephenson, also a male, children at that time seven and four years respectively.

A He himself lived in Illinois District. After he married her they lived in Illinois District down there at the old Courthouse place on Illinois River, right south of Garfield on the Illinois River. They lived there, and I don't know but what he was living there somewhere in that neighborhood when he left the country. It was in 1881 when he left, I am positive of that.

Q Did C. R. Stephenson and his whole family leave the Cherokee Nation at that time? A Yes sir, they all left together.

Q Have you known of either of his children being back since that time? A No, only they may have come back with their mother. I saw their mother when she came back to get on the roll, but never saw the children.

Q That was the Strip Payment roll? A Yes sir, and the old lady, I met her at Braggs, and she was telling me her daughter was coming back.

Q That is Samantha? A Yes sir.

Q You don't know whether she has returned to the country? A

A No sir, I don't.

Q If she has you have not heard of it? A If she has I have not heard of it.

Q How far do you live from the mother of Samantha Stephenson?

A About six miles.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

An examination of the 1894 Pay Roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shows that the applicant herein, J. C. Stephenson, is identified upon said roll Page 98, #2072, Canadian District, as James Stephenson.

The tribal rolls of citizens of the Cherokee nation for the years 1883, 1886, 1890 and 1896 have been examined, and the name of the applicant cannot be identified of record thereon.

This statement will be filed with and made a part of the record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of J. C. Stephenson as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee nation, Cherokee doubtful card 1451.

THE RECORD IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That, on June 8, 1902, Samantha Stephenson appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself and minor child, Alice Stephenson, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had on June 23, and 30, at Muskogee, on August 15, at Tahlequah, and on November 14, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory. The record further shows that on October 20, 1902, the Commission rendered its decision herein denying said applicants the right to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that said decision was duly affirmed by the Department. Thereafter, on March 28, 1904 (Departmental letter I. T. D. 7902-02-7162-03), said decision was reconsidered by the Department, and case remanded for further testimony and readjudication. Through an oversight on the part of the Commission, the proceedings had in this case on June 30, at Muskogee, and on August 15, 1902, at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, were omitted from the record as forwarded to the Department, and they, together with the proceedings had herein on November 14, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, are now filed in their chronological order and made a part of the record in this case.

The record further shows that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made applications for the enrollment of C. R. Stephenson, J. C. Stephenson and S. E. Stephenson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said applications were had on November 14 and 18, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Since the case of Samantha Stephenson et al., was remanded for further testimony, the Commission has used due diligence to locate all the applicants in the case as now consolidated, but has reached only the applicant, J. C. (W.) Stephenson, as evidenced by his letter of February 4, 1905, filed herewith, and to which attention is particularly called.

In view of the foregoing, this case is considered closed, and will be adjudicated on the evidence now of record.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicants, Samantha, Alice, J. C. and S. E. Stephenson, are Cherokees by blood, and that the applicant, C. R. Stephenson, was an adopted white citizen of the Cherokee Nation; and that all the adult applicants herein are identified on the authenticated Cherokee tribal roll of 1880, and the applicants, Samantha, Alice and J. C. Stephenson, are identified on the Cherokee Strip payment roll of 1894, but that said applicants cannot be identified on any other roll of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Commission. In support of her application for enrollment, Samantha Stephenson appeared before the Commission on June 8 and 23, 1902, and testifies that she is fifty-two years old, that she has been in the Cherokee Nation four or five days, and that her postoffice address is Bonanza, Colorado; that she is a Cherokee by blood, was born in the Cherokee Nation, and continuously resided therein until about the year 1880; that in 1872 she was married to the applicant, C. R. Stephenson, and that the applicant, J. C. Stephenson, was born to them in 1873, and the applicant, S. E. Stephenson, in 1876 or 1877; that she and her husband and two children, continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation until some time in the year 1880, when they removed to the state of Colorado, and that her said husband and said two sons have since continuously lived outside the limits of the Indian Territory, and that, excepting occasional visits to the Cherokee Nation she has since continuously lived in said state of Colorado; that the minor applicant, Alice Stephenson, was born to her and her said husband in Colorado in 1888, and has continuously lived with her since birth; and that, at the time of her removal from the Cherokee Nation in 1880, she owned a farm in said Nation, and left some horses, hogs, cattle and household effects therein, that later, the farm was sold and the money paid into her hands, but does not know what became of the livestock. She further testifies that after her removal from the Cherokee Nation as above indicated, she and her child, Alice Stephenson, returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1893 and remained eighteen months, and again in 1895 and remained fourteen months. On cross-examination applicant admits that by reason of the advantage accruing to her, her visits to the Cherokee Nation were timed to include the Cherokee Strip and Old Settlers' payments, and that within a short time after each payment was made, she, with her child, returned to Colorado.

On June 23, 1902, Mailine Baty, mother of the said Samantha Stephenson, testifies in this case, and on direct examination her testimony on all material points corroborates that of her daughter; and further testifies, that she disposed of the said livestock left in the Cherokee Nation by her said daughter on her removal therefrom, and that of the said household effects left as above indicated, only "a wash kettle and some other vessels" remain. On cross-examination she admits that there was a payment made to the Cherokees each time her daughter visited the Cherokee Nation, and that, immediately after the payments were made, her said daughter returned to Colorado.

On August 18, 1902, at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, McCoy Smith testifies before the Commission in this case, but his testimony serves only to corroborate that of the witnesses as above set out.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSION: It is considered by the Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Clara A. Ward, (I. T. D. 5878-10132-04), the applicants, Samantha and C. R. Stephenson, prior to September 1, 1902, expatriated themselves from the Cherokee Nation, under the provisions of Section II, Article I, Cherokee Constitution, which in part, provides:

"Whenever any citizen shall remove with his effects out of the limits of this Nation, and becomes a citizen of any other government, all his rights and privileges as a citizen of this Nation shall cease;"

And that the applicants, J. C. and S. E. Stephenson, were on September 1, 1902, not less than twenty-nine and twenty-five years old, respectively, and, having failed to return to and permanently locate in the Cherokee Nation within a reasonable time after reaching their majority, their citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was forfeited under the doctrine established by the rulings of the Department in the cases of James Hunter et al., (I. T. D. 1970-03), Cleveland M. Patrick, (I. T. D. 1448-03), George Ewers Jr., et al., (I. T. D. 7066-02), Peggy A. Harlow et al., (I. T. D. 1446-03), Richard M. Locker et al., (I. T. D. 6476-03), Frederick Garrett et al., (I. T. D. 6478-03) and Archie A. Thornton (I. T. D. 5873-02); and that the minor applicant, Alice Stephenson, was born subsequent to the date that her parents forfeited their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, and that she possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee citizen other than as a descendant of her said parents.

IT IS, THEREFORE, THE OPINION OF THIS COMMISSION: That, for the reasons herein set forth, its decision of October 20, 1905, should be re-affirmed, and that the application for the enrollment of Samantha Stephenson and Alice Stephenson, as citizens by blood, and the applications for the enrollment of C. H. Stephenson, J. O. Stephenson and S. E. Stephenson, as citizens, of the Cherokee Nation, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 20, 1906 (34 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

Gentlemen:

In reply to your favor of Jan 12th will say that over two years ago my mother Samantha Stephenson appeared before your Commission and applied for enrollment for me and was denied. As we were at considerable expense in sending her there to no purpose I do not feel justified in any additional outlay without further encouragement. I have not resided in Indian Territory since 1880, but received my portion of money distributed to the Cherokees in about 1893, and my right to it was not questioned.

Kindly advise me as to what chances I have with your Commission-if any- and how to proceed.

Yours Respy.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated June 16, 1905, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation by Samantha Stephenson for herself and her minor child, Alice Stephenson and by Emmet Starr for G.R., J.C. and S.E. Stephenson.

June 16, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that on October 20, 1902, the Commission decided adversely to Samantha and Alice Stephenson and, as stated, through oversight the other applicants herein were omitted from the decision; that on March 25, 1904 (I.T.D. 7983-1902, 7182-1903) the case was remanded for further testimony and re-adjudication.

The record shows that Samantha, Alice, J.C., and S.E. Stephenson are Cherokees by blood and the applicant, G.R. Stephenson was an adopted white citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that all of the adult applicants are identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll and Samantha, Alice and J. C. Stephenson are identified on the Cherokee Strip payment roll of 1894, but the applicants are not identified on any other Cherokee roll. It is further shown that Samantha is a Cherokee by blood, born in the Cherokee Nation and continuously resided therein until about 1866; that in 1872 she married the applicant, C. R. Stephenson and the other applicants are the offspring of their marriage; that in 1880 the principal applicant and her family removed to the State of Colorado where they have continuously lived outside of the Indian Territory excepting occasional visits to the Cherokee Nation by Samantha that while so residing in Colorado she sold her property in the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY AND PROCEEDINGS in the matter of the enrollment of SAMANTHA STEPHENSON as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

McCOY SMITH, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

BY COMMISSION: Your name is McCoy Smith, your age is fifty-five, your post office address is Braggs, Indian Territory? A Yes sir.

Q You are a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Samantha Stephenson? A Yes sir.

Q She is a woman now about fifty-two years of age? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know her present post office address? A No sir, I don't.

Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know the name of her father? A Her father's name is William Beatty.

Q Is he living? A No sir, he is dead.

Q Was he a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir, recognized as such.

Q Did he reside in Canadian District? A Only a little while. He was killed in 1864. He was killed in Canadian District in 1864.

Q Do you know the name of the mother of Samantha Stephenson?

A Yes sir her name was Emiline Beatty.

Q Is she living? A Yes sir, she is living.

Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know her present post office address? A Braggs, I. T.

Q Illinois District? A Yes sir, she resides in Illinois District. She lived in Canadian up to a few years ago.

Q How long have you known Samantha Stephenson? A I got acquainted with her in 1866.

Q Has she resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since that time? A No sir.

Q Has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q How long has she been out of the Cherokee Nation? A She left the Cherokee Nation, to the best of my recollection, in 1881.

Q Do you know whether or not she has returned to the Cherokee Nation since that time? A She came back here about six or seven years ago, the time of the Strip Payment.

Q How long did she stay here at that time? A A couple of months.

Q Then she returned? A Yes sir, went back to Colorado.

Q Is her present residence in the State of Colorado? A Yes, I think it is. That is what I have been told, that they are living there yet.

Q Do you know whether she has any improvements in the Cherokee Nation or not? A No sir, I don't.

Q About what degree of Cherokee blood has Samantha Stephenson?

A About one-eighth.

Q Was Samantha Stephenson ever married? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know the name of her husband? A Stephenson is her husband, I can't think of his given name.

Q The 1880 roll shows that she was enrolled with one C.R. Stephenson, a white man? A That's it, she was married about 1880.

Q How long has it been since you have seen C. R. Stephenson?

A I have not seen him since about 1881.

Q Do you know whether he is living or not? A No sir, I don't.

Q Did he leave the Cherokee Nation with his wife Samantha? A Yes.

Q Have you known of his returning to the Cherokee Nation since that time? A No sir, he never came back with her.

Q Is it your understanding that they are living together now?

A Yes sir.

Q Did they have some children? A Yes sir, they had some children, but I don't know their names? I think there was two at that time.
 Q I see the 1880 roll shows that they had two children enrolled with them at that time, J.C. Stephenson, a male, and S.E. Stephenson, also a male, children at that time seven and four years respectively.
 A He himself lived in Illinois District. After he married her they lived in Illinois District down there at the old Courthouse place on Illinois River, right south of Garfield on the Illinois River. They lived there, and I don't know but what he was living there somewhere in that neighborhood when he left the country. It was in 1881 when he left, I am positive of that.
 Q Did C. R. Stephenson and his whole family leave the Cherokee Nation at that time? A Yes sir, they all left together.
 Q Have you known of either of his children being back since that time? A No, only they may have come back with their mother. I saw their mother when she came back to get on the roll, but never saw the children.
 Q That was the Strip Payment Roll? A Yes sir, and the old lady, I met her at Braggs, and she was telling me her daughter was coming back.
 Q That is Samantha? A Yes sir.
 Q You don't know whether she has returned to the country?
 A No sir, I don't.
 Q If she has you have not heard of it? A If she has I have not heard of it.
 Q How far do you live from the mother of Samantha Stephenson?
 A About six miles.

1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined, and applicant identified as follows:

 1894 roll, page 98, #2072, James Stephenson, Canadian District.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee doubtful cases:

Samantha Stephenson, D-1450; C. R. Stephenson, D-1449;
 J. C. Stephenson, D-1451; S. E. Stephenson, D-1452.

Q You state you are not sure whether he was living in Canadian or Illinois District in 1880? A Yes sir.

Q He lived in Canadian District a while, then moved over into Illinois, then came back to Canadian? A Yes sir, along about 1880, somewhere near Elm Grove.

 Wm. Hutchinson, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of the stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORD IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That, on June 5, 1902, Samantha Stephenson appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself and minor child, Alice Stephenson, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had on June 23, and 30, at Muskogee, on August 15, at Tahlequah, and on November 14, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory. The record further shows that on October 20, 1902, the Commission rendered its decision herein denying said applicants the right to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that said decision was duly affirmed by the Department. Thereafter, on March 28, 1904 (Departmental letter I. T. D. 7902-02-7162-03), said decision was rescinded by the Department, and case remanded for further testimony and readjudication. Through an oversight on the part of the Commission, the proceedings had in this case on June 30, at Muskogee, and on August 15, 1902, at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, were omitted from the record as forwarded to the Department, and they, together with the proceedings had herein on November 14, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, are now filed in their chronological order and made a part of the record in this case.

The record further shows that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made applications for the enrollment of C. R. Stephenson, J. C. Stephenson and S. E. Stephenson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said applications were had on November 14 and 18, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Since the case of Samantha Stephenson et al., was remanded for further testimony, the Commission has used due diligence to locate all the applicants in the case as now consolidated, but has reached only the applicant, J. C. (W.) Stephenson, as evidenced by his letter of February 4, 1903, filed herewith, and to which attention is particularly called.

In view of the foregoing, this case is considered closed, and will be adjudicated on the evidence now of record.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicants, Samantha, Alice, J. C. and S. E. Stephenson, are Cherokees by blood, and that the applicant, C. R. Stephenson, was an adopted white citizen of the Cherokee Nation; and that all the adult applicants herein are identified on the authenticated Cherokee tribal roll of 1880, and the applicants, Samantha, Alice and J. C. Stephenson, are identified on the Cherokee Strip payment roll of 1894, but that said applicants cannot be identified on any other roll of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Commission. In support of her application for enrollment, Samantha Stephenson appeared before the Commission on June 5 and 23, 1902, and testifies that she is fifty-two years old, that she has been in the Cherokee Nation four or five days, and that her postoffice address is Bonanza, Colorado; that she is a Cherokee by blood, was born in the Cherokee Nation, and continuously resided therein until about the year 1880; that in 1872 she was married to the applicant, C. R. Stephenson, and that the applicant, J. C. Stephenson, was born to them in 1873, and the applicant, S. E. Stephenson, in 1876 or 1877; that she and her husband and two children, continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation until some time in the year 1880, when they removed to the state of Colorado, and that her said husband and said two sons have since continuously lived outside the limits of the Indian Territory, and that, excepting occasional visits to the Cherokee Nation she has since continuously lived in said state of Colorado; that the minor applicant, Alice Stephenson, was born to her and her said husband in Colorado in 1888, and has continuously lived with her since birth; and that, at the time of her removal from the Cherokee Nation in 1880, she owned a farm in said Nation, and left some horses, hogs, cattle and household effects therein, that later, the farm was sold and the money paid into her hands, but does not know what became of the livestock. She further testifies that after her removal from the Cherokee Nation as above indicated, she and her child, Alice Stephenson, returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1893 and remained eighteen months, and again in 1895 and remained fourteen months. On cross-examination applicant admits that by reason of the advantage accruing to her, her visits to the Cherokee Nation were timed to include the Cherokee Strip and Old Settlers' payments, and that within a short time after each payment was made, she, with her child, returned to Colorado.

On June 23, 1902, Mailine Baty, mother of the said Samantha Stephenson, testifies in this case, and on direct examination her testimony on all material points corroborates that of her daughter; and further testifies, that she disposed of the said livestock left in the Cherokee Nation by her said daughter on her removal therefrom, and that of the said household effects left as above indicated, only "a wash kettle and some other vessels" remain. On cross-examination she admits that there was a payment made to the Cherokees each time her daughter visited the Cherokee Nation, and that, immediately after the payments were made, her said daughter returned to Colorado.

On August 15, 1902, at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, McCoy Smith testifies before the Commission in this case, but his testimony serves only to corroborate that of the witnesses as above set out.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSION: It is considered by the Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Clara A. Ward, (I. T. D. 5878-10132-04), the applicants, Samantha and C. R. Stephenson, prior to September 1, 1902, expatriated themselves from the Cherokee Nation, under the provisions of Section II, Article I, Cherokee Constitution, which in part, provides:

"Whenever any citizen shall remove with his effects out of the limits of this Nation, and becomes a citizen of any other government, all his rights and privileges as a citizen of this Nation shall cease;"

And that the applicants, J. C. and S. E. Stephenson, were on September 1, 1902, not less than twenty-nine and twenty-five years old, respectively, and, having failed to return to and permanently locate in the Cherokee Nation within a reasonable time after reaching their majority, their citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was forfeited under the doctrine established by the rulings of the Department in the cases of James Hunter et al., (I. T. D. 1970-03), Cleveland M. Patrick, (I. T. D. 1448-03), George Ewers Jr., et al., (I. T. D. 7066-02), Peggy A. Harlow et al., (I. T. D. 1446-03), Richard M. Locker et al., (I. T. D. 6476-03), Frederick Garrett et al., (I. T. D. 6478-03) and Archie A. Thornton (I. T. D. 5873-02); and that the minor applicant, Alice Stephenson, was born subsequent to the date that her parents forfeited their rights to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, and that she possesses no rights to enrollment as a Cherokee citizen other than as a descendant of her said parents.

IT IS, THEREFORE, THE OPINION OF THIS COMMISSION: That, for the reasons herein set forth, its decision of October 20, 1902, should be re-affirmed, and that the application for the enrollment of Samantha Stephenson and Alice Stephenson, as citizens by blood, and the applications for the enrollment of C. R. Stephenson, J. O. Stephenson and B. E. Stephenson, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 20, 1896 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:-

You are hereby advised that Eualine Hater of Braggs, Indian Territory, has this day been notified to appear before the Commission on or before December 15, 1902, for the purpose of testifying as to the residence of Samantha, J. C. and S. H. Stephenson, these persons appearing upon Cherokee doubtful cards, D-1450, D-1451 and D-1452.

July 6, 1905.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated June 16, 1905, transmitting the record of the consolidated applications for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation by Samantha Stephenson for herself and her minor child, Alice Stephenson and by Emmet Starr for C.R., J.C. and S.E. Stephenson.

June 16, 1905, the Commission decided adversely to all the applicants.

The record shows that on October 20, 1902, the Commission decided adversely to Samantha and Alice Stephenson and, as stated, through oversight the other applicants herein were omitted from the decision; that on March 28, 1904 (I.T.D. 7988-1902, 7162-1903) the case was remanded for further testimony and readjudication. The record shows that Samantha, Alice, J.C., and S.E. Stephenson are Cherokees by blood and the applicant, C.R. Stephenson was an adopted white citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that all of the adult applicants are identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll and Samantha, Alice and J. C. Stephenson are identified on the Cherokee Strip payment roll of 1894, but the applicants are not identified on any other Cherokee roll. It is further shown that Samantha is a Cherokee by blood, born in the Cherokee Nation and continuously resided therein until about 1880; that in 1872 she married the applicant, C. R. Stephenson and the other applicants are the offspring of their marriage; that in 1880 the principal applicant and her family removed to the State of Colorado where they have continuously lived outside of the Indian Territory excepting occasional visits to the Cherokee Nation by Samantha that while so residing in Colorado she sold her property in the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to all the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

Sir:

June 16, 1906, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes transmitted the record in the consolidated Cherokee enrollment case involving the applications of Samantha Stephensen for herself and her minor child Alice Stephensen, and of Ernest Starr for C.R., J.C. and E.E. Stephensen, together with its decision of the same date, rejecting said applications.

Reporting July 6, 1906, the Indian Office recommends that said decision be approved. A copy of its letter is enclosed.

The Department concurs in said recommendation, and said decision is hereby affirmed.

Carter, Lewis Cordrey, Thompson Gritts, Annie Gustin, Henry Gustin, Laura Johnson, Harry Phillip, Thomas Runnels, William Raft, Jennie Raft, Charlotte Smoker, Nancy Sunday and Betsy Sallateskee, whose names appear on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

Alie Beamer (Cherokee D-2048) is also identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

An examination of the said tribal rolls shows that all the applicants are of Indian nationality, of either Cherokee or Shawnee blood.

The Commission has made diligent inquiry, covering a period of nearly two years, to secure information relative to the status of the applicants, and, from information obtained by the various field parties of the Commission, and received from citizens appearing at the Cherokee Land Office, principally from old residents of the respective districts in which the applicants were enrolled, it finds that all of such applicants died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (Public - No. 241), and duly ratified, as provided in Section 73 thereof, provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes".

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of John Cocley, Levi Eysell, J. W. Eern, David McDaniel, George Morgan, W. J. Robins, Annie Spauldard, Addie Brown, Johnson Sanders, Lydia Stones, John Erart Byers, Nellie Constitution, Jennie Chuck, Samuel L. Mrs. Lucy Fletcher, McPherson, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Upon an examination of the Chevrolet Roll of 1880 it appears that one Annie Spaniard, aged at that time, four years, was enrolled with you.

You are requested to inform the Commission whether the said Annie Spaniard is living at this time, and if so, her present name and post office address.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

-----10:-----

In the matter of the application of Lettie Vann, et al., for enrollment as Chickasaw Indians.

-----11:-----

Messrs. Potter & Potter, Attorneys for the applicants.
W. B. Johnson, Esq., Attorney for the Chickasaw Nation.

-----12:-----

Armore, Indian Territory, November 24th, A.D., 1898.

-----13:-----

(By Mr. Potter) I understand there is no controversy that Mrs Vann is a Chickasaw by blood?

(By Mr. Simon Lewis, Chickasaw Commissioner) No sir. She is on our rolls and always has been.

William Vann, being duly sworn by Commissioner T. B.
Needles, on his oath, testified on behalf of the applicants as follows:

Direct examination by Mr. Potter:

Q Mr Vann, where do you live? A I live in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Are you a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Your wife and Children live with you? A Yes sir.

Q Has your wife ever been enrolled as a Cherokee? A No sir.

Q Your children have? A Yes sir.

Q Mr. Vann, do you desire to make an election for your wife and children as to which one of these Nations they shall take their rights in? A Yes sir.

Q Where do you desire to elect for them? A It is their wishes to be enrolled here in the Chickasaw Nation.

(By Mr. Potter) Before the Commission passes finally on this question, either now or at some other time, I would like to have about ten minutes, and agree not to say anything about vested rights.

(By Mr. Bixby) All right, go ahead, Mr. Potter.

(By Mr. Potter) The question against enrollment of these people in the question of residence. If they were living in the Chickasaw Nation there would be no doubt as to the right of this woman and her children to be enrolled as Chickasaw Indians. We have a provision in the Curtis Bill that provides that no person who is not a bona fide citizen of the nation where they offer to be enrolled shall be enrolled. In construing any law we have got to look at the conditions that it was intended to meet, the remedy it was intended to afford. It is a fact of current knowledge that there were a class of people who were seeking to claim the benefit of citizenship in these nations without assuming the burdens, the actual burdens of citizenship, by living here. In other words, they were living beyond the limits of this Territory and seeking to claim the rights of citizenship. Congress aimed this provision of the law at that class of people, and it certainly never was intended to prevent a Chickasaw from registering as a Chickasaw because he happened to live in the Seminole country, or in the Creek country or Cherokee country. I cannot understand why there should be any reason; I cannot understand that there existed any reason for making that sort of a law. I can understand why a man living in Texas should be excluded, because he didn't actually live here. To show that that was the intended instruction and clear meaning of the congress I want to read the preceding section. I will read the section I have been discussing:

"No person shall be enrolled who has not heretofore removed to and in good faith settled in the nation in which he claims citizenship; Provided, however, That nothing contained in this Act shall be so construed as to militate against any rights or privileges which the Mississippi Choctaws may have under the laws of or the treaties with the United States."

I think in the absence of anything-else, the well known fact that Congress was trying to remedy a certain evil that these people were protesting against is sufficient of itself to require this Commission to place a construction upon this broad language that I contend. But the preceding section I think removes it beyond controversy:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

These children are half Cherokee and half Chickasaw; they reside in the Cherokee Nation; no agreement has been made between these Nations settling the rights of these parties; the time for election has come, particularly in the Chickasaw Nation; if a party does not elect, before this roll is closed, to claim his right in the Chickasaw country he cannot claim them here at all. Now these children come through their father, having a right to claim in the Cherokee country, equally the right to claim here, and abandon their rights in the Cherokee country and elect to become citizens of the Choctaw country. Their mother, who has never become a Cherokee Indian or Cherokee citizen, claims her citizenship in the Chickasaw Nation. There is no doubt about her being raised and married in this country. I have not introduced any proof, because they make no controversy as to the blood. This, I think, entitles this woman and her children to be enrolled. I think the very fact of this provision preceding the one of exclusion shows that Congress had in contemplation the actual facts in the case, that any of these Indians did not reside in the Nation where they might claim enrollment, and this was intended to give them a method of selecting which one of the Nations they should live in.

I think that is all I have to say, and I submit that these people are entitled to enrollment.

(By Mr. Bixby) Mr. Johnson, have you anything to say?

(By Mr. Johnson) No sir, I believe not. I think the language is plain. It does not make any difference whether they live in Texas or the Cherokee Nation. The language is plain, and there can be no doubt of its meaning in my mind.

Q (By Mr. A. S. McKennon) Are these children on the rolls he re?

(By Mr. Vann, witness) Yes sir.

Q On both rolls? A Yes sir. My wife never drawn any money in the Cherokee Nation.

(By Mr. Johnson) Let the record show that the Chickasaw Nation protests against the election, because they are not residents of the Chickasaw Nation and have not been.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

In the matter of the application of David Vann for the enrollment of himself and his minor child, Arthur Vann, as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

---D 123---

On the 17th day of March, 1902, the applicant was notified by registered mail, and on the 20th day of March, 1902, the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations were notified by registered mail that the application of David Vann and Arthur Vann for enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation would be taken up by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 6th day of May, 1902, for final consideration.

Now, on this 6th day of May, 1902, this cause coming on to be heard pursuant to said notice, the applicant, David Vann, appeared in person, and the Chickasaw Nation failed to appear, whereupon the following proceedings were had:

David Vann, being first duly sworn, upon his oath testifies as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A David Vann.
Q How old are you? A Thirty four.
Q Where do you live? A I live in the Chickasaw Nation.
Q How long have you been living there? A Going on three years.
Q Have you a family? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Fannie Doyle before I married.
Q Is she a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you marry her? A In the Cherokee Nation, Canadian County.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate? A No sir.
Q When were you married to her? A In 1892.
Q Did you obtain a license? A No sir, I didn't think it was necessary.
Q How were you married? A We was married by the judge of the district court.
Q Was nay body present when you were married? A My sister and my brother in law were present.

Ellen Graves, called as a witness, testified as follows after being first duly sworn:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A Ellen Graves.
Q How old are you? A Thirty two.
Q Where do you live? A Cherokee Nation.
Q What is your post office address? A Webber's Falls,

- Q Are you a sister of David Vann? A Yes sir.
Q Were you present when he was married to Fannie Doyle? A Yes sir.
Q When were they married? A In 1892 I believe.
Q Who married them? A H. J. Vann, the district judge.
Q Is Fannie Vann still living? A Yes sir.
Q Have David and Fannie lived together since they were married? A Yes sir.
Q There has been no separation or divorce? A No sir.
(Witness Excused)

Will Doyle, called as a witness, being first duly sworn upon his oath testifies as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A Will Doyle.
Q How old are you? A Twenty four.
Q What is your post office address? A Muskogee, Indian Territory.
Q You are a brother of Fannie Vann? A Yes sir.
Q Were you present when she was married to David Vann? A Yes sir.
Q When were they married? A September, 1892.
Q Is your sister still living? A Yes sir.
Q Since they were married in 1892, David and Fannie have always lived together? A Yes sir.
Q Been no separation or divorce? A No sir.
(Witness Excused)

David Vann, the applicant, recalled, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q You have one child named Arthur? A Yes sir.
Q How old is she? A Four years old.
Q Did you ever have a child named Louis? A Yes sir.
Q Where is he? A He died in 1899.
Q Do you know what date? A 14th day of November.
Q You were present when he died? A Yes sir.
Q It appears from the records of the Cherokee and Chickasaw Nations in the possession of the Commission that you have been recognized and enrolled as a citizen of both of these tribes, and have drawn annuities and payments made to both the Cherokees and Chickasaws, and your citizenship in both of these tribes has never been questioned by the tribal authorities. The twenty first section of the act of Congress of June 28, 1898, provides; that "the several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe, but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; and if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions and not elsewhere". Under that provision of law do you elect for yourself and your minor child, Arthur Vann, to be finally enrolled by this Commission and by the Secretary of the Interior as citizens of the Cherokee or Chickasaw Nations? A Chickasaw.
Q In the event that your enrollment and the enrollment of your minor child as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation is finally approved by the Secretary of the Interior, do you relinquish for yourself and your minor child all your right title and interest in and to the property and tribal funds of the Cherokee tribe of Indians?

A Yes sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of David Vann as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

The record herein shows that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory and made application for the enrollment of David Vann as a citizen by blood, and for the enrollment of Fannie Vann as a citizen by intermarriage, of the Cherokee Nation, but as the status of intermarried citizens is not fixed at this time, Fannie Vann will not be embraced in this decision.

From the records of this Commission it appears that the said David Vann was entitled to be enrolled as a citizen by blood of either the Chickasaw or Cherokee Nation.

The records further show that the said David Vann elected to be enrolled as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and that his name is included in the partial roll of citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, approved by the Secretary of the Interior, April 11, 1903, No. 4643.

Section twenty-eight of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 716) provides:

"No person whose name appears upon the rolls made by the Dawes Commission as a citizen or freedman of any other tribe, shall be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of David Vann as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, should be denied, under the provisions of the law above quoted, and it is so ordered.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 2, 1904

Commissioner in Charge,

Cherokee Land Office,

Tahlequah, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 28, 1903, (Cherokee D 1458) in which you ask the post office address of David Vann whose name appears on Chickasaw card D 123.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the post office address of David Vann, whose name formerly appeared on Chickasaw card D 123 is Webbers Falls, Indian Territory. Our files, however, show that letters were received from him from Woodville, Indian Territory, during the year 1902.

You are further advised that the names of the said David Vann and his children, Arthur and Jennie Vann have been placed upon the schedules of citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation and their enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior, April 11, 1903. Copy of the decision of the Commission of February 25, 1903, enrolling these applicants was on February 26, 1903, forwarded the Cherokee Enrollment Division.

Respectfully,

Cherokee D 1458.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, January 21, 1904.

Fannie Vann,

Woodville, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Application has been made to this Commission for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, your name appearing on the Cherokee census roll of 1896 in Canadian District.

Before the Commission can determine your right to enrollment it will be necessary for you to appear at the offices of the Commission at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on or before February 8, 1904, and give evidence relative to your status as a Cherokee citizen on September 1, 1902.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of February 16, stating that your wife received a notice from the Commission allowing her until February 8, in which to appear before the Commission for the purpose of giving testimony relative to her enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. You state that you saw an order from the Interior Department not to enroll any more intermarried citizens, and ask to be advised what to do.

In reply you are advised that no recent order has been issued affecting the right to enrollment of intermarried citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and you are further advised that before the Commission can determine the right of your wife to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for her to appear before the Cherokee Land Office at Tahlequah, and give testimony relative to her status as a Cherokee citizen on September 1, 1902.

David Vann-2.

For the purpose of giving this testimony she is requested to appear at this office on or before March 8, 1904.

Respectfully,

Gentlemen:

There is enclosed herewith the jacket and record in the matter of the application for the enrollment as a citizen by inter-marriage of Fannie Vann, Cherokee card number D-1458.

This office is informed by telephone that the applicant in this case is at present in Muskogee and that she is sick and it would be very inconvenient for her to appear before the Cherokee Land Office. The record in this case is therefore transmitted to the general office, in order that such additional testimony as is required in her case may be taken, at Muskogee.

WASHINGTON, September 8, 1904

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose herewith , a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated July 26, 1904 transmitting the record of the application for the enrollment of David Vann as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

July 23, 1904, the Commission decided adversely to the applicant.

The record shows that the applicant, David Vann , elected to be enrolled as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and that his name is included in the partial roll of citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation approved by the Department April 11, 1903.

In view of the record and of section 28 of the act of July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 716), the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicant is recommended.

Very respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of James S. Vann as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

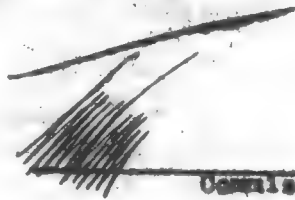

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskegee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of James S. Vann as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1460.

The records further show that James S. Vann possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; that he is regularly listed for enrollment as a citizen thereof on Creek Indian card, Field No. 3991, and that he has elected to receive and has selected his allotment of land in said Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of Paragraph eight, Section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress above noted, James S. Vann is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated January 15, 1906, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by James S. Vann.

January 15, 1906, the Commissioner decided adversely to the applicant.

The record shows that the applicant is regularly listed for enrollment as a Creek citizen on Creek Indian card, Field No. 3991, and that he has elected to receive and has selected his allotment of land in the Creek nation.

In view of the record and of Section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1896 (30 Stats., 495), the approval of the Commissioner's decision adverse to the applicant is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

ORDER OF DISMISSAL.

The record herein shows that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, of the following named persons whose names appear on the Cherokee tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission, and for whose enrollment no previous application had been made, to-wit: Susie Parris, M. A. Vann, Joe Ala, Charley Boyle, Matilda Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Berry Johnson, Jr. Joseph Bird, Elizabeth Davis and Calah-takey Jones, whose names appear on the authenticated tribal roll of 1890, and for Jessie Crump, Stand W. Vinton, Catherine Hall, Lewis D. Boyd and John H. Duke, whose names appear on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

An examination of the said tribal rolls shows that said applicants are of Indian nationality of either Cherokee or Shawnee blood.

It appears from letters on file in these cases, received in answer to inquiries by the Commission, that all of the above named applicants died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (Public-No. 241), and duly ratified, as provided in Section 75 thereof, provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the name of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of Susie Farris, M. A. Vann, Joe Ala, Charley Boyle, Matilda Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Berry Johnson, Jr., Joseph Bird, Elizabeth Davis, Culah-takey Jones, Josie Gramp, Stand W. Winton, Catherine Hall, Lewis D. Boyd and John H. Dukes as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, should be, and the same are hereby, dismissed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Cherokee Watts as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Cherokee Watts as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1462.

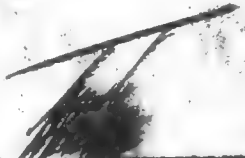

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; that she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof on Creek Indian card Field No. 581, and that she has voluntarily selected her allotment of land in said Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Cherokee Watts to be enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of her allotment of land in said Nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress above quoted, Cherokee Watts is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902 at Muscogee, Indian Territory, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Henrietta Watts as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1463.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; that, under the name of Henrietta Jenkins, she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof on Creek Indian card Field No. 2340, Roll No. 7042, and that her enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 28, 1902. It is further shown that on April 2, 1902, the said Henrietta Jenkins voluntarily selected her allotment of land in the Creek Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Henrietta Jenkins (Watts) to be enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of her allotment of land in said Nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress above noted, Henrietta Watts is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

LAND
16685-1906

February 9, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith report of the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 17, 1906, forwarding the record of proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Henrietta Watts as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, including the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 17, 1906, rejecting the application.

The record shows that Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, and made application for the enrollment of Henrietta Watts as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The record further shows that the applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; that, under the name of Henrietta Jenkins, she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof, and that her enrollment as such was approved by the Department on March 28, 1902. It further appears that on April 2, 1902, Henrietta Jenkins voluntarily selected her allotment of land in the Creek Nation.

Commissioner Bixby reports that no formal election was made by or for Henrietta Jenkins (Watts) to be enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that her voluntary selection of an allotment of land in the Creek Nation is equivalent to an election.

In view of this fact, and by reason of the provisions of paragraph 8 of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495), the Office concurs in the decision of Commissioner Bixby that Henrietta Watts is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Henry Warner as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Henry Warner is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1890 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896; not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Nancy Warner on September 1, 1905.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Nancy Warner as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Sallisaw, I.T., August 7th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Adam Brackett et al.,
for enrollment as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Adam Brackett.
Q What is your age? A 55.
Q What is your postoffice? A Sallisaw.
Q What is your district? A Sequoyah.
Q For whom do you make application for enrollment? A Myself and children.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Are you on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Are you on the roll of 1880? A Think not.
Q Why are you not on the roll of 1880? A Wasn't here.
Q How did you acquire your citizenship; by the action of the Cherokee authorities? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you come from? A Georgia.
Q Have you your certificate of admission? A Yes sir.

Mr. Brackett, you present here a statement under seal by W. W. Mayes, Assistant Executive Secretary, Executive Department, Cherokee Nation, dated Tahlequah, Feb. 16th, 1892, stating that you among others were re-admitted to all the rights and privileges of Cherokees by blood by the Citizenship Commission of date 1889. It will be necessary, Mr. Brackett, for you to get from Tahlequah a certified copy of the judgment of the Commission rendering the decision, admitting you to citizenship.

- Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since the date you claim to have been admitted in 1889? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the names of your children? A Benjamin.
Q How old is he? A About 14.
Q What's your next child? A Lizzie Mayes.
Q How old is that child? A 10 years old.
Q What's your next child? A Annie.
Q How old is that child? A 5 years old.
Q Any more? A That's all.
Q Now your child Benjamin was living at the time you claimed to be admitted to citizenship? A Yes sir.
Q Was he admitted the same time you were? A Yes.
Q His name is identified in the certificate that you have presented here from the Assistant Executive Secretary?
A Yes sir.
Q Was Lizzie born since that time? A Yes sir.
Q Is the mother of these children dead? A No sir.
Q Was she admitted to citizenship the same time you were?
A Yes sir.
Q What is her name? A She's not on the roll, she's adopted;
she's a white woman.
Q Then she was not admitted to citizenship the same time you were?
A No sir.
Q Who is Analline Brackett mentioned in the certificate presented here? Was she your wife? A No.
Q What was she? A My oldest girl.

- Q What is the name of the mother of these children for whom you apply? A Annie Brackett.
- Q She's not on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation?
- A No sir, I don't think she is.
- Q What was her name when you married her? A Brewster.
- Q How old is she? A I think she's about 45.
- Q Were you ever married to her under Cherokee law? A Yes sir.
- Q But you are not applying for her now? A We aint living together.
- Q When did you marry her? A About ten years ago under Cherokee law.
- Q When did you marry her under United States law? A About 25 years ago.
- Q Have you a certificate or license proving your marriage to that woman? A Yes sir.
- Q Was Annie Brewster your wife and the mother of these children for whom you are applying for enrollment? A Yes sir.
- Q And you say you married her under United States law some 25 years ago? A Yes sir.

Com'r: A marriage in '92 won't cover a marriage 25 years ago.

- Q Have you any proof that you were married to Annie Brewster 25 years ago? A Not in this country, I don't think.
- Q You and Annie Brewster were living together as husband and wife long before 1892 were you? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you someone here that you can prove that by? A I reckon not.
- Q Have you neighbors here that knew you were living together as husband and wife? A I reckon not; were married back in the old country.
- Q You claim to have come here in '89, you were living with her as her husband then were you not? A Yes sir.
- Q And she came here with you? A Yes sir.
- Q Well haven't you got some neighbors here who know that?
- A Yes, there are people here who know it; I don't know whether there is anyone on the ground or not.

Witness, Norman S. Drake, being sworn and examined by Com'r. Breckinridge, testifies as follows:

- Q What is your age? A 55.
- Q Your postoffice? A McKee, I.T.
- Q How long have you lived in this section of the country?
- A 20 years.
- Q Do you know the applicant here, Adam Brackett? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know Annie Brewster that was, who is, or has been his wife? A I know the woman who he lived with as his wife, but I don't know her name was Annie Brewster. She came here with him as his wife from Georgia. When I first knew them they were here as man and wife living together, about 12 years ago.
- Q How long did they continue living together as husband and wife?
- A Until about Strip Payment.
- Q About '94? A About '93 or '94, along about that time.
- Q Do you know whether she's considered to be the mother of his two children, Lizzie Mayes and Annie? A No sir. She's the mother of a young girl, a young woman now; I don't know.

- Q Do you know anything about two children, one about 10 and one about 5? A No sir, I don't know them.
- Q Did I understand you to say you knew them to be living as husband and wife something like 12 years ago? A That's when I begun to know them, and occasionally met them until Strip Payment time.
- Q Did they always appear down to along about the time of the Strip Payment as husband and wife before the community and did the people hold them out as such? A I think so.
- Q They were looked upon as husband and wife by the people?
- A I think so; I looked upon them as such and I guess the community did.

re-direct.

- Q Did you draw monty for your child Annie? A No sir.
- Q Not for Annie but for Lizzie? A Yes sir.
- Q Annie wasn't born at that time? A No I don't believe she was.

- Q Mr. Brackett, are these three children living at this time?
- A Yes sir.
- Q And are they living with you? A No, two little ones living with their mother.
- Q But all alive at this time? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you doing anything towards their support? A No sir; well I am buying them clothes.

Mr. Hutchings, representative of the Cherokee Nation:

- Q Mr. Brackett, what is the date of the birth of that last child, Annie? A I can't tell you the day nor the month.
- Q Hadn't you and she separated for good about the time that child was born or before? A No the child was done born. It was three or four weeks old when she left me.
- Q Did she get a divorce from you? A No sir.
- Q How did she marry Everett? A She aint married.
- Q She's living with Everett? A She's living at his house.
- Q There aint no other man living with her by Everett? A No sir.
- Q Are you certain that you are the father of that last child, Annie? A Yes sir.
- Q It was born when you were living together as husband and wife?
- A Yes sir.

Mr. Hastings, representative of the Cherokee Nation:

- Q You brought this woman with you from Georgia? A Yes sir.
- Q Were you living with her when all these children were born?
- A Yes sir.

Mr. Hutchings, representative of the Cherokee Nation:

- Q What was the longest time you and your wife were ever separated from one another by virtue of family quarrels, etc.?
- A She was gone one two months and a half I believe it was.

- Q What county in Georgia did you come from to this country?
A From Murray County.
Q What was your postoffice? A Spring Place.
Q How long had you lived in that County previous to you coming to this Country? A About as well as I can recollect about 3 or 4 years.
Q From what County did you go to that County? A I went from Fannin County, Ga.
Q What was your postoffice in that County? A Morgantown.
Q How long had you lived in Fannin County? A Two years I believe.
Q From what County did you go to Fannin County? A From Tennessee.
Q You mean the State of Tennessee? A Yes sir.
Q Give your County and postoffice in Tennessee? A Severe County.
Q What was your postoffice? A Severeville.
Q Where were you born? A In Tennessee.
Q What County? A Hamilton County.
Q What Cherokee family do you possess to be a descendant from?
A From the Wilkinson; mother's side; father was a white man.

Com'r. Breckinridge:

Mr. Brackett, the representative of the Cherokee nation enters a protest against your enrollment in order that certain inquiries may be instituted in regard to your admission to citizenship by the Cherokee authorities in 1889, as I understand it.

You are duly identified on the roll of 1894, also on the roll of 1896. You present here an incomplete certificate or evidence of your admission to citizenship by the Cherokee authorities in 1889. Your son, Benjamin, for whom you make application, appears upon the same incomplete certificate of admission or evidence of admission. He is also identified on the rolls of 1894 and 1896. Your two younger children, Lizzie Mayes and Annie, born since you were said to have been admitted to citizenship, are identified on the roll of 1896, and the former, Lizzie Mayes, is identified on the roll of 1894. Your marriage to your wife is established in a satisfactory manner so far as the rights of these children are concerned, but the rights of all of you; that is, you and your children enumerated, for you make no application for your wife, flow from your purported admission to citizenship by the Cherokee authorities in 1889. Now, you are desired to get a duly certified copy of the judgment of the Cherokee Court or Commission by which you were admitted to citizenship in 1889, and you are desired to furnish this Commission with that duly certified copy. For the present the application for yourself and your children will be placed upon a doubtful card. If any allegations are brought forward in regard to your admission that seem to require attention on your part, you will be notified in order that you may take such steps as you think proper to protect your rights in the case, and the final decision of this Commission will be communicated to you at your postoffice address.

Edward G. Rothenberger, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full the testimony of the above named witness, Adam Brackett, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his notes.

- Q And married this woman? A Yes sir, the same he has got here, I don't think he married her out there; I think he just come off with her; I am called on for evidence and I will state the truth if I can.
- Q You never heard of his being divorced from his first woman?
- A No sir.
- Q You know in fact that he wasn't? A I don't suppose he was, now, to tell you the truth.
- Q How long has he been in this country? A Oh he has been here, he was here before I came, I don't know how many years he has been here, Mr. Hastings; he has been here 15 or 20 years; he was here when I first came to the country.
- Q You know Adam has got a young son named Ben and a girl named Lizzie and one named Annie; they are children of this last woman, Ann? A Yes, I don't know much about them.
- Q Do you know whether this Ann had any children when he took up with her or not? A I don't think she did.

Q You don't think she did? A No sir.
Q Do you know it? A No, I don't know it positive, I don't believe she did though.
Q Had she lived with anybody else out there as husband and wife?
A Not that I know of; I wasn't right close to where she lived.
Q You never heard of it? A No sir.
Q You never heard of her having any children when she took up with him? A. No sir.
Q About how long since they married in this country? A About ten or twelve years ago; it was since I came here at least.
Q They married since 1890? A Yes sir.
Q They married since you came to that country? A Yes sir.
They married twice I think.

BY MR. HUCKLEBERRY:

Q Mr. Brackett, do you know of your own knowledge whether he was married to the first woman or not? A No sir, I never saw them married.

Q They lived together? A Yes sir, they was all just a little distance from me; 40 or 50 miles.

MR. HUCKLEBERRY: I want to call attention to what this gentleman says, that he appears on the roll of '51 or '2, known as the "Silar" roll. I don't know whether you have that or not.

BY COMMISSION: No, sir.

BY MR. HUCKLEBERRY: He also appears on the blood roll. We then close this case.

BY MR. HASTINGS: Cherokee Nation submits it.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY

In the matter of the application of Ann Brackett for the enrollment of herself as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee nation.

Supplemental to D-1435

Appearances:

Applicant appears in person.
Cherokee Nation by W. W. Hastings.

On June 30th, 1902, the applicant in this case was listed for enrollment by information as a citizen by intermarriage by the Commission.

On this day appears before the Commission and the following proceedings were had.

ANN BRACKETT, being duly sworn, testified as follows:--

Examination by the Commission.

- Q. What is your name? A. Ann Brackett.
Q. How old are you? A. I am 44.
Q. What is your post office address? A. Sallisaw.
Q. What district in the Cherokee nation are you living in?
A. Sequoyah.
Q. Do you claim to be entitled to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What is the name of your husband through whom you claim your right to enroll? A. Adam Brackett.
Q. Is he living or dead? A. He is alive.
Q. Is he a Cherokee by blood? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When were you married to him? A. I have got the papers here to show when I was married to him.

There is offered in evidence a marriage license issued by William Nelson, Clerk of the United States Court for the first Judicial Division of Indian Territory, on the 2nd day of April, 1902, authorizing the marriage of Adam Brackett and Miss Ann Brewster, and certificate showing that they were united in matrimony on the 9th day of March, 1902, by James A. Orr, a minister of the gospel. This certificate is filed herewith.

It appears from the records of this Commission that the applicant's husband, Adam Brackett, and her three children, by the said Adam Brackett, to-wit: Benjamin, Lizzie M. and Annie Brackett, have been listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Cherokee nation and their names placed on Cherokee roll card, field number B-55.

It further appears from the records in said case that the applicant's husband, Adam Brackett, was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee nation on the 16th day of August, 1892, by the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship.

- Q. When did you come to the Cherokee nation? A. I have been here 15 years.
Q. Did you come with your husband, Adam Brackett, or did you marry him after you came here? A. I came with him.
Q. When did he come? A. He came when I did, 15 years ago.
He had been here before; so had I. That is when we came to stay.

Q. Were you married to him at that time? A. No, sir.
 Q. Have you been living here continuously since you married him in 1892? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Have you ever been out of the territory since that time? A. No, sir.
 Q. Never have been. A. No, sir; been living in the territory all the time.
 Q. What was the name of your father? A. John Brewster.
 Q. Is he living or dead? A. He is dead.
 Q. What is the name of your mother? A. Mary Brewster.
 Q. Is she living or dead? A. She is dead.
 Q. Were your parents both white? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Were you ever married before you married Adam Brackett? A. No, sir.
 Q. Was he ever married before? A. I don't know.
 Q. Did he ever tell you that he was? A. He always said he wasn't. I don't know nothing only what he told me.
 Q. How long did you and Adam Brackett continue to live together? A. He has been away from me six years. We lived together until then.
 Q. Were you ever married to him before you were married to him in 1892? A. No, sir.
 Q. Then Benjamin and Lissie were born before your marriage? A. Before I was married? A. Yes, I reckon so. That was in 1892 there. Well, I never lived with any one else.
 Q. How long did you live together as man and wife before you were married? A. I been living with him about 27 years. In all. Since I married him and before.
 Q. What was the cause of your separation six years ago? A. Well, I couldn't tell you. He just got contrary, I reckon.
 Q. Did he leave you? A. Yes, sir; he left me.
 Q. Where were you living? A. Living right close to Sallisaw.
 Q. Where place? A. Will Blackett's.
 Q. Who stayed on the place? A. I stayed there. He moved out and left me there.
 Q. Who took the children? A. He took part of them and left part of them with me.
 Q. How long did you continue to reside on that place? A. I am there yet.
 Q. Has he ever been back since that time to live there? A. No, sir.
 Q. Have you and Adam Brackett ever lived together again after your separation six years ago? A. No, sir.
 Q. Have you married since that time? A. No, sir.
 Q. Has he? A. No, sir; I don't know of his marrying.
 Q. Were you ever divorced from him? A. No, sir.
 Q. Was he ever divorced from you? A. No, sir.
 Q. What was his treatment toward you prior to this separation? A. I couldn't hardly tell you.
 Q. Wasn't there some cause for this separation? A. I couldn't tell you anything more than I have told you. He just drank whiskey and went wild.
 Q. What was his treatment toward you? A. He always----
 Q. Ever abuse you? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. How? A. In a great many ways.
 Q. Ever strike you in any way? A. Yes, sir.

Examination by Mr. Hastings.

Q. What became of those children? A. I have got the children he left with me. The others is married. Two of them.
 Q. What are the names of the children you have? A. Lissie and Annie.
 Q. Why didn't you marry at Sallisaw? A. I was sick.
 Q. You were not living with Adam Brackett then? A. No, sir.
 He come there to get the childrens' ages. He back to my house to get their ages, and he told me he would attend to it all.

Q. Who are you keeping house for now? A. For myself.

Q. Who have you been keeping house for? A. I have been living with Will Brackett and his family.

Q. Do you know a man by the name of Evert? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he have any children? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you keep house for him? A. Well, he was with them all.

Q. With who all? A. With his connection.

Q. Is he there now? A. No, sir.

Q. Is he living at your place? A. Yes, sir; he is there. It ain't my place.

Q. And he has been there for six years? A. No, sir; he ain't been there for six years.

Q. How long has he been there? A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. About how long has he been there? A. About three years, I reckon, or growing on 3. Something along there. He comes there to stay once in a while, he don't stay there all the time.

Q. He is a white man? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Never been married? A. No, sir; he has never been married.

Q. Do you keep him there? A. I have a right to hire to anybody.

Q. Do you hire to him? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At his house? A. Yes, sir.

Q. On whose place is it? A. On Will Brackett's.

Q. Who else lives in the house? A. My two children.

Q. Lizzie and Annie? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And this man? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many rooms in the house? A. Two.

Q. One cooking room and one bed room? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you got any beds in the cooking room? A. No, sir.

Q. Just in the bed room? A. I have got my bed and he has got one.

Q. All sleep in one room? A. Yes, sir; when he is there. He is there part of the time and he is away part of the time.

Q. When he is away from home what is the occasion of his being away? A. He is there part of the time.

Q. What is his business away? A. I couldn't tell you that.

Q. That is his home, isn't it? A. He don't call it his home.

Q. Well, now, you don't think you can sit under oath and say that you are working for that man when it isn't his home.

A. I am working there on there terms. There is some land there I want my children to hold.

Q. This man was the cause of your separation; led up to it?

A. No, sir; he wasn't.

Q. He is a white man? A. Yes, sir; he is a white man.

Q. Who works the place? A. Well, there is lots of people on the place.

Q. Well, does he; Evert. A. Does he work that place?

Q. Yes, sir; there is no use of your trying to evade my questions.

A. Well, he works part of it. He works part of Will Brackett's place.

Q. How long did you live in the house that you and Adam Brackett lived in after your separation? A. I don't know. I was living there a good while.

Q. Well, 18 months? A. I lived there about a year, I think.

Q. Didn't you say a while ago that you were living there yet?

A. I am living on part of that place. Not where I was when he left me.

Q. How long did you continue to live in the same house? A. About a year I reckon.

Q. Were you ever separated before? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the cause of the separation then? A. Just mistreatment is all I can think of.

Q. Did he ever strike you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever strike him? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he ever curse you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever use harsh language towards him? A. I might have.

Q. Well, did you? A. I can't say.
 Q. Well, did you? I am asking you to say now? A. Of course when he would be guessing a little, of course I would say things I hadn't ought to have said. I reckon there ain't many but what would.
 Q. Have any children been born to you since you separated from Adam Brackett? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. How many? A. One.
 Q. How long after the separation? How old is the child? A. It is three years old.
 Q. How long was it born after your separation from Adam Brackett? A. Three years.
 Q. Who is the father of that child? A. Well, Adam Brackett ain't.
 Q. Well, is Evert? A. No, sir; he ain't. If he had been the father of it I would have been trying to have its name put down.

Examination by the Commission.

Q. Is its father a white man? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. How long before your separation from Adam Brackett was this child Annie born? A. She was born, I think it was five weeks.
 Q. She was born while you were living together? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. How often have you been separated prior to this last time? A. Just one time.
 Q. About how long ago was that? A. Been about 10 years, I reckon. Hold on. It has been 12 years ago.
 Q. Then you were married again according to the law? A. Yes, sir.
 Q. Now, when was Lizzie born? Was she born while you were living with Adam Brackett? A. Yes, sir; I was living with Adam Brackett when she was born.
 Q. How old was she when you separated? A. Lizzie is 12 now.
 Q. You were separated 12 years ago? How long were you separated? A. Separated about 2 months, I reckon.
 Q. How long has this man out here known you (referring to Mr. Adams)?

By Mr. Hastings:

Q. The man that was sitting there? A. George Adams.
 Q. How long have you known him? A. I have known him about 27 years I reckon.
 Q. Is he a married man? A. Yes, sir.

By the Commission:

Q. Has he always been living in your neighborhood? A. No.

1876 census roll of citizens of the Cherokee nation examined and the name of the applicant is identified therein, page 1111, #9, Ann Brackett, Sequoyah district.

Examination by Mr. Hastings.

Q. Did Adam Brackett have any children by anybody else before you married him? A. I don't know.
 Q. Didn't you ever hear he had a woman out in Georgia? A. I don't know it to be so.
 Q. You heard it? A. Yes, I heard it. I don't know it to be so.
 Q. He told you so? A. Well, he always said he didn't.
 Q. You have heard of it? A. Yes, sir; I heard of it.
 Q. Why didn't you tell the Commission all you know about it? A. I am. I ain't here to tell you any lies. It wouldn't do me any good.

By the Commission:

Q. How long did you say you lived with Adam Brackett? A. I have been with him 27 years except three—
 Q. Where was he living when you first took up with him? A. I was in Georgia.
 Q. You came out here with him? A. Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hastings.

Q. Where is Adam Brackett's post office now? A. Ballisaw.

The Cherokee nation gives notice to the applicant that it will summon Adam Brackett to be present at this place on next Monday to give evidence in this case, July 21st, 1902.

By the Commission.

W. You understand, now, that we are going to bring Adam Brackett in here on the 21st to testify against you. You have the privilege of being here and bringing in any more testimony.

The Cherokee nation asks that the testimony of Daniel Brackett, filed in the case of Adam Brackett, Cherokee docket #93, be made a part of the record in this case.

The request of the attorney for the Cherokee nation will be complied with and the testimony mentioned made a part of this case.

Jesse O. Carr, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 21st, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Ann Brackett for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation.

Supplemental to D-1465

Cherokee Nation appears by W. W. Hastings.

On July 16th, 1902, Supplemental Testimony was taken in the matter of the foregoing application and upon the conclusion of the same, the applicant being present, she was notified that on Monday, July 21st, 1902, at the office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, testimony would be introduced by the representative of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove her right to enroll as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The applicant has this day, to-wit: the 21st day of July, 1902, been called and fails to respond either in person or by attorney.

ADAM BRACKETT, being duly sworn, testified as follows:--
Examination by Mr. Hastings.

- Q. What is your name? A. Adam Brackett.
Q. What is your age, Mr. Brackett? A. 56 or 7, along there.
Q. Your post office is Sallisaw? A. That is--when I enrolled I gave my post office there.
Q. Well, what is your post office now? A. Brussia. That post office has been put in since you were out there.
Q. Do you know the applicant, Ann Brackett? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was she your former wife? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Well, when did you and she separate? A. The last time or first time?
Q. Yes, the last time? A. We separated in---5 or 6 years.
Q. You had separated once before, had you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was the cause of both of these separation? A. Well, Henry Evert was the cause of it.
Q. Now tell the stenographer there about the first separation? Where you were and whether she left you or you her; where she went to and what effort you made to find her? A. All right. She left me up in Flint district.
Q. Were you living in Flint district? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Well, did she leave you or you her? A. She left me.
Q. Well, did she go off with this man? A. I suppose so. I didn't see them but that was the general report.
Q. That is what you heard when you come back home? A. That is what I heard. I followed them.
Q. Then you followed them? A. Yes, sir.
Q. These other two witnesses go with you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How far did you follow them? A. About 15 miles the other side of Bafaula.
Q. You didn't overtake them? A. No, sir; we didn't over take them.
Q. Then she come back and you took her back? A. She was gone about two months and a half and then she came back and I took her back on account of the children.
Q. You separated again 5 or 6 years ago? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was the cause of that separation? A. The same man.
Q. Where were you living at that time? A. My home was in the bottom on the Arkansas river 8 or 10 miles south of Sallisaw.

Q. Was she down at your house at the time she run off with him?
A. No, sir; I took her down in that neighborhood to be confined.
Under the handling of the doctor. I lived in the bottom and sometimes the river would get up so I couldn't get out when I wanted to.

Q. Was she confined? A. Yes, sir.

Q. After she was confined what became of her? A. After she was confined the man keeping the house sent for me. I asked him if she was able to go home. She told me she wasn't. I went over to the neighbors and got a buggy and a nephew of mine to bring her and I went on home with the children, except one, the little one. I had been there about two or three days and heard she was gone.

Q. Who did you hear she was gone with? A. Henry Evert.

Q. Did you follow them? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you overtake them? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you find them together? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever live with her after that? A. No, sir.

Q. That was the cause of your last separation? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is she living with this Henry Evert? A. Staying at the same place together.

Q. Is that the reputation they have in the community; is that what the people think of it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is Henry Evert a white man? A. Yes, sir.

Q. She is a white woman? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Mr. Braskett, you married once before, in Georgia or Alabama.

A. Yes, sir; married her twice.

Q. You married another woman before this? A. Well I thought
I were, it worked around so I don't know whether I were or not.

Q. Well, you were never divorced from that first woman? A. No,
sir.

Q. She was living when you separated from her? A. Yes, sir.

Q. She is living yet so far as you know? A. Yes, sir.

Examination by the Commission.

Q. Who married you to this first wife? A. A man by the name of Sutherland.

Q. What was her name? A. Her name was Lewis.

Q. How long did you live with her after you were married?

A. Five or Six years.

Q. Did she ever institute proceedings against you? A. No, politics separated us.

Q. Were you ever divorced? A. Well, no. She was going to apply for a divorce and her folks said she couldn't do it. Just after the war they claimed the ceremony was no good.

Q. How long after that did you take up with this second woman, Ann?

A. It must have been 2 years.

Q. You took up with her the first time in Georgia? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you ever married, legally married to her in Georgia?

A. I didn't get a license. I don't think I was.

Q. Don't you know whether you was? A. Not that I recall of.
I never married until I got here. I married under the Cherokee law and they kicked about it and I married again.

Q. Married her twice? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have never married since then? A. No, sir.

Q. Was Evert the cause of both separations? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long is it since the first separation took place?

A. 12 or 13 years.

Q. You lived together after that time until about 6 years ago?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Ever have any trouble in the mean time? A. Between that time?

A. Yes. A. No, sir.

MITCHEL ELLIS, being duly sworn, testified as follows:--

Examination by Mr. Hastings.

- Q. What is your name? A. Mitchel Ellis.
Q. What is your post office? A. Sallisaw.
Q. Do you know Adam Brackett, who just left the stand? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know his former wife, Ann Brackett? A. Only when I see her.
Q. Do you know anything of their separation 10 or 12 years ago?
A. Why yes. I knew only when he said about it.
Q. Did you see him at that time? A. Yes, sir; he came to me and wanted me to go with him and follow them.
Q. Follow who? A. Fellow Ann Brackett and Henry Evert.
Q. You did follow them? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How far? A. Oh, I don't know exactly how far it was. Followed them from Sallisaw to Wetumpka in the Creek nation and lost sight of them.
Q. Then you went back? A. Then we went back.
Q. Did Adam Brackett and this woman live together afterwards?
A. It seems like they did, a short while.
Q. Do you know of their second separation? A. I heard of it, yes. I don't know of it myself. I heard of it, I knew they wasn't together.
Q. Did you hear what was the cause of this second separation?
A. Well, the general talk was around the neighborhood about this man Henry Evert.
Q. Did you hear she went off with him the second time? A. Yes, sir; that he had her again.
Q. How far do you live from where Henry Evert lives now?
A. 2 miles or two miles and a half, something like that.
Q. Do you know where this woman is staying? A. Well, the last account I had of her she was staying there with him. That is the last place I saw her.
Q. Both staying at the same house? A. I suppose so, they don't have but one little house, little log cabin.
Q. Are they living there now, so far as you know, together?
A. Was the last time I ever heard anything about it. No, I will take that back. Yesterday, or this morning, Adam said she left him.
Q. Left Evert? A. Left Evert.
Q. What is the first time you heard of it? A. Yes, sir.

CAL CARTER, being duly sworn, testified as follows:--

Examination by Mr. Hastings.

- Q. What is your name? A. Cal Carter.
Q. Where do you live? A. I am at Gans now.
Q. How far is that from Sallisaw, south? A. About 8 miles.
Q. Did you ever live up in the vicinity of Sallisaw? A. Yes, sir; I been around Sallisaw, in that country off and on ever since it has been a town. I was about five years and a half living west of Sallisaw between near the Buffington place.
Q. Were you on the marshall's force 10 or 12 years ago?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know Adam Brackett? A. I met with him at the time he claimed his wife run off with this man?
Q. What man did she run off with? A. He said she run off with Henry Evert.
Q. What, if anything, did you do at that time? A. Well, he came to Mr. Ellis and wanted Mr. Ellis to go with him. Mitch Ellis at the time was deputy marshall and had a writ for this fellow. He wanted me to go with him. I did so.
Q. You never overtook him? A. No, sir.
Q. Well, did Brackett and this woman live together after that time? A. I don't know whether—I lived quite a distance from him. I heard it said he took her back. I don't personally know anything about it.

Q. Do you know whether they are living together now? A. My understanding is they are. I don't know anything about it of my own personal knowledge.

Q. Have you any information about the cause of this second separation? A. No, sir; I haven't.

Q. You don't know. A. No, sir.

Q. You don't know whether she ran off with Everett the second time?

A. I don't know whether she did or not. All I know about it it was talked among the neighbors.

Q. Do you know what the--how she is regarded down there?

A. Regarded as living with Henry Everett. He was said to be in Tahlequah yesterday.

Jesse O. Carr, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Adam Brackett, et. al. for enrollment as Cherokee citizens, consolidating the applications of,

Adam Brinkett, et. al. . . . Cherokee D 98
Ann Brinkett, " D 1486

DECISION.

The record herein shows that on August 7, 1900, Adam Brackett appeared before the Commission at Sallisaw, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and his three children, Benjamin, Linnie M. and Annie Brackett as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on February 17, 1902. On June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of Ann Brackett, the wife of said Adam Brackett as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on July 16 and July 21, 1902.

An examination of the records of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this Commission show that Adam Braxett and his oldest son Benjamin Braxett were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation on August 16, 1889. Lizzie M. and Annie Braxett have been born since the date of their father's admission to citizenship.

The evidence shows that Sam Brackett, the mother of the above named children, lived with the said Adam Brackett as his wife from about 1873 up to 1892, and that they were formally married on May 26, 1892. Adam Brackett testifies that he was previously married and that he separated from his former wife without a divorce about 1875.

Section 69A of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation (1992) provides:

'All marriages which are herein prohibited on account of consanguinity between the parties, or on account of either of them having a former husband or wife then living, shall be absolutely void in this Nation, without any judgment of divorce or other legal proceeding, provided, that the issue from such unlawful marriage shall nevertheless be legitimate; provided, also, that when a man having by a woman one or more children, shall afterwards intermarry with such woman, such child or children, if recognized by him, or proven to be his, shall thereby be legitimate.'

All of the applicants herein are identified in the Sherman Census roll of 1924.

The evidence further shows that the said Ann Brackett lived with her said husband about four years following their marriage, and that she then left him and has not been living with him since that time.

Section 667 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation (1892) provides:

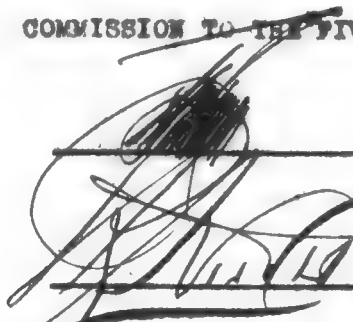

"Every person who shall lawfully marry under the provisions of this act, and afterwards abandon his wife, shall thereby forfeit every right and privilege of citizenship of this nation."

The evidence further shows that Adam Brackett has resided in the Cherokee Nation since 1889. The oldest child, Benjamin, is living with his father and the two younger children are living with their mother, who has resided in the Cherokee Nation since the date of her said marriage. The residence of said children has been continuous in the Cherokee Nation from birth up to and including the date of this application.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Adam Brackett, Benjamin Brackett, Lissie M. Brackett and Annie Brackett should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

It is further the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Ann Brackett, as a citizen by inter-marriage of the Cherokee Nation, should be denied under the provisions of the law above quoted, and it is, therefore, so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of _____ Ala as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of _____ Ala as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1466.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and that, under the name of Rachel Yates, she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof, her name appearing upon a partial roll of citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, opposite No. 3870, and that her enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior on December 12, 1902. The records further show that said Rachel Yates has voluntarily selected her allotment of land in the Chickasaw Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of monies belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Rachel Yates (___ Ala) to be enrolled as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of her allotment of land in said nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress above noted, ___ Ala is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Gentlemen:

You are requested to advise the Cherokee Enrollment Division whether there is any record of an application having been made for the enrollment of one Ala (now Mrs. Alex Cochran?), a female, aged at present about forty-seven years, as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

The name of said Ala appears upon the 1890 authenticated Cherokee Roll, with a note to the effect that she is a Chickasaw allottee.

Yours truly,

James Bixby

Acting Chairman.

Cher. D-1466.

Dear Madam:

There are identified upon the roll of 1880 of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, the following named persons:

-----Ala, a female, aged at that time twenty-five years;
Anna Ala, aged four years in 1880; Squirrel Ala, (dead) two years; and Joe Ala, aged one year in 1880.

There is a note opposite the enrollment of these persons to the effect that they are Chickasaws by blood, and that they are probably duplicates of the enrollments on the roll of 1880 of the members of your mother's family.

You are desired to inform the Commission whether there were ever any persons, members of your family, by the names above given.

If the above named persons are living, you are desired to furnish the Commission with their present names and post office address.

Dear Madam:

There appears upon the 1880 roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the following family:

-----Ala, a female, twenty-five years of age at that time; Anna Ala, four years of age; Squirrel Ala, (dead) two years of age; and Joe Ala, one year of age at that time.

There is a note appearing upon the roll opposite these names, to the effect that this is your family, and that they are Chickasaws by blood.

The records of the Commission show that you were identified upon the roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee, with your husband, Alex Cochran. It is probable that the above named persons are duplicates of the members of your family, identified upon the roll of 1880 under the name of Cochran.

You are requested to furnish the Commission with any information possible as to whether or not the above named persons are members of your family, and any other information you may have relative thereto. If the persons named are living at the present time, you are desired to furnish the Commission with their present names and post office address.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith report of the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 17, 1906, forwarding the record of proceedings had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ala as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, including the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 17, 1906, rejecting the application.

The record shows that Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, and made application for the enrollment of Ala as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The record further shows that the applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation; that under the name of Rachel Yates she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof, her name appearing on a partial roll of citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation opposite No. 3870, and that her enrollment as such was approved by the Department on December 12, 1902. The record further shows that Rachel Yates has voluntarily selected her allotment of land in the Chickasaw Nation.

By reason of this fact, and under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495), the Office concurs in the decision of Commissioner Birby that _____ Ala (Rachel Yates) is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Anna Ala as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

-:-

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Anna Ala as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1467.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation; and that, under the name of Annie L. Bailey, she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof, her name appearing opposite No. 4824 upon a roll of citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior, April 11, 1903. It is further shown that said Annie L. Bailey has voluntarily selected her allotment of land in the Chickasaw Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Annie L. Bailey (Anna Ala) to be enrolled as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of her allotment of land in said nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress above noted, Anna Ala is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Dear Sir:

You are requested to advise the Cherokee Enrollment Division whether or not the name of Anna Ala which appears on Chickasaw card, Field No. 487, has been placed on a partial roll of citizens of the Chickasaw Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior. If so, advise her final roll number, together with the date of Departmental approval of said roll. You are further requested to advise said Division whether selection of land has been made for the said Anna Ala in the Chickasaw Nation, and if so whether such selection was voluntarily or arbitrarily made.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 13, 1906, requesting to be advised if Anna Ala, whose name appears on Chickasaw roll case 487 has been enrolled and approved by the Secretary of the Interior; if so you request to be advised her final roll number, together with the date of the approval of said roll by the Department and if selection of land has been made for said Anna Ala in the Chickasaw Nation, whether said allotment was voluntary or arbitrary.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it is believed the person to whom you refer is Annie L. Bailey, whose name appears upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, opposite No. 4584 and her enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior, April 11, 1903.

You are further advised that selection of land was voluntarily made at the Chickasaw land office for this citizen and certificate of allotment has heretofore been delivered.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commissioner to the five Civilized Tribes dated February 17, 1906, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by Anna Ala.

February 17, 1906, the Commissioner decided adversely to the applicant.

The record shows that the applicant under the name of Annie L. Bailey is duly enrolled as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, her name appearing at No. 4584 upon a roll of citizens of the Chickasaw Nation approved by the Department April 11, 1903 and that she has voluntarily selected her allotment of land in the Chickasaw Nation.

In view of the record and of Section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), the approval of the Commissioner's decision adverse to the applicant is recommended.

ORDER OF DISMISSAL.

The record herein shows that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, of the following named persons whose names appear on the Cherokee tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission, and for whose enrollment no previous application had been made, to-wit: Susie Parris, M. A. Vann, Joe Ala, Charley Boyle, Matilda Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Berry Johnson, Jr. Joseph Bird, Elizabeth Davis and Culah-takey Jones, whose names appear on the authenticated tribal roll of 1890, and for Jessie Cramp, Stand W. Winton, Catherine Hall, Lewis D. Boyd and John H. Dukes, whose names appear on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

An examination of the said tribal rolls shows that said applicants are of Indian nationality of either Cherokee or Shawnee blood.

It appears from letters on file in these cases, received in answer to inquiries by the Commission, that all of the above named applicants died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (Public-No. 241), and duly ratified, as provided in Section 75 thereof, provided:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the name of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of Susie Parris, M. A. Vann, Joe Ala, Charley Doyle, Matilda Johnson, Rebecca Johnson, Berry Johnson, Jr., Joseph Bird, Elizabeth Davis, Culah-takey Jones, Josie Cramp, Stand W. Winton, Catherine Hall, Lewis D. In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lucy Abbet as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Lucy Abbet as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

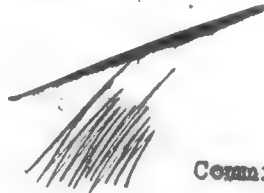

Abbet 1902 THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS THAT said Lucy is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of as an adopted slave.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1830 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Lucy Abbet on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Lucy Abbet as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Cherokee D 1470

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Dora goett Adair as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

-1-

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Dora goett Adair as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1470.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; and that, under the name of Dora Lieber, she is duly enrolled as a citizen thereof, on Creek Indian card Field No. 664, Roll No 2188; that her enrollment as such has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, and that she has voluntarily selected her allotment of land in said Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Dora Scott Adair to be enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of her allotment of land in said Nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress above noted, Dora Scott Adair is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

WASHINGTON.

January 7, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 26, 1906, transmitting the record relative to the application of Dora Scott Adair for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

On June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Dora Scott Adair as a citizen.

On February 26, 1906, the Commissioner held that the applicant was not entitled to such enrollment.

The Commissioner reports that the applicant is enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation as Dora Lieber, at Roll No. 2188, and that she has voluntarily selected her allotment of land in the Creek Nation.

In view of paragraph 8 of Section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., L., 495), the decision of the Commissioner adverse to the applicant is recommended for approval.

Very respectfully,

Alie Besser (Cherokee D-2048) is also identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

An examination of the said tribal rolls shows that all the applicants are of Indian nationality, of either Cherokee or Shawnee blood.

The Commission has made diligent inquiry, covering a period of nearly two years, to secure information relative to the status of the applicants, and, from information obtained by the various field parties of the Commission, and received from citizens appearing at the Cherokee Land Office, principally from old residents of the respective districts in which the applicants were enrolled, it finds that all of such applicants died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (Public - No. 241), and duly ratified, as provided in Section 75 thereof, provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes".

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of John Cocley, Levi Russell, J. W. Horn, David McDaniel, George Morgan, W. J. September 3 1902

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Thompson Busby as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

ORDER

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Thompson
Busby as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Thompson
Busby is identified on the Cherokee ~~enrollment~~ roll of 1896 as a Cherokee by blood

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above-named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted
for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee
Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
Land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Tuskahoma, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Thompson Busby on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Thompson Busby as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that application has been made for your enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. You are requested to appear before the Commission at the Cherokee Land Office for the purpose of offering such evidence as you may desire in support of your application. Such evidence can be introduced at Vinita, Indian Territory, on or before April 27th, 1903, or at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, after May 7th, 1903.

You are advised that until such evidence has been introduced the Commission can not enroll you as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Susan Black as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

--O--
O R D E R .
--O--

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Susan Black as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Susan
Black is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1896 as Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above-named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1850 and 1896, not theretofore accounted
for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee
Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
Land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Tuskahoma, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Susan Black on September 1, 1905.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Susan Black as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., April 16, 1903.

In the matter of the application of John T. Blakeney, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood.

Appearances:

W. P. Thompson, for applicant;
J. C. Starr, for Cherokee Nation.

JOHN T. BLAKENEY, being first duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q State your name, age and residence? A. John T. Blakeney Q What is your age? A. I was born in 1864, I am about thirty-eight or nine.
Q What is your postoffice address? A. Carthage, Missouri.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A. I am a Shawnee.
Q What degree of Shawnee blood do you claim?
A Well, I think my grand-father's father was a full blood Indian,
I suppose I am about one-eighth.
Q What is the name of your father? A. George Blakeney
Q Is he living or dead? A. He is dead, sir.
Q Was your father a Cherokee citizen by blood or a white man?
A He was a white man.
Q What was your mother's name? A. Kate I. Blakeney.
Q Is she living or dead? A. She is living, yes, sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A. She's a Shawnee.
Q What district in the Cherokee Nation does she belong to?
A. She lives in Vinita.
Q The east or west side of the track? A. She is on the west side, in Cooweescoowee.
Q Where were you born? A. I was born in Lawrence, Kansas.
Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation?
A Well I don't know, I can't remember the first dates.
Q About how old were you when you came, do you know?
A Possibly about five or six years old.
Q How long did you remain in the Cherokee Nation when you came down at that time? A. Well sir, I really don't know about that; you see I was a bare foot urchin at that time.
Q When did you leave the Nation the first time you can remember?
A I can't answer that question, I don't remember.
Q Give the approximate time, about how old were you when you went out? A I should judge, sir, that I was about six or eight years old.
Q When you left the Indian Territory? A. I should judge so, that's simply a guess.
Q Where did you go to? A. Carthage.
Q Have you ever been back to the Cherokee Nation since that time?
A Oh yes sir, quite a number of times.
Q Have you ever been back for the purpose of making your home?
A Yes sir
Q When did you first come back after you went out when you were about eight years old? A Well, my last residence here was in 1885, sir.
Q That's the last time you resided here? A. Yes sir.
Q Then where did you go? A. I returned to Carthage and got employment in the government service.
Q Have you been there ever since? A. Yes sir.

Supp'l to D 1474--2.

- Q What is your occupation? A. Why I am in the post office department, civil service.
- Q Did your parents ever come to the Cherokee Nation?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Is your mother living here now? A. Well, she is not living here at the present, she left here a short time ago upon my father's death, and she is now living with my sister in Memphis, although she is here now at the present time.
- Q Are you married? A. Yes sir.
- Q When were you married? A. June 26, 1895.
- Q Have you any children? A. One.
- Q What is it's name? A. John S. Blakeney
- Q Is he living? A. Yes sir.
- Q How old is he? A. He was born the 6th day of February a year ago.
- Q Who is the mother of the child? A. Why Mrs. J. T. Blakeney
- Q What is her given name? A. Marcella
- Q Is she living? A. Yes sir.
- Q Is she a Cherokee or a white woman? A. A white woman
- Q When were you married to her? A. In 1895, June 26th.
- Q Have you any evidence of your marriage, have you got any marriage license or certificate? A. No sir, I have not.
- Q Have you got it at home? A. Yes sir.
- Q Where were you married? A. At Carthage.
- Q Married by a minister of the Gospel? A. Yes sir.
- Q Can you furnish the Commission with that marriage license and certificate or a certified copy? A. Yes sir.
- Q When you left the Cherokee Nation in 1885, what effects or property did you have here? A. Well sir, at that time I had nothing at all.
- Q You had no effects whatever at that time? A. I might have had some personal property, but a little of nothing, but no real estate.
- Q Had you reached your majority when you left?
- A The last time I left?
- Q When you left the last time? A. No, I don't suppose I had.
- Q What time did you leave in 1885? A. Well sir, I can't tell you
- Q In what month were you born? A. The 11th of October, 1864.
- Q Have you voted and exercised the rights of suffrage in Missouri?
- A I have.
- Q You keep house there? A. Yes sir.
- Q Have you ever, since you left the Cherokee Nation in 1885, returned here to establish a residence? A. Well sir, when I was appointed to the service I was living here at that time, and the fact of the case is, I received this commission, and it is a much better position than the position I had at that time, and I presume if it hadn't been for that I would have been a resident here at this time, and since that time I have been continuously in Missouri.
- Q You have been continuously in the government employ since 1885?
- A Well I have been in the service eighteen years.
- Q Do you know what month in the year you were appointed?
- A Well sir, I can't give you the direct information, I don't remember just the month.
- Q Well, since 1885 you have never resided here in the Nation?
- A Well not to make it my home.
- Q Have you ever been here since that?
- A Oh yes sir, several times.
- Q How long would you remain? A. Well I would remain for a few days at a time, of course in my employment I was continuously employed by the government.
- Q Do you own any property in the Nation? A. Now?
- Q Yes? A. I have a farm out here, I don't know if I own it.

Supp'l to D 1474--3.

Q Do you derive any revenue from that farm? A. Yes sir, that is the farm is paying for itself. I don't know how many acres are in it; it is supposed to be owned jointly by myself and brother.

Q Have you got any of the rents on it? A. Yes sir, I have in payment of the same

Q What do you mean by that? A. Well, this is a place I received from my brother, and it is a place he disposed of to me, and it was paid for to a certain extent by the benefits derived from the crops.

Q When did you purchase it? A. Well, I presume its been four or five years ago.

Q Who owns the place now? A. Why, I presume it is myself and brother that own it jointly.

Q How many acres are there? A. I don't know just how many acres.

Q Just approximate? A. Well, I presume about possibly two hundred acres; that's simply a guess, sir, I don't remember.

Examined by W. P. Thompson:

Q Are you on the 1880 roll of the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes sir.

Q You were living here at the time you received that appointment in the government service in the post office at Carthage, Missouri?

A Yes sir.

Q And you have been in the constant employ of the government from the day you left here up to the present time? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, have you regarded that as your personal and private residence up there, or your official residence?

A Simply my official residence, sir.

Q What has been your intention in regard to your home, where you should make your home? A. Well, I have considered Vinita my home, but the facts in the case are, in my position, it is a civil service position, and while it hasn't been so, a person could be transferred wherever they saw fit to send him.

Q You are in the civil service, the government service?

A Yes sir.

Q Well, if you had lost your position there in the government service, where would you have gone for your home?

A Well sir, I presume I would have returned here, for I would have felt that I could possibly have done better here.

Q Well, what was your intention when you left here with regard to returning to the Cherokee Nation? A. Well sir, I fully expected to return, and to bear out that statement, I will state that my sister lives here and father and mother were admitted, and at that time I hadn't attained my majority.

Q Well your brother is Robert I. Blakeney? A. Yes sir.

Q Is he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.

Q Is Mrs. D. A. Frazier your full sister? A. Yes sir.

Q Is she a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.

Q Is your mother Kate I. Blakeney? A. Yes sir.

Q Is she a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.

Q You say that you own a farm up here jointly with your brother Robert I. Blakeney, and have owned it for several years?

A Yes sir.

Q You bought it from your brother? A. Yes sir.

Q And allowed the crops to go as payment for it?

A Yes sir.

Q Then your absence from the Cherokee Nation has been due to the fact that you were a government employee? A. Yes sir.

Examined by J. C. Starr:

Q Have you ever had possession of this farm?

A In what way do you mean?

Q Has it ever been turned over to you?

A Yes sir I have the deeds I think at home, I suppose it is what they would term a deed, it is gotten up in a queer shape, but it is the kind they would term a deed here I suppose.

Q When you left the Cherokee Nation in 1885 what kind of a position did you take in the government service?

A Why I was in the Post office department.

Q What was the nature of the position? A. Well, at that time I was put on the general delivery, if I remember correctly.

Q In what postoffice? A. Carthage.

Q Who was postmaster at that time A George Blakeney.

Q How long did you hold that position?

A I have held it continuously since and am in the employ at this time.

Q During your residence in Carthage since 1885, have you voted there? A. Yes sir.

Q How often? A Well, the fact of the matter is, not at every election, for it is something that I take little interest in, and I think though I am safe in saying that every Presidential election I have voted, but in the numerous county and city elections I have not

Q Have you voted in the State elections? A. Yes sir.

Q Did you apply for readmission when your brothers and sisters applied? A. Not that I know of.

Q Did you have any property in the Cherokee Nation from 1885 up till the time you bought this farm? A. No sir.

Q No effects? A. Well I might virtually say nothing.

Examined by the Commission:

Q How does it happen, Mr. Blakeney, that you never appeared before the Commission and made application for enrollment before this time?

A I will explain that to you, when you were in Vinita, I think the last time, why my duties were such that I couldn't get away only for a limited time, and I did go up into your quarters one day when you were down here in the court house, but there were quite a number ahead ahead there, and I felt that I couldn't wait, and I had to go out that evening, and to corroborate that statement, I think I wrote the Commission a t Muskogee or Tahlequah. I did appear, but I didn't present myself before the Commission.

Q Have your mother and brothers and sisters always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Always, no sir they haven't continuously resided here; well, my brother I think, virtually has.

Q Well he has never made his home outside the Nation has he?

A No, I think not, I think he has resided here continuously since, is my recollection, and my sister, now she's living in Memphis.

Q What time in 1895 did you say you were married?

A June 26th, I think it was.

Q Do you also desire to make application for the enrollment of your wife? A Well sir, I would like to do so if possible.

Q As an intermarried citizen? A Yes sir.

Q Have you ever drawn any money from the tribal authorities of the Cherokee Nation since you went away in 1885?

A Yes sir, it strikes me there were two or three.

A About how long ago has that been?

A Well now Mr. Reuter, I can't say positively regarding that, I think the last payment was made here, I think it was a Shawnee payment.

Q Did you participate in the payment that was made to the Cherokees in 1894? A. No sir, I didn't.

Q Are you a registered Shawnee? A. Yes sir, I presume so, I have drawn money

Q Did you all come down here when the Shawnees came in 1871?

A Well now I don't know how to answer that question, I don't know whether we did or not.

Supp'l to D 1474--5.

Q Is your father's name George Blakeney? A Yes sir.

Q You weren't here and drew this money in person were you?

A Yes sir. It was paid up here in a building right on Main street, I remember quite well, the payment I have reference to.

THE COMMISSION: Applicant is identified on page 5, opposite No. 106, on the pay roll of Cherokee-Shawnee citizens of the Cherokee Nation, as disbursed by D. W. Lipe, Treasurer of said Nation, authorized by an act of the National Council approved March 30, 1896. He appears on said roll under the name of John Blakeney, aged, at that time 33 years.

Q Did you come to the Cherokee Nation with your father and mother?

A Yes sir, I must have done so; I suppose I was a little bare foot boy at that time.

Q Are you older or younger than your brother Robert?

A I am older.

Q Are you older than your sister Emily? A Yes sir.

Q How much older are you than your brother Robert?

A I can't answer that, it is a matter of about two or three years though, I think.

Q Where were you living in Kansas when you came down here?

A Why at-- well I think they came from Eudora and then Lawrence, is my recollection.

Q Now according to your own statement of your age, you must have been about eleven years old when the Shawnees came here, and ought to remember whether or not you came down with your parents?

A I was born in 1864, I must have been, I evidently was with my parents.

Q Does your mother live here in town? A. She's in town at present, yes sir.

THE COMMISSION: Applicant's father, George Blakeney, his mother, Kate Blakeney, his brother Robert Blakeney and his sister Emma Blakeney, are identified on the register of the names of members of the Shawnee tribe of Indians who moved to and located in the Cherokee Nation prior to the 10th day of June, 1871. Their numbers are 133-134-135-136, respectively. Applicant John T. Blakeney is not identified on the Shawnee register.

Q Were you ever married before you were married to your wife?

A No sir.

Q Was she ever married before? A No sir.

Q What is the name of her father? A. John Wilber

Q Is he living or dead? A. I think he is living at the present time.

Q Was he a Cherokee or a white man? A. He's a white man.

Q What was your wife's mother's name? A. She has been dead for quite a number of years, I knew her name too, if I could think of it, Mrs. Kenyon; her maiden name was Richardson.

Q What was her given name? A. Her given name was Kenyon.

Q Have you and your wife lived together continuously since your marriage? A. Yes sir.

Q Never separated? A No sir.

Q Are you living together at this time? A. Yes sir.

Q How old is your wife? A She is about thirty-six or thirty-seven.

Q She is the mother of this child, John S. Blakeney?

A Yes sir.

Examined by J. C. Starr:

Q Did you ever make any application for your wife and child?

A No sir, never did until this time.

Supp'l to D 1474--6.

Q You never applied for her until today? A. No sir.

By J. C. Starr: Comes now the Cherokee Nation, and protests against the Commission's receiving, considering or making any record of the application made by applicant for the enrollment of his wife and child, for the reason that Section 30 of the Act of Congress entitled "An act to provide for the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, and for the disposition of townsites therein, and for other purposes", provides:

"Sec. 30. During the months of September and October, in the year nineteen hundred and two, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment of such infant children as may have been born to recognized enrolled citizens of the Cherokee Nation on or before the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two, but the application of no person whomsoever for enrollment shall be received after the thirty first day of October, nineteen hundred and two."

By W. P. Thompson: Attorney for the applicant states, that Section 31, of the Curtis Bill, provides that the Commission is authorized and directed to enroll all persons now living whose names appear upon the roll of 1880, and their descendants.

Examined by the Commission:

Q Mr. Blakeney, isn't it a fact that you appeared here before the Commission for the purpose of testifying in this case in response to a letter which the Commission sent you last November, notifying you that you would be allowed to submit further testimony?

A Yes sir, at Tahlequah, when they wrote me from Tahlequah it was just simply almost impossible for me to get away.

Q As a matter of fact did you ever have any intention of making this application if the Commission had not written you and notified you that you were on the 1880 roll? A. That letter was in response to a letter that I had written, if I remember correctly. I wrote to the Dawes Commission at either Muskogee or Tahlequah, and this response was made in response to that letter.

Q Didn't you receive a letter last November notifying you that you had been listed for enrollment upon a doubtful card, from information?

A. Yes sir.

Q Wasn't it in response to that letter that you make this application? A. Yes sir.

Q Prior to that time had you ever had any intention of really applying? A. Yes sir, when you were enrolling in Vinita the last time, I came up with that very intention, and went up into the room, and I remember at that time you were enrolling a lot of darkeys, and there seemed to be an endless number of them, and I stayed there a while and saw there wasn't much of a chance.

Q You are a government employee and as such are entitled to thirty days annual leave? A. Fifteen days.

Q Do you know how long this Commission has been engaged in making this roll? A. Well now, regarding that point, at the time I was here on my vacation period at that time, the first part of my vacation was spent, I had business in St. Louis, and I timed it so as to take in the latter part of my vacation when I came here to go before the Commission.

Q Well the Commission was in session at the court house there at the time you spoke of in October, 1901? A. Yes sir, that was the time, sir.

Q You had fifteen days annual leave last year, in 1902?

A Yes sir and in 1901. If it was 1901 that you were in session at that place, why that was the time, and that was the express intention, I came down at that time to appear.

- Q How does it happen that you did not come back here when you had an annual leave in 1902? A I don't know; in fact I didn't know just where you were located at that time; that's really the facts in the case sir.
- Q If I understand you correctly, since you left here in 1885 you have never had a residence here in the Cherokee Nation; you have never kept house here? A No sir.
- Q Did you leave any effects whatever when you went away in 1885? A No sir, I didn't have anything but my clothes, I guess.
- Q And you have never had any effects in the Cherokee Nation since that time? A Well, personal effects you mean?
- Q Yes? A No sir.
- Q And have none at this time? A No sir.
- Q You are still keeping house in Carthage? A Yes sir.
- Q You were married there? A Yes sir.
- Q Your child was born there? A Yes sir.
- Q Your wife and child have never lived in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.

Examined by W. P. Thompson:

- Q You have had your farm here haven't you?
- A Yes sir I have had that farm here.

Examined by the Commission:

- Q Did you have any effects on that farm, any household effects or anything of that kind?
- A I think about all is the crop, sir. As I stated it is jointly owned--
- Q When did you buy that farm? A Well sir,, I can't remember the date, but I judge about four or five years ago.
- Q Are you positive whether it was as much as five years ago?
- A No sir, I wouldn't be positive but about four or five years ago.
- Q Do you know what township and range this farm is located in?
- A No sir.
- Q Near what town is it? A It is about five miles northwest of this place.
- Q How many children has your brother?
- A He has two living
- Q Is he living on that farm? A No sir, he has been living in town.
- Q Has he taken his allotment in the Cherokee Nation?
- A I think he has.
- Q Do you know whether or not he has taken that farm in allotment for himself, wife and children?
- A I can't say, sir, I didn't ask him.

Examined by J. C. Starr:

- Q From whom did you purchase this farm you speak of?
- A From my brother Robert I. Blakeney.
- Q He owned it at that time? A Yes sir.
- Q Isn't it a fact that he sold this farm to you about the time the Curtis Bill passed in 1898?
- A Its been, sir, about four or five years ago, I can't answer that question because I don't know, sir.
- Q You never paid any money for the farm?
- A No sir.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, Indian Territory, April 27, 1903.

In the matter of the application of John T. Blakeney for the enrollment of himself and his child John Stewart Blakeney, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife Marcella Blakeney, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

W. P. Thompson appears for applicant; no appearance on part of the Cherokee Nation.

Kate Blakeney, being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

- By W. P. Thompson: What is your name? A Kate Blakeney.
- Q What is your age? A My age is seventy-two.
- Q Are you the mother of John T. Blakeney? A Yes, I am.
- Q What is your citizenship, Mrs. Blakeney? A Do you mean what tribe?
- Q AYes. A Shawnee.
- Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q You are on the roll of registered Shawnees? A Yes.
- Q And your husband was George? A George Blakeney.
- Q He was also on the registered Shawnee roll? A Yes, adopted Shawnee.
- Q You are also the mother of Robert I. Blakeney? A Yes sir.
- Q And Emily F. Blakeney, now Mrs. Frazier? A Yes sir.
- Q They are all citizens of the Cherokee Nation, are they? A Yes.
- Now, I say my daughter is Emily F. I am not sure whether the "F" is on the roll, but if it isn't, it is all right.
- Q But that is her real name? A Yes.
- Q Did John T. Blakeney come with you and your husband and his brother, Robert, and sister, Emily, from Kansas when the registered Shawnees came from Kansas to the Cherokee Nation? A They came from Missouri.
- Q Did they come from Missouri? I thought they came from Kansas?
- A I know we were living in Kansas; yes, we came from Kansas, of course we did.
- Q What year was that? A '71.
- Q About how old was John T. Blakeney? A He was six or seven years old. I could calculate -----
- Q He was born in '64, wasn't he? A Yes sir.
- Q Well his home was here? A Yes.
- Q Where was his home at the time he received the appointment as clerk in the postoffice at Carthage, Missouri? A His home was in Vinita.
- Q Vinita, Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q What has been his employment since the date of his appointment to this position in the postoffice service? A He has been in the postoffice ever since.
- Q The same place? A Yes.
- Q He has held that official position then since his appointment at the time he lived in Vinita down to the present time? A Yes.
- Q Continuously? A Yes, continuously.
- Q Do you know whether he belongs to the civil service? A I don't know. I have an idea he is, but I don't know, I am not sure, so I will not say positively.
- Q What is your understanding about it? A I think he is.

2-John T. Blakeney et al.

Q Do you know about what time he received this appointment to this position in Carthage, Missouri? A Oh, Lord, don't ask me for dates; it was when Cleveland's first administration.

Q During Cleveland's first administration? A I think so.

Q And he has held that position continuously from that time until this? A Continuously until now.

Q Was he interested in a farm in the Cherokee Nation, do you know anything about that, in connection with his brother, Robert? A I think he has.

Commission: That then was in '84 he received his appointment?

A I guess so.

Q Was he married then? A No, he wasn't married then. He has been eight years married, but I never remember dates.

Q Who was postmaster up there, how did he get this appointment?

A His father was postmaster.

Q George Blakeney? A Yes.

Q How long had George Blakeney been postmaster? A It was the first term of Cleveland's administration.

Q George Blakeney was appointed postmaster by Cleveland during the first term? A Yes. I am not positive; I know he was postmaster during Mr. Cleveland's first term.

By Mr. Thompson: He held for the term, four years? A Yes sir.

Commission: That was your husband, George Blakeney? A Yes.

Q He had been recently appointed when he appointed John? A Yes, I guess so.

Q Where was your husband living when he was appointed postmaster? A We were down here.

Q Down here in Vinita? A In Vinita, and he went back you know. He never applied for the office.

Q Your husband then was appointed from Vinita as postmaster at Carthage, Missouri? A We had been living in Missouri, and were living here then.

Q How long had you been here at the time that George Blakeney ---?

A I don't know, we had been here since '71.

Q Continuously up until '84? A About thirteen years; -no, not continuously, off and on.

Q You came from Kansas in '71? A Yes.

Q And after '71 you lived in Missouri? A Yes, a while, and then we came down here and I spent all my life I was going to say here-back and forward.

Q How long did George Blakeney retain that postmastership? A Just four years.

Q Up until the next election? A Yes sir.

Q When Harrison came in your husband was removed? A Yes sir.

Q But John stayed on? A Yes, John stayed on. The Republicans have been in ever since. No, they haven't.

Q Except one term Cleveland was re-elected. Did your husband then come back to Vinita? A Yes.

Q That would be '88 or '89? A Yes, we didn't come back right away then.

Q When did you come back? A Ten or twelve years ago; I can't tell.

Q Wasn't your husband readmitted to citizenship? A Yes.

Q After he came back? A Yes.

Q Were you readmitted? A Why yes, we were readmitted.

Q You were all re-admitted? A Yes.

Q Do you remember what year that was? A No, I don't.

Q It was when you came back to the Cherokee Nation anyhow was it the last time, that you were readmitted; it was at that time, the time of your return from Missouri when your husband had lost the postoffice? A I know we were admitted, but I don't know what year it was.

Q It was after you came back from Missouri was it? A I can't tell you that. I know we were readmitted.

Q Now, how many of you were readmitted? A All of us.

3- John T. Blakeney et al.

- Q John too? A Yes, I guess so, the family were.
- Q How did you come to be readmitted? A Well now, I suppose that Mr. Blakeney thought we might lose out citizenship by being out. This is my supposition, because I don't ever remember of Mr. Blakeney talking to me about it.
- Q Was Mr. Blakeney a Shawnee? A Yes.
- W. P. Thompson: He was an adopted Shawnee? A Yes, he was an adopted Shawnee.
- Commission: He was a registered Shawnee? A Yes.
- Q He is not a Shawnee by blood? A No sir, he was an Irishman by blood.
- Q Now, you can't tell the year you were admitted? A No, I can't.
- Q And you can't tell whether John was admitted at the same time? A If any of us were admitted John was. We were all admitted.
- Q When did your son John, marry? A He married --- I can't tell you the year for I can't remember dates, and you might think I am very stupid.
- Q About how long? A I think about eight years.
- Q He married a Missouri girl? A Yes.
- Q How many children has he? A One.
- Q Now, has your son, John T. Blakeney, ever lived in the Cherokee Nation at all since he went to Missouri in '84? A No, because he had been in the postoffice there, but he has been back and forward; he never lived here though.
- Q Has his wife ever been down here? A Yes.
- Q Did he own any property here, any farm property? A Yes, I think he owned it in connection with his brother.
- Q How long has he owned that? A I can't tell you that even, I don't know anything about it.
- Q A number of years has it been? A I expect so.
- Q About how long? A I don't know; unfortunately I don't know.
- Q As many as ten years? A I don't know; I don't think it is ten years; I don't know, I can't answer those questions.
- Q You don't know how long he has owned this property? A No sir, I don't know anything about John's business.
- Q Do you know where his home has been since '84? A Was that since he went to the postoffice?
- Q Yes. A He has been in Carthage.
- Q That has been his home? A Yes, because he was in the postoffice and had to be there.
- Q Did he ever say to you or claim as having a home in Vinita since '84, or I will say since he Married? A No. I know he always considered this his home because he knew he had to be here, but he has been back and forward.
- Q That he considered Vinita as his home? A Yes, always supposed he had his right here and considered it his home.
- Q How is it he never came to apply for enrollment? A Before the Dawes Commission?
- Q Yes? A Well, he did.
- Q When? I don't so understand it. Do you know of your own knowledge why your son never applied for enrollment? A Why he did, he came down I remember that, but he couldn't get into the Dawes Commission.
- Q How long was he here at that time? A I think he was here --- I know he was here a day if not longer.
- Q Was that when the Commission was at Vinita? A Yes, I know he spent his time all day at the Commission.
- Q Trying to get in? A Yes.
- Q That was while the Commission was here enrolling? A Yes.
- Q Was that the only time he ever tried, do you know? A I think that is the only time.

Q You were living here then? A Yes, I was living here, I think; I don't know, John could answer those questions himself. I was living here though.

Q Did John have a brother living here at that time? A Yes.

Q How long has your husband been dead? A About fifteen months.

Q You can't tell, of course, whether your son John has voted in Missouri or not? A No, I can't.

Q Has your son, John, gone back to Carthage now? A Yes, he is in Carthage now.

W. P. Thompson: What is his wife's name? A Marcella Blakeney. I don't know whether she has a middle name or not.

Q What is his child's name? A John Stewart.

Q Do you know how old that child is? A He was born on the 6th day of January.

Q A year ago? A Yes.

Q From the 6th day of January up to this time is a year and that many months old? A Yes.

Q You say your son John, always claimed Vinita as his home? A Yes, he always claimed it as his home in so far as he knew he had a right here.

Q Do you know whether he drew money in the Shawnee payment of 1896?

A Yes, he has drawn every payment they made.

Q He came back here at that time and got the money? A Yes.

Q You say he is living in Carthage? A Yes.

Q Does he always claim that as his personal residence or official residence? A As his official residence.

Commissioner: What do you mean by official residence? A I mean his being in the postoffice; he isn't out of it yet.

Q That is what he claims? A Yes.

Q Well, now, did your son John, at the time he was down here trying to enroll tell you that that was his purpose in going before the Commission? A Yes.

Q Who was he going to enroll? A He was going to enroll himself, I guess.

Q Anybody else? A I don't know whether he intended enrolling his wife or not; I couldn't tell you that.

Q Did you ever have any conversation with your son John, during those years about his citizenship? A I don't remember that I had; I don't think I had. I always supposed he had his right here.

Q Do you know whether he thought his wife or child had a right here? A I can't say that I do.

Q Did you ever have any talk with her about it? A No.

Q She never talked about what rights she may have had here? A No, she never talked about any right at all, except about her husband coming down to enroll with the Dawes Commission; I heard her talk that and nothing else.

Q He never made any other attempt after the once you speak of?

A I think he did some way, but I can't tell you how.

Q He never asked you or any of his relatives to appear for him and apply for his enrollment? A No, I don't know that he did; he may have asked his brothers but I can't tell you because he always thought he would come down himself.

Q You don't know whether your son, John, ever expects to come back to Vinita or not? A I can't answer that either. I don't know, I can't tell you anything about that. He knows that, of course.

Q Would he come down to the Cherokee Nation every year during his vacation? A Yes, every year during his vacations.

Q How long would he stay? A Only a day or two; he never stays long.

Q Would he generally bring his wife with him on those trips? A I don't know, I don't think he did. His wife has been here when he hadn't this vacation.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John T. and John S. Blakeney, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood.

--

D E C I S I O N .

The record in this case shows that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of John Blakeney (John T. Blakeney), his family and descendants, as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, of Shawnee blood. Said application included Marcella Blakeney, wife of John T. Blakeney, who claims as a citizen by intermarriage, but, as the status of intermarried citizens is not at this time fixed, the right of Marcella Blakeney to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage, of the Cherokee Nation, will not now be passed upon. Said application also included John S. Blakeney, a minor child of John T. Blakeney. Subsequently, an affidavit was filed with this Commission showing that John S. Blakeney was born on February 6, 1902. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, on April 16, and April 27, 1903.

The evidence in this case shows that John T. Blakeney is a Cherokee citizen of Shawnee blood, and is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880, and the Cherokee-Shawnee pay roll of 1896. It further appears that for several years past the said John T. Blakeney has owned and controlled valuable property in the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence further shows that the said John T. Blakeney, in the year 1885, removed from the Cherokee Nation to Carthage, Missouri, where his duties as a Government employee called him; and wherein he has continuously resided since his removal thereto. The minor applicant, John S. Blakeney, is a child of the said John T. Blakeney, and has continuously resided with his father since birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the rulings of the Department in the cases of Joseph D.

Peargain, et al., (I. T. D. 2200-1903), and James Jones, et al., (I. T. D. 4416-1904), John T. Blakeney and John S. Blakeney should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

MUSKOGEE I. T. JANUARY 14, 1905.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John T. Blakeney et al as Cherokee Citizens.

Cherokee B 1474.

Comegnow the Cherokee Nation and respectfully protests against the decision of the Commission in this case and asks that the record and the decision be forwarded to the Honorable Secretary of the Interior for Review.

There is no conflict in the testimony in this case; in fact there is no testimony in this case except that of the applicant himself and his mother.

We further request that this case be submitted to the Honorable Assistant Attorney General for the Interior Department for an opinion.

Our contention is that under Article I Section 2 of the Cherokee Constitution this man has forfeited his right to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation;

First: By Moving out of the limits of the Cherokee nation;

Second; By Becoming a citizen of the State of Missouri, where he admits he voted in Presidential and State elections, and Third: By Leaving behind him in the Cherokee Nation no effects to retain his citizenship therein, nor no effects to connect him with the Cherokee Tribe of Indians.

The name of the applicant is found upon the Shawnee Register, he having removed to the Cherokee Nation when he was a mere boy.

The testimony shows that he was born in 1864, and that when but a few years of age, some eight or ten years of age, he left the Cherokee Nation with his father and went to Garthage Missouri. He claims to have returned to the Cherokee Nation at different times up to 1885 when he finally left the Cherokee Nation, since which time he admits that he has never been in the Cherokee Nation except on brief visits.

There is no testimony to show that he had permanently resided in the Cherokee Nation even prior to 1888. He was first employed in some minor position in the post office in Carthage Missouri where his father had been appointed Post master under the first Cleveland Administration. His father had established a residence there and was living there at the time he was appointed. His son took first in line of position and afterwards continued in the post office service there. The record shows that he had no property of any kind or character in the Cherokee Nation. He did not claim a farm in the Cherokee Nation. He had no personal property or effects of any kind or character. In 1898 or 1899 he claims to have bought of and agreed to pay for out of the rents, a part of his brothers farm; no doubt this was to cover his brothers excessive land holdings and to aid the applicant in attempting to show that he had some effects in the Cherokee Nation but from 1898 or 1899 back to 1888 the applicant himself swears that he had no effects of any kind or character and did not claim any within the Cherokee Nation.

He testifies that he has voted in every state and presidential election held in the State of Missouri since his residence there; he testifies that he voted at numerous state elections and in numerous county elections and perhaps at all of them. He was married in the state of Missouri where his minor child was born and there is no testimony here to show that his wife or child ever came to the Cherokee Nation even upon a visit. He recognized that he was not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and did not even apply to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation but a blanket application was made for him because under the direction of the Honorable Secretary of the Interior all names upon the 1880 and 1896 rolls had to be accounted for and application was made for him by Emmet Starr under a general order of the Commission and he never came to give any testimony in his own behalf until notified at Carthage Missouri to appear which he did on the 16th day of November 1903 for the first time.

We submit that employment in the post office is not such a government employment as would excuse his non residence in the Cherokee Nation. Employment in a local post office is local in its character and usually only local resident people are employed therein.

It is not like the employment of people in the Indian service or in any of the Departments at Washington because in these various employments the employes retain their local residence but in this case these applicants not only have resided out of the Cherokee Nation now for the past twenty years but this applicant, was living away from his country when he secured his post office position, he was married away from his country; keeps house there; has no effects and no connection with the Cherokees; he so far lost his connection that he did not even attempt to apply for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and he recognized that he was a citizen of the State of Missouri because he voted there in the General elections; he voted there in the State and county elections and the election officers recognized that he claimed citizenship in the State of Missouri otherwise they would not have permitted him to vote or register to vote.

He admits that he never received any rents from this farm; that it is not divided but is owned jointly with a brother of his; a useful person to have in emergencies like this.

The applicant claims that in 1900 he intended to go before the Commission and make application to be enrolled but he took pains for three years not to apply and there is no question but that he never would have applied had he not been notified to come before the Commission and give testimony. No doubt he had been advised under the early decisions of the Commission that non residents were not enrolled.

This man was born in the State of ~~Missouri~~ Kansas and came to the Cherokee nation with the Shawnees in 1871 and in order for him to have retained his rights in the Cherokee nation it was certainly necessary for him to have remained here.

It seems to us if there was ever a case before the Commission wherein citizens of the Cherokee Nation, under the Cherokee Constitution forfeited their right to enrollment that this is certainly one of them because by his own testimony the principal applicant has clearly shown first, that he removed from the limits of the Cherokee nation; Second that he became a citizen of the State of Missouri because he admits that he voted there in both presidential, state and county elections and was permitted to vote by the election officers, which shows that he was therefore recognized as a citizen of the State of Missouri; and Third, he admits that he did not have any effects in the Cherokee Nation from 1888 until some time about four or five years ~~ago~~ prior to 1893 which was in 1898 or 1899 when it was convenient for his brother to sell him some of his land after the Curtis bill had passed.

Suppose it was argued that he was in the Government service and that therefore his residence in Carthage did not change his legal residence from the Indian Territory. Now can the applicant answer the argument that he himself recognized and the election officials recognized that his legal residence was in Carthage Missouri, by his voting and their allowing him to vote as above argued his subsequent actions by his not applying himself to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation shows that he had no faith in his own case; shows that he believes that he ought not to be recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and that he only came and applied after being notified by the Commission to come and give testimony.

We submit therefore that the decision of the Commission in this case is erroneous, that it should be reversed and the applicants be denied enrollment.

Respectfully,

W. W. Foster-----

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

this January 10, 1907.

Cher. D-1474.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 17, 1902.

Mr. John Blakney,
Carthage, Missouri.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that you have been listed for enrollment on a doubtful card by this Commission, from information, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Shawnee blood.

In order to complete your enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to introduce further evidence as to your right to Cherokee citizenship.

If you desire to offer any additional evidence in support of the application for your enrollment, you will be given fifteen days from date hereof in which to appear before the Commission, for that purpose, at its general offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Cher. D-1474.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Wm. Brown as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Wm. Brown is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1896 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above-named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1860 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed if information has been obtained tending to show the status of

on September 1, 1901.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Mr. Brown as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application made for the enrollment of Sam Brown as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

The record in this case shows that on June 30, 1902 Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of Sam Brown, who was duly identified upon the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll, Cooweescoowee District, opposite number 426, and he was listed on Cherokee Doubtful card number 1476.

The record further shows that the said Sam Brown died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section twenty-five of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716) provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living, and entitled to enrollment on that date, shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, ordered that the application made for the enrollment of Sam Brown as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed without prejudice.

In the matter of the application of JAMES BULLETT, ET AL.,
for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

JAMES STARR, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission,
testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A James Starr.
Q What is your age? A Thirty one years.
Q What is your post office address? A Claremore, I. T.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir, I am.
Q For whom do you desire to make application for enrollment?
A For the following named persons on the 1896 Cherokee roll, their families and descendants:

Q Are there any other persons for whom you desire to make application for enrollment?
A I desire to apply for the following named persons on the 1896
Cherokee roll, their families and their descendants:

James Bullert, page 79, 8 and 9, Commission Exhibit,
At. Bullert
Name: "Not known to Starr".

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, I.T. January 31, 1905.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Anderson Burnett, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY.

John F. Warren, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A John F. Warren.
Q What is your age? A My age is 56.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Adair, Indian Territory.
Q Were you acquainted with a man by the name of Anderson Burnett?
who, if living, would be about 42 years of age?
A I am acquainted with Burnett but am not certain about his age;
and at the time of the making of the '80 Roll was not a citizen, because he must married about '87.
Q Is this Burnett, whom you know, a white man or Indian?
A White man.
Q How long have you known him? A I have known him from the time he was 23 or '4 years old, and until they married; he married one of the neighbor girls there, Mr. Thompson's daughter, Dora Thompson.
Q Is Dora Thompson married at the present time? A No sir, been married since her husband died, and is now a widow; her present name is Dora Dancer.
Q Is the Burnett, whom you know, living at the present time? A
A He is not; been dead about, probably 10 years.
Q Do you know of any other Burnetts who resided in Cooweesawwee District in about 1880? A I do not.

(Witness excused).

Josie Davies, having been first duly sworn, states: That as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes she reported all proceedings had in the above entitled cause and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and complete transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

CHEROKEE, N. 1477

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Anderson Barnett as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

ORDER.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized
Tribes and made application for the enrollment of ~~Anderson~~
Barnett as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said ~~Anderson~~
Barnett is identified on the Cherokee ~~enrollment~~ roll of 1896 as an adopted ~~Cherokee~~.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above-named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1890 and 1896, not theretofore accounted
for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee
Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
Land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Buckhannon, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed if information has been obtained tending to show the status of Anderson Burnett on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Anderson Burnett as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lissie Burgess as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

---:---

D E C I S I O N .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Lissie Burgess as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1478.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; that, under the name of Malissa Burgess, she is identified on Creek Indian Card Field No. 265, Roll No. 374, and that her enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation was approved by the secretary of the Interior March 13, 1902, and it is further shown that said applicant has voluntarily selected her allotment of land in said Nation.

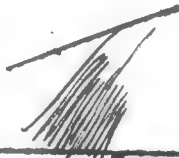

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Malissa (Lissie) Burgess to be enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of her allotment of land in said Nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress above noted, Lissie Burgess is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Gentlemen:

The Cherokee Enrollment Division desires to be informed whether or not there is any record of an application having been made for the enrollment of one Lissie Burgess as a citizen of the Creek Nation. The name of Lissie Burgess was added to the 1899 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation by the Cherokee Revising Committee, no age or nationality being given.

Placed opposite the name of Lissie Burgess is a note to the effect that she is a Creek allottee. No further information has been secured relative to her.

Gentlemen:

The Creek Enrollment Division is in receipt of your letter of August 5, 1902, asking if one, Lissie Burgess, has been enrolled as a Creek citizen.

Replying thereto you are advised that one, Malissa Burgess, age 42 years, is listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation, on Creek Indian Card, Field No. 265, Roll No. 874, and that her enrollment as a citizen of said nation was approved by the secretary of the Interior, March 13, 1902. The post office address of Malissa Burgess is Frye, Indian Territory, and the name of her husband is given as John B. Burgess, a Cherokee citizen. They have three children, whose names are Hettie, Mattie and Sarah Burgess, ages 7 5 and 3 years, respectively, who are listed for enrollment as Creek citizens, and whose enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 13, 1902.

January 9, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 27, 1906, transmitting the record relative to the application of Lissie Burgess for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

On June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Lissie Burgess as a citizen.

On February 27, 1906, the Commissioner held that the applicant was not entitled to such enrollment.

The applicant is identified as Malissa Burgess, at No. 874 on the roll of citizens of the Creek Nation approved by the Department on March 13, 1902 and the Commissioner reports that she has voluntarily selected an allotment of land in the Creek Nation.

In view of Section 21 of the Act of June 22, 1898 (30 Stat.L., 495), the decision of the Commissioner adverse to the applicant is recommended for approval.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Neillie Bryant as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Neillie Bryant is identified on the Cherokee ~~enrollment~~ roll of 1902 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above-named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1906, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Nellie Bryant on September 1, 1903.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Nellie Bryant as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Elna Colston
as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Colston
as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

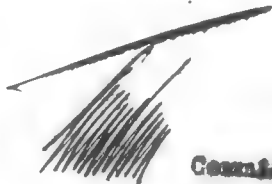

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Elna
Colston
is identified on the Cherokee ~~enrollment~~ roll of 1896 as a daughter of Emmet Starr.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted
for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
land office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Fuskot, c. Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Ike Colsten on September 1, 1905.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Ike Colsten as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.

Q Do you know your exact age? A No sir, I don't.
Q About how old were you when the war broke out? A I couldn't tell, I can recollect when it broke up but I can't recollect when it commenced, I must have been about 12 or 13 years old I reckon, because if I hadn't of been I couldn't recollect when it broke up.
Q What is your post office? A Russell.
Q Did you ever claim citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, I always claim it, but then I never did prove it.
Q Did you make any application to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for enrollment, to the Dawes Commission, did you ever apply to them? A Only what I applied here that time I come up here, that was the first time I was here.
Q What did you come up here for at that time? A Come up here to see if I could get an application through for my rights.
Q How long ago was that? A I don't remember how long that has been.
Q It has just been a few months back, was it this year or some year before this? A I don't recollect, I know I have been here three trips in this case, but I forget what month it was in or what year.
Q Do you claim to be a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir, I claim it.
Q Did you ever claim citizenship in any other way? A Yes sir, I tried to get before the Council and I couldn't.
Q What was the name of your father? A My father was named Hose Crittenden.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q Was he a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q By blood? A Yes sir.
Q Did he live in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q In what District? A Yes sir, they lived in Goingsmake District, then he moved up here to Wagoner about the strip payment.

- Q Did they ever call her by any other name besides Josie? A Josie Taylor before I married her.
- Q Was she a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.
- Q What was she? A A white woman.
- Q When were you and she married? A Now you are too hard for me, I couldn't tell.
- Q That was your first marriage was it, to her? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know about what age you were when you married? A I was about 25 I think when I was married.
- Q Were you older or younger than she? A I was older than she is.
- Q Do you remember about how much older? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Is she living? A No sir, she is dead.
- Q How long has she been dead? A 20 years.
- Q Did you and she have any children? A Had two.
- Q What were their names? A One named Lewis and the other one was named James.
- Q Which was the older, Lewis or James? A Lewis was the oldest one.
- Q Is he living? A No sir he is dead, both of the children are dead.
- Q About how long has Lewis been dead? A 25 years.
- Q How old was he when he died? A 4 years old I think.
- Q How long has James been dead? A I don't know hardly.
- Q Been dead a number of years? A He has been dead, I couldn't tell what year he died, the year the small pox was on Grand River.
- Q Along about 1882, wasn't it? A Yes sir, he died with the small pox.
- Q Did you ever know a person by the name of Joanna Crittenden?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Who was that? A I just made a mistake there in the name, I will acknowledge to the truth, I made a mistake.
- Q Who was Joanna Crittenden? A She is my wife, the one I referred to as Josie.
- Q Called her by both names? A No sir, that is her right name, Joanna, I made a mistake.
- Q She was a white woman? A Yes sir.
- Q Can you read and write? A No sir, I can't.
- Q Could Joanna read and write? A Yes sir.
- Q Where were you born? A I was born in Polk County, Arkansas.
- Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation first? A Directly after peace.
- Q Whereabouts to? A I crossed the Arkansas River at Fort Smith.
- Q In Sequoyah District? A Yes sir, we just came through.
- Q Where did you locate? A In Goingsnake District.
- Q How long did you live there then? A Who me, I don't remember how long, I didn't stay in there very long, then I went up on Grand River and stayed 6 years and come back to Goingsnake and stayed two years longer then come down in Canadian.
- Q Whereabouts on Grand River was it you lived? A Right at the mouth of Cabin Creek.
- Q Is that in what District? A Sequoyah I think they call it, I don't know.
- Q Sequoyah? A Yes sir, I think that is the name of the District, I aint certain.

Q Have you any children now? A Yes sir.
Q What are their names? A The oldest one Josie and one William Crittenden.
Q How old is Josie? A I can't tell you just exactly, I have got her age, I think I have got it, I got it on a book there and I had her to write it off for me.
Q This memorandum handed me shows she was born on November 16, 1887, is that right? A Yes sir.
Q The next child is William ~~Stark~~ Crittenden, born February 15, 1890? A Yes sir.
Q The next one Lucy Crittenden, born January 23, 1893? A That is right.
Q The next one Steve Crittenden, born September 2, 1895 and John Crittenden born August 12, 1902? A That is right.
Q The next child, Henry Crittenden, born August 1, 1905? A That is right, this last August.
Q Are these children, Josie, William, Lucy, Steve, and John all living at the present time? A Yes sir.
Q Any of them married? A No sir.
Q Do they all live at home with you? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the mother of these children? A Jane Crittenden.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Is she a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q You and she live together now? A Yes sir.
Q She the mother of all these children? A Yes sir.
Q When were you and she married? A I don't remember that.

- Q Don't know? A Not to the day, I don't.
Q Do you remember what year it was? A No sir, I don't.
Q How long had you been married when Josie was born? A About two years, a year or two.
Q Did you get a license when you married? A No sir, I never.
Q Were you married by a preacher? A No sir.
Q Who married you? A The Clerk.
Q The Clerk of what court? A The District Clerk I reckon.
Q Of what District? A Goingsnake.
Q What was his name? A His name was Jack Wright.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Did you ever live in Cooweescoowee District? A I think that is the District I lived in up there on Grand River.
Q How far did you live from the mouth of Cabin Creek? A I couldn't say for certain, but it wasn't over a quarter of a mile or a half from where it empties into the river.
Q On which side of Cabin Creek the east or west? A On the east side.
Q Is that the only place you ever lived up in that section of the country outside of Goingsnake and ~~Smoky~~ Canadian? A Of course I rented up there, but I stayed on that place where I am speaking about two years.
Q Then where did you move? A Come to Goingsnake District then.
Q Did you first live up there two years? A No I stayed there 6 years, I live on the east side of the Grand River.
Q You say you lived on the east side and moved over on the north?
A No, I moved from the east side to the north.
Q Did you ever live up there other than this place about a half mile east of Cabin Creek? A I don't remember, I think I made 3 or 4 moves before I lived on that place.
Q Were those moved there on the west side of Grand River or east side? A They were there where I was on the south side.
Q Did you ever live on the west side of the M. K. & T. railroad?
A No sir, I never did.
Q You know that? A No sir.
Q You never lived on the west? A If I did I don't remember.
Q Then you never did live in Cooweescoowee District? A Maybe it wasn't Cooweescoowee District, but I know I didn't live on the west side of the M. K. & T. railroad.
Q Do you know where Rock Creek is up there? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever live south of that? A No sir.
Q You always lived north of Rock Creek and east of the M. K. & T. railroad? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know where Delaware District is? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever live in it? A I might have, I don't know.
Q But you know you never lived south of Rock Creek or west of the M. K. & T. railroad? A No sir.
Q What man owned the place you lived on? A The last place I lived on was owned by a man named Cornatzer.
Q Siras Cornatzer's father? A Yes sir.
Q What side of Cabin Creek was that? A On the east side.
Q How far from Grand River? A About a half mile.
Q What other place did you live on up there? A The old George Sorey place.
Q What side of Grand River was that on? A On the east side.
Q Did you live on any other place besides the Siras Cornatzer place on the north or west side of Grand River? A Well that place I told just now.
Q You said that was on the other side of Grand River? A Well yes.

- Q I don't want to know that, I am trying to get you on the other side except the Cornatner place? A No sir, I never did.
- Q Then you never lived on but one place there? A I lived on one of his places right above there two months, then I moved down there, I don't remember how long I was in that little house, then he rented me the other place, there was no farm land on the place I was living on, there wasn't no field there and I rented the lower place. The other place was on Cabin Creek and right above that place.
- Q On the east side of it? A Yes sir.

BY THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q Do you know where Cabin Creek runs into Grand River? A Yes sir.
- Q How far did you live from there? A About a half mile I think, right above.
- Q Which way was the mouth of Cabin Creek to where you lived? A Right south.
- Q It was south from where you lived? A I don't know whether it was right due south but I lived up and the creek run down this way.
- Q You lived then on the east side of Cabin Creek? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever live on the West side of Cabin Creek? A No sir, never did.
- Q Cabin Creek was between you then and the M. K. & T. railroad? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever live between the M. K. & T. railroad and Cabin Creek? A No sir, never did.
- Q Did you ever live at any place up there where the M. K. & T. would be between you and Cabin Creek? A No sir, I don't think I ever did to the best of my knowledge.
- Q Did you ever know anybody by the name of Anthony Crittenden? A That is my name.
- Q Did you ever know anybody else by that name? A No sir, I don't believe I ever did, I heard the name but never got acquainted with them.
- Q Did you ever know anybody by the name of Joanna Crittenden other than your wife? A No sir.
- Q Did you ever draw any money from the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.
- Q Was your name ever placed on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation that you know of? A No sir, not as I remember, I don't think it ever was.
- Q Did you ever apply to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in 1896 for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, I don't think I did.
- Q Do you remember the time of the taking of the 1896 Census roll by the Tribal authorities of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, I remember that.
- Q Did you try to get on that roll? A I tried but couldn't get on.
- Q Why? A They wouldn't put me on it.
- Q Do you know the reason? A No sir, I don't know that.
- Q Did they come to your house when they were taking the census? A Yes sir they came.
- Q Did you talk with the Census takers? A I talked with them yes.
- Q Who took the census then? A I don't remember who, I think it was William McLean.
- Q Did he say why he wouldn't place your name on the roll? A No sir.

EXHIBIT

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Jane Cloud as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS THAT said Jane Cloud is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1896 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1830 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been associated for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be considered as information has been obtained tending to show the status of

on September 1, 1905.

It is therefore concluded that the application for the enrollment of Jane Cloud as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation is, and was from its being dismissed, without prejudice.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Emma J. Carling as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

---:---

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Emma J. Carling as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Emma J. Carling is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1900, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 22, 1905, a publication list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been associated for, was issued by the form of a statement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that any applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information had been secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed if information has been obtained tending to show the status of

on September 1, 1905.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Wm J. Carling as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized
Tribes and made application for the enrollment of G.
Carling as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said G.
Carling is identified on the Cherokee ~~Authenticated~~ roll of 1880 as an intermarried citizen.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1890 and 1896, not theretofore accounted
for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1901,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee
Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 22, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been considered for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. Information has been obtained tending to show the status of G. Carling as of September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED That the application for the enrollment of G. Carling as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application made for the enrollment of Nellie Christy as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

E. B. Frayser, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY THE COMMISSION:

- Q What is your name? A E. B. Frayser.
Q What is your age, Mr. Frayser? A 56.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita, I. T.
Q Mr. Frayser, were you once acquainted with a woman in Cooweescoowee District by the name of Nellie Christy?
A I knew her in Saline District; she married and come over in Cooweescoowee.
Q Where was this woman living when the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll was made?
A She was living at Claremore.
Q Was she a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes, sir, she was a full blood Cherokee.
Q Did you know the name of her father?
A Wat Christy.
Q What was the name of her mother? A I do not know.
Q Where did you first become acquainted with this Nellie Christy?
A At our home.
Q Did she move to Cooweescoowee District prior to the making of the 1880 Roll?
A She worked for me about a month in about 1877.
Q How old would Nellie Christy be now if living?
A In 1877 I suppose she was 16 or 17, and would now be between 45 and 50.
Q Is she the only Nellie Christy you ever knew in Cooweescoowee District?
A Yes, sir, the only one.
Q Is Nellie Christy living at the present time?
A I do not think she is; I heard she was dead.
Q How long ago has it been since you heard she was dead?
A I could not state exactly.
Q Has it been as much as 10 years since you were informed she was dead?
A I do not know, probably it has.
Q Has it been more than 4 years, anyway?
A Yes, I think so.
Q Was she a married woman?
A She was not married when she lived with me, but married afterwards.
Q What was her husband's name? A Ned Crutchfield.
Q Did she have any children?
A I do not know; I never saw her with any children.
Q Where was she living at the time of her death?
A Well, I think she was living at Claremore.

Nellie Christy is identified on the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll, Cooweescoowee District, number 672, and is listed from information on Cherokee D 1490.

W. P. In the matter of the application made for the enrollment of Nelly Christy as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

The record in this case shows that on June 30, 1902 Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of Nelly Christy, who was duly identified upon the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll, Cooweescoowee District, opposite number 672, and she was listed on Cherokee Doubtful card number 1490.

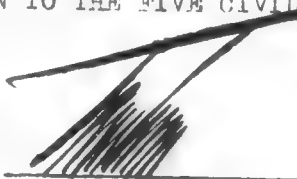

It further appears from the record herein that the said Nelly Christy died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section twenty-five of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716) provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living, and entitled to enrollment on that date, shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, ordered that the application made for the enrollment of Nelly Christy as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed without prejudice.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of
L. J. Fields as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized
Tribes and made application for the enrollment of L. J.
Fields as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

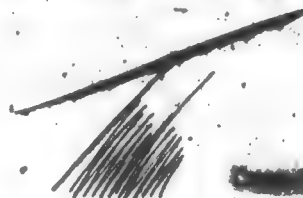

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said L. J.
Fields is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880
as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted
for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee
Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 21, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to the newspaper in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek counties and notice was given that the applications for the removal of the persons named in said list concerning which no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be considered as having been dropped pending to that date the status of L. J. Fields.

It is respectfully requested that the application for the removal of L. J. Fields as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dropped, without prejudice.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of August 8, 1902, in which you state that one L. J. Fields, identified upon the 1880 Cherokee roll, Cooweescoowee District, as a female, thirteen years of age at that time, was your mother, and that she is now dead.

It would appear from the roll that the L. J. Fields in question is probably your sister, and not your mother. The enrollment of your father's family upon the roll of 1880 is as follows:

G. W. Fields,	33	years of age.
Eliza Fields, (Dead)	32	"
Sarah Fields,	15	"

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Robert Frazer as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

The record in this case shows that on June 30, 1902 Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of Robert Frazer, who was duly identified upon the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll, number 1189, Cooweescoowee District, and he was listed for enrollment on Cherokee Doubtful card number 1497.

The record herein further shows that the said Robert Frazer died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section twenty-five of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716) provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living, and entitled to enrollment on that date, shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, ordered that the application made for the enrollment of Robert Frazer, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same is, hereby dismissed without prejudice.

In the matter of the application of Eliza Tucker for the enrollment of herself and two children as Cherokee Freedmen, said Tucker being sworn and examined by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Eliza Tucker.
Q How old are you, Eliza? A I guess I am about 45 years old.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita.
Q What district do you live in? A Delaware District.
Q Do you apply to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir.
Q Who do you want to enroll besides yourself? A I have got two children.
Q Give me the names of your children? A Lee Tucker.
Q How old is Lee? A He is about 18.
Q What is the name of the next child? A Myrtle Ratcliff.
Q How old is she? A She is about 19.
Q Did you ever apply to be enrolled by any other Nation or tribe besides the Cherokees? A No sir.
Q Did you ever draw any money from any other tribe or nation? A No sir.
Q Is your name on the roll of 1880? A It ought to be.
Q Are you married? A Not now, I have been married.
Q What was your husband's name? A Dan Tucker.
Q Is he living? A Yes sir, out west of here.
Q When did you marry him, how long ago, before 1880 or afterwards? A I can't tell you, before.
Q What was your father's name? A Lewis Scott.
Q What was your mother's name? A Winnie Ratcliff.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q Is your father living? A He is dead.
Q Did you ever live in Tahlequah District? A Yes sir, when the Treaty was made; I am enrolled down in 1880 as Dan Tucker's wife.
Q You know whether your name is on the roll of 1880 or not, don't you, Eliza? A It was enrolled on there.
Q Did you have brothers or sisters? A Arch Landrum is my brother.

The 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of applicant identified thereon, page 329, #2716, Eliza Tucker, Delaware District, accepted white.

- Q You drew your strip payment fund, didn't you, Eliza?
A Yes sir.
APPLICANT: I guess on the 1896 it must be Fountain.
Q Were you married to a man by the name of Fountain? A Yes sir.
Q You married Fountain after Tucker? A Yes sir.

The 1896 Census Roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and the names of applicants found thereon as follows:
Page 630, #43, Eliza Fountain, Delaware District.

Q He is living, is he, Daniel Tucker? A Yes sir.

Eliza Tucker, et al--2.

Q You were never divorced from him? A No sir, I called for a divorce, but Edgo Pascall said we didn't need any divorce, we were both citizens.

Q You were never divorced by any divorce? A No sir.

Q Who was your second husband? A Tom Austin, I think he died.

Q Did he die while you were living with him? A He died in Pueblo, Colorado.

Q Now who was your third husband? A Fountain is my last husband.

Q Did you marry Fountain before this second man died? A I married him since before the last payment.

Q You said you married a man by the name of Austin, who died in Colorado, now was Austin dead when you married Fountain?

A He was dead when I married Dan Tucker? A Yes sir.

~~Q And Dan Tucker was your first husband?~~

Q Austin was your first husband? A Yes sir.

Q And Dan Tucker was your husband? A Yes sir.

Q Dan Tucker is not dead yet, and you never was divorced from him?

A No sir.

COM'R. NEEDLES: Eliza Tucker applies for the enrollment of herself and two children, Lee Tucker and Myrtle Ratoliff. Her name is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and upon the census roll of 1896. She is duly identified and makes satisfactory proof as to residence and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. Her two children, Lee Tucker and Myrtle Ratoliff's names are found upon the census roll of 1896. They are all duly identified and make satisfactory proof as to residence and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Isaac Fountain as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 30, 1902, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Isaac Fountain as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 5, 1902 and at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, August 14, 1902.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Isaac Fountain, is a white man and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as he may have acquired by virtue of his marriage to one Jones, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. It does not appear from the record in this case or from the records of this office that said applicant was married prior to November 1, 1875, or that said applicant was living on September 1, 1902. Said applicant was listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation from information. Every effort has been made by this Office to procure further evidence herein but the Postoffice address of the applicant has at no time been known to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District, Page 107, No. 1206.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al, vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Isaac Fountain, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Julia R. Goard as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

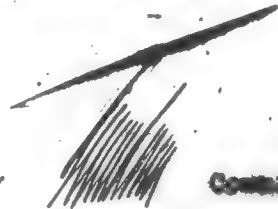

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Julia R. Goard as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Julia R. Goard is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed if information has been obtained tending to show the status of Julia R. Geard on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Julia R. Geard as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Hettie Go-back
as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Hettie Go-back as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Hettie Go-back is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880
as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted
for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee
Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, and had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to general newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the removal of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information had been secured prior to December 1, 1904, would be discontinued on September 1, 1905.

It is further ordered: That the application for the removal of Hettie Go-back as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 11, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the removal of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to November 1, 1905, would be dismissed. Information has been obtained leading to the status of Mary Go-back on September 1, 1905.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the removal of Mary Go-back as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Waskoea, I. T., June 30, 1902.

In the matter of the application of JAMES BULLETT, ET AL.,
for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation:

EMMET STARR, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission,
testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Emmet Starr.
Q What is your age? A Thirty one years.
Q What is your post office address? A Claremore, I. T.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir, I am.
Q For whom do you desire to make application for enrollment?
A For the following named persons on the 1896 Cherokee roll,
their families and descendants:

Q Are there any other persons for whom you desire to make application for enrollment?

A I desire to apply for the following named persons on the 1880
Cherokee roll, their families and their descendants:

William H. Grant, page 111, § 1222, Cherokee Nation District;
Note: "Left country years ago".

R. C. Bagwell, an oath states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings had in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 24, 1905.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William R. Gourd, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

W. E. SANDERS, having been first duly sworn, testified as follows, on the part of the applicant:

EXAMINATION BY THE COMMISSION:

- Q What is your name? A W. E. Sanders.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Claremore,
Q You reside in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A About 46 years.
Q Born and raised there? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Did you know one William R. Gourd, who, if living now, would be about 47 years old? A I knew of him, yes sir.
Q Did he live in Cooweescoowee District in 1880? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether he is living or not? A To the best of my knowledge, he is dead.
Q What makes you think he is dead? A I understand that his widow re-married. I saw a brother of Mrs. Lawthers and told me her brother, Lee, married Bill Rattlinggourd's widow, and I think there is no question but what he is dead.
Q You say she married again? A Yes sir.
Q What is her name? A I do not know; her husband is Lee Lawthers, Q A white man? A Indian, Cherokee.
Q Do you know how much blood Gourd is got? A Almost a full blood.
Q From what you have heard, what is your best judgment as to when William R. Gourd died? A I could not state.
Q Your best judgment? A So long since I saw him it would be hard to state.
Q You heard his widow had remarried to Lee Lawthers? A Yes sir.
Q How long ago did you hear that? A 4 or 5 years ago.
Q So your best judgment then is that he died at least 4 years ago.
Q Who do you think would be the best party to get information from relative to his death? A LeRoy Lawthers himself.

LeeRoy Lawthers is identified on Card, Cherokee 4891 and his postoffice address is given as Inola, Indian Territory.

- Q Where did this William R. Gourd live? A He lived around Vinita.
Q Was Gourd's widow a white woman? A I could not say, but I understood she was an Indian.
Q Did you ever know William R. Gourd personally? A Well, I just ~~saw the man only 2 or 3 times.~~
Q How long ago has it been since you saw him? A Must been about '85 or '87; I was running for Sheriff at the time.

W. H. Sanders--2

- Q The only information, with respect to him, is that about 4 or 5 years ago you heard it casually said his widow was married to LeeRoy Lawthers? A Yes sir.
- Q You got the information within the last 5 years that he was dead?
- A Only about two months ago, I showed the letter to them and they said Bill Ratlinggourd is dead.

Special reference is made to the testimony of LeeRoy G. Lawthers, taken at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 1, 1902, and at Vinita, Indian Territory, on January 22, 1903. Wife of the applicant, William R. Gourd is undoubtedly Viola Lawthers, on Cherokee Card 4891.

(Witness excused)

Josie Davies, having been first duly sworn, states that astenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she reported all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 24th day of March, 1905, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and complete transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

COMMISSION TO FIVE TRIBES.

[Handwritten signature]

Vinita, Indian Territory, May 2, 1905.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES/

In the matter of the application made for the enrollment of William R. Gourd as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Joseph A. Thompson, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY THE COMMISSION:

Q What is your name? A Joseph A. Thompson.
Q What is your age, Mr. Thompson? A 55.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Mr. Thompson, were you once acquainted with a man in Coowees-coowee District by the name of William R. Gourd?
A Yes, sir.
Q Was he living in Cooweescoowee District when the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll was made?
A I think he was in Delaware; I was living in Delaware and he was working for me at that time; he might have been in Cooweescoowee. I had horses in Delaware and cattle in Cooweescoowee.
Q You do not know in which district he was in 1880?
A No, sir.
Q Did he attend to your ranch in Cooweescoowee District?
A Yes, sir.
Q Did he stay on that ranch?
A Yes, sir, there on the range.
Q What would be the age of this William R. Gourd at the present time if living?
A About 45.
Q What was the name of his father? A I did not know his father.
Q Did you know the name of his mother?
A No, sir, I think they were both dead when he was working for me; I think he was an orphan.
Q How long has it been since you first became acquainted with William R. Gourd?
A Well, it was along in '76.
Q Was he a full blood Cherokee? A Yes, sir, right at full blood.
Q Where is William R. Gourd at the present time?
A I heard he was in New Mexico.
Q Did you hear his post office address? A No, sir, I did not.
Q How long has it been since William R. Gourd left the Cherokee Nation and Indian Territory? A About 4 years.
Q What were the circumstances of his leaving, to the best of your recollection?
A Well, he was indicted for robbing the post office at Foil with the Jennings boys.
Q Do you remember when that post office was robbed?
A I do not, not exactly; it was about 1900.
Q Where was he indicted? A Here at Vinita.

Q Did he leave the Cherokee Nation at that time?
 A No, sir; he give bond and afterwards run off and left his bond, and after those other boys were tried they cleared Bill and his case was nolle prossed, and I did not have any bond to pay; I was on his bond and he does not know I did not have to pay.
 Q Was William R. Gourd a married man at the time he left here?
 A Yes, sir.
 Q What was the name of his wife?
 A Well, I never heard.
 Q Do you know whether or not she is living at the present time?
 A I think she is with him.
 Q Did they have any children?
 A Yes, she had two.
 Q Do you know what the names of those children are?
 A No, sir.
 Q Do you know whether those children are living or not?
 A Yes.
 Q Who has the custody of those children?
 A Joe Risingfawn, his half brother.
 Q Do you know whether it is the intention of William R. Gourd or William Rattlinggourd to return to the Cherokee Nation and make it his home?
 A No, sir, I do not; I am satisfied he would come back.
 Q Were his bondsmen forced to pay his bond, or was his case nolle prossed?
 A It was nolle prossed.
 Q Is he at liberty to return to the Cherokee Nation again so far as that case is concerned?
 A Yes, sir, he is a free man.

E. B. Frayser, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A E. B. Frayser.
 Q What is your age, Mr. Frayser? A 56.
 Q What is your post office address? A Vinita, I. T.
 Q Mr. Frayser, were you acquainted with this William R. Gourd of whom Mr. Thompson has just testified?
 A Yes, sir.
 Q When did you first become acquainted with him?
 A I knew him in about '75.
 Q Did you know him at intervals from that time up until about 4 years ago?
 A Yes, sir, he worked for me part of the time.
 Q Was he a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation?
 A Yes, sir, he lived here all the time.
 Q Did you know the name of his father?
 A No, sir.
 Q Did you know the name of his mother? A No, sir.
 Q Was William R. Gourd a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know whether he was living in Cooweescoowee District when the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll was made?
 A He was working for Jim Thompson; he had a ranch at the head of Paw-Paw.
 Q How old is he now?
 A He is somewhere between 45 and 50 years old.
 Q Did you know the name of his wife?
 A I knew the name of one of his wives.

(3).

- Q What was her name? A She was George Winfield's daughter.
 Q Was she dead at the time of his marriage to his second wife?
 A I do not remember.
 Q Do you know where William R. Gourd is at the present time?
 A I understood he was working in New Mexico, within 75 miles of Roswell.
 Q How long has it been since you were informed he was working there?
 A Well, I saw some one from out in that country and he told me he was working there.
 Q What were the circumstances of William R. Gourd's leaving the Cherokee Nation?
 A He was indicted in connection with that post office robbery at Foil with the Jennings boys.
 Q Was he released on bail?
 A I think so; yes, sir, I saw him and he said he was out on bond.
 Q What is your information as to the forfeiture of that bond?
 A I understood the bond was forfeited, and in the trial of the Jennings boys they said Rattlinggourd was not guilty, and on their information they nolle prossed his case.
 Q Do you know in what district William R. Gourd was living when the 1896 Cherokee Census Roll was made?
 A Well, I used to see him in Vinita, but I never asked him in what district he was living.
 Q Do you know whether it is his intention to return to the Cherokee Nation and make that his home?
 A Well, he seemed very much disturbed about his case when I saw him, and he said he did not believe he could get justice here, and said he believed he would skip out, and the first thing I knew he had forfeited his bond and skipped the country.

William R. Gourd is identified on the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll, Cooweescoowee District, number 1282, and is listed from information on Cherokee D 1502.

W. P. Covington, being duly sworn, states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported proceedings had in the above and foregoing case on the 29th day of May 1905, and that the above and foregoing is a full and correct transcript of his said stenographic notes taken in said case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

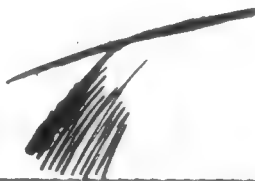

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William R. Gourd as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R .

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, of William R. Gourd, a Cherokee by blood. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 24, 1905, and at Vinita, Indian Territory, May 29, 1905. The records further show that said William R. Gourd is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District, No. 1282.

Since the application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of said William R. Gourd as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, the Commission and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes have diligently sought information which would enable them to determine whether said applicant was living September 1, 1902, and if so, whether he was entitled to enrollment at that date. Sufficient information has not been obtained to show the status of said William R. Gourd, September 1, 1902.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of William R. Gourd as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same is, hereby, dismissed without prejudice.

Commissioner.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Nancy Galliger, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before this Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of Nancy Galliger, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. A letter dated November 22, 1902, from A. W. Foreman, is filed and made a part of the record in this case.

The evidence herein shows that Nancy Galliger is a Cherokee Indian and is identified upon the 1880 Authenticated Cherokee Roll. The evidence further shows that the applicant left the Cherokee Nation in about the year 1882, since which date all trace of her was lost, and that her whereabouts since said date is unknown to her relatives and friends.

An Act of Congress approved May 2, 1890, (26 Stats., 182), put in force in the Indian Territory, chapter 59 of Mansfield's Digest of the Statutes of Arkansas. Section 2850 of said chapter 59, provides:

"Any person absenting himself beyond the limits of this state for five years successively shall be presumed to be dead, in any case in which his death may come in question unless proof be made that he was alive within that time."

In Sharp v Johnson, 22 Arl. 79, 90, it was held that "By our statute, a person once resident in the state, and absent from it for five years, is presumed to be dead, unless proven to be alive within that time."

In Sensenderfer v Pac. Mut. Life Ins. Co., 19 Fed. 68, it was held that "Absence of a person alone does not raise a presumption of his death; but such absence, in connection with surrounding circumstances, such as the failure by his family and friends to learn of his whereabouts, create a very strong presumption of death; the law being satisfied with less than certainly, yet requiring a preponderance of proof."

In view of the law applicable to the facts as established by the evidence in this case, it is considered by this Commission that the said Nancy Galliger died prior to September 1, 1902.

~~Section Twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716), provides:~~

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is therefore ordered that the application for the enrollment of Nancy Galliger, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same is, without prejudice, hereby dismissed, under the provisions of Section Twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716).

COMMISSION TO LIVE TRICES

C.D. 1503.

One Mile West of Vinita, Indian Territory, June 4, 1905.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application made for the enrollment of Nancy Galligher as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Mrs. Nancy Blevins, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY THE COMMISSION:

- Q What is your name? A Nancy Blevins.
Q What is your age, Mrs. Blevins?
A I will be 52 the 1st of next March.
Q What is your post office? A Vinita, I. T.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q By blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you once acquainted with a girl in Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation, by the name of Nancy Galligher?
A Yes, sir, I knew her.
Q What is her father's name? A John Galligher.
Q Was he a white man? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her mother's name? A Malinda Galligher.
Q Was Malinda Galligher a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes, sir.
Q Was Nancy Galligher living with her mother in Cooweescoowee District, Cherokee Nation, when the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll was made?
A Yes, sir.
Q How long did Nancy Galligher continue to live in the Cherokee Nation after the 1880 Roll was made?
A She must have lived here until she was 5 years old, when her father took her off. They went from here to Red River. He moved off and took the child away from her mother, and she never could hear tell of the child again, so when Andrew came back here from Oklahoma he was telling me about the child.
Q Did Malinda Galligher and her husband, John Galligher, separate soon after the 1880 Roll was made?
A It must have been 3 years afterwards.
Q Did John Galligher take Nancy Galligher with him?
A He took her away, so the child's mother told me.
Q Where did he take this child, to the best of your information?
A We never did know.
Q Did she know he left the Cherokee Nation? A No.
Q Did she ever hear tell of him or the child again until her death? A No, she never did.
Q How long has Malinda Galligher been dead?
A She has been dead 18 years I think.
Q Since the death of the mother of Nancy Galligher, has any one appeared to give any account of Nancy Galligher?
A No, they have not to me.
Q Have you heard from Nancy Galligher?

- A Yes, I have heard from her; her brother told me she was in Oklahoma and fixing to get married.
- Q Who is her brother who was telling you this?
- A Andrew Whipple.
- Q Is Andrew Whipple a half brother to Nancy Galligher? A Yes.
- Q Where does Andrew Whipple live? A Close to Oolagah.
- Q Has Andrew Whipple been enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
- Q Does he know the whereabouts of Nancy Galligher?
- A Well, I guess he does; he told me about it.
- Q How long has it been since Andrew Whipple was talking about the whereabouts of Nancy Galligher?
- A About three years, I think.
- Q Is that the only information you have about the whereabouts of Nancy Galligher?
- A Yes; somebody was telling me she was on Horse Creek about three years ago, but I do not know whether it was so or not.
- Q Do you know where Nancy Galligher has lived since she was taken from her mother in infancy?
- A No, I do not, except I was told she was in Oklahoma.
- Q Is her father living? A No, he is dead.
- Q How long has he been dead? A About three years.
- Q Where was he living at the time of his death?
- A In Oklahoma somewhere.
- Q Do you know where he was living in Oklahoma?
- A No, I do not.
- Q Were you informed that Nancy Galligher was intending to get married three years ago?
- A Yes, I was informed she was by her brother.
- Q Do you know whether or not she claims any rights as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
- A I do not; reckon she does, she ought to; she has a right the same as the rest of the children.
- Q This is the only information you have had in regard to Nancy Galligher since she left here in infancy?
- A That is all the information I have, what her brother told me; he went over there to the Kickapoo and Pottawotamie country and run across her.
- Q You say Andrew Whipple's post office address is Oolagah?
- A I think that must be his address.
- Q Is there any person living in the Cherokee Nation who would be likely to know of the whereabouts or residence of this Nancy Galligher?
- A Well, I do not know; I do not suppose there is anybody that knows where she is, unless it is old lady Fields; this boy went from here over to old lady Fields and he may have told her something about it, unless you can hear from that boy, he knows all about it. Perhaps John Humphrey at Oolagah might give you some information.

Nancy Galligher is identified on the 1880 Cherokee Tribal Roll, Cooweescoowee District number 1304, and is listed from information on Cherokee Doubtful Card 1503.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sarah A. Hogan as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

ORDER.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmaet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Sarah A. Hogan as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Sarah A. Hogan is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. Information has been obtained tending to show the status of Sarah A. Hogan on September 1, 1905.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Sarah A. Hogan as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of John C. Helterbrand as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

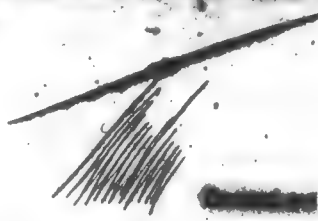

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said John C. Helterbrand is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 21, 1905, a passport list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not therefore been considered for, was issued in the form of a passport to be used for travel in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek areas. The notice was given that the applications for the passport of the persons named in said list accompanying whom an informant could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be considered by the Department. This was obtained from the office of John C. Helderbrand on September 1, 1905.

It is further stated that the application for the enrollment of John C. Helderbrand as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same be, hereby approved, without prejudice.

Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed if information has been obtained tending to show the status of Nancy Helterbrand on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Nancy Helterbrand as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Martin Hollars, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before this Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of Martin Hollars, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. A letter dated August 20, 1902, from Sarah Price, wife of the applicant herein, is filed and made a part of the record in this case.

The evidence herein shows that Martin Hollars is a Cherokee Indian, and is identified upon the 1880 Authenticated Cherokee Roll. The evidence further shows that the applicant left the Cherokee Nation in 1880, and after 1882 all trace of him was lost and that his whereabouts since said date is unknown to his wife.

An Act of Congress approved May 2, 1890, (26 Stats., 182), put in force in the Indian Territory, chapter 59 of Mansfield's Digest of the Statutes of Arkansas. Section 2850 of said chapter 59, provides:

"Any person absenting himself beyond the limits of this state for five years successively shall be presumed to be dead, in any case in which his death may come in question unless proof be made that he was alive within that time."

In Sharp v Johnson, 22 Ark. 79, 90, it was held that "By our statute, a person once resident in the state, and absent from it for five years, is presumed to be dead, unless proven to be alive within that time."

In Sensenderfer v Pac. Mut. Life Ins. Co., 19 Fed. 68, it was held that "Absence of a person alone does not raise a presumption of his death; but such absence, in connection with surrounding circumstances, such as the failure by his family and friends to learn of his whereabouts, ... create a very strong presumption of death; the law being satisfied with less than certainly, yet requiring a preponderance of proof."

In view of the law applicable to the facts as established by the evidence in this case, it is considered by this Commission that the said Martin Hollars died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section Twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is therefore ordered that the application for the enrollment of Martin Hollars, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same is, without prejudice, hereby dismissed, under the provisions of Section Twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716).

Juliet Hendricks as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmaet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Juliet Hendricks as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Juliet Hendricks is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

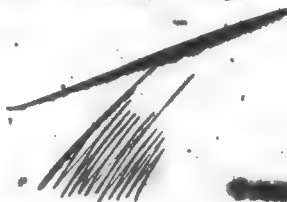

During the months of August, September and October, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications. The enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmaet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized

W. G. Williamson,

Centralia, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

This office is in receipt of your letter of November 22, stating that you noticed your name in an advertised list of persons whose names appear, unaccounted for, on the rolls of 1880 and 1896. You state that you went to Chelsea for the purpose of making application for enrollment and that "Mr. Hasting wanted to put me on the rejected list which I refused as I had never been rejected". You state that if it is necessary you will appear in person before this office.

In reply you are advised that the records of this office show that application has been made for the enrollment of one G. W. Williamson, a white man whose name appears on the 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee nation, Cooweescoowee district, aged at that time twenty-six years, as a citizen of the Cherokee nation, and that his name has been placed on a doubtful card. Before the right to enrollment of this person can be determined it will be necessary that further evidence be introduced as to his right to enrollment. If you claim the enrollment above

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Nellie Peter
as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902,
Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Nellie Peter as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Nellie Peter is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880
as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted
for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1903,
the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time
the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee
Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee
Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward
removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 22, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not otherwise been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Nellie Peter on September 1, 1905.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Nellie Peter as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of LULA PAYNE (now Lula Collins) as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

The record herein shows that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of one Lula Payne as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

It appears that the said Lula Payne is identified on the authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and on the margin of said roll appears a note that she is an Osage and is now named Lula Collins.

It further appears that the said Lula Payne, under the name of Lula Collins, is recognized as an Osage Indian and is carried on the rolls of the Osage Indian agency in Oklahoma.

It is, therefore, the opinion of the Commission that Lula Payne, now Lula Collins, is not entitled to share in the lands and funds of the Cherokee Nation, and that the application for her enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of
E. F. Runnells as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of E. F. Runnells as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said E. F. Runnells is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 21, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to general newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. Information has been obtained tending to show the status of N. F. Russell
on September 1, 1905.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of N. F. Russell as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.

Carter, Lewis Cordrey, Thompson Gritts, Annie Gustin, Henry Gustin, Laura Johnson, Mary Phillip, Thomas Runnels, William Raft, Jennie Raft, Charlotte Smcker, Nancy Sunday and Betsy Sullateskes, whose names appear on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

Akie Beamer (Cherokee D-2048) is also identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

An examination of the said tribal rolls shows that all the applicants are of Indian nationality, of either Cherokee or Shawnee blood.

The Commission has made diligent inquiry, covering a period of nearly two years, to secure information relative to the status of the applicants, and, from information obtained by the various field parties of the Commission, and received from citizens appearing at the Cherokee Land Office, principally from old residents of the respective districts in which the applicants were enrolled, it finds that all of such applicants died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (Public - No. 241), and duly ratified, as provided in Section 75 thereof, provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes".

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of John Cocley, Levi Russell, J. W. Horn, David McDaniel, George Morgan, T. J. Robins, Annie Spaniard, Addie Brown, Johnacn Sanders, Lydia Stines, John Ewart Evers, Nelly Constitution, Jennie Chuck, Samuel L. Cornatzer, Mary Ellen Hampton, Malinda Lindsey,

Dear Madam:

Upon an examination of the 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, it appears that one Johnson Sanders, aged at that time two years, was enrolled with you.

You are requested to advise this Commission whether or not said Johnson Sanders is living, and, if so, to furnish his present post office address.

Yours truly,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Dick Sequoyah as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

---:---

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Dick Sequoyah as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Dick Sequoyah is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1906, would be dismissed if information has been obtained tending to show the status of Dick Sequoyah on September 1, 1908.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Dick Sequoyah as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George Saesar as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R .

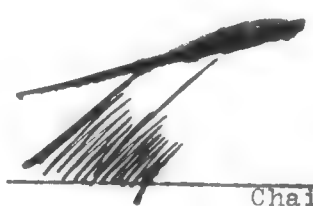

The record herein shows that at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission and made application for the enrollment of George Saesar as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence shows that the said George Saesar died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section twenty-five of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date, shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, ordered that the application for the enrollment of George Saesar as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice, under the provisions of the law above noted.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Rosie Squirrel as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

---:---

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Rosie Squirrel as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Rosie Squirrel is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 21, 1902, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1902, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of Rosie Squirrel
on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Rosie Squirrel as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Aley Scott as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Aley Scott is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 21, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been considered for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of

Aley Scott

on September 1, 1905.

It is ~~therefore~~ ~~stated~~: That the application for the enrollment of Aley Scott, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mary Scott as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

---:---
O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Pinet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Mary Scott as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Mary Scott is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

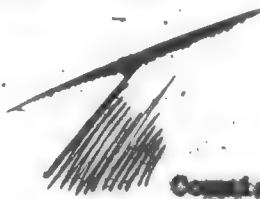

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1900, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1900, would be dismissed if information has been obtained tending to show the status of Mary Scott on September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Mary Scott as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lewis and Lizzie Sanders as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Lewis and Lizzie Sanders as citizens of the Cherokee Nation. The records further show that the said Lewis and Lizzie Sanders are identified upon the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District, opposite Nos. 2831 and 2832, respectively.

Since the application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of said Lewis and Lizzie Sanders as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, the Commission and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes have dilligently sought information which would enable them to determine whether or not said applicants were living September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were, on that date, entitled to Cherokee citizenship. No information has been obtained tending to show the status of said Lewis Sanders and Lizzie Sanders on September 1, 1902.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Lewis Sanders and Lizzie Sanders as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, be, and the same is, hereby, dismissed without prejudice.

Akie Seamer (Cherokee 2-2048) is also identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

An examination of the said tribal rolls shows that all the applicants are of Indian nationality, of either Cherokee or Shawnee blood.

The Commission has made diligent inquiry, covering a period of nearly two years, to secure information relative to the status of the applicants, and, from information obtained by the various field parties of the Commission, and received from citizens appearing at the Cherokee Land Office, principally from old residents of the respective districts in which the applicants were enrolled, it finds that all of such applicants died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section 25 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (Public - No. 241), and duly ratified, as provided in Section 75 thereof, provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes".

It is, therefore, ordered that the applications for the enrollment of John Cockey, Levi Eysell, J. W. Eorn, David McDaniel, George Morgan, W. J. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Daniel N. Scott as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

--:--

D E C I S I O N.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That, on June 30, 1902, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, Benet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Daniel N. Scott as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 1547.

The records further show that said applicant possesses the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation; that he is a duly enrolled citizen thereof, his name appearing opposite No. 2043 of a partial list of citizens of the Creek Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 13, 1902, and that he has selected his allotment of land in said Nation.

Paragraph eight, section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), provides:

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions and not elsewhere."

It further appears that no formal election was made by or for the said Daniel W. Scott to be enrolled as a citizen of the Creek Nation, but it is considered that the voluntary selection of his allotment of land in said nation is equivalent to an election.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, under the provisions of paragraph eight, section twenty-one, of the Act of Congress above noted, Daniel W. Scott is not entitled to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Gentlemen:

The Creek Enrollment Division is in receipt of your letter of August 5, 1902, asking if there is any record of an application having been made for enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation of one Daniel Scott.

Replying thereto, you are advised that one Daniel N. Scott, age 46, is listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Creek Nation, on Creek Indian card, Field No., 626, Roll No. 2043, and that his enrollment as a citizen of said nation was approved by the secretary of the Interior, March 13, 1902. The Post office of Daniel N. Scott is Checotah, Indian Territory, and the name of his father is Thomas H. Scott, a non citizen, and the name of his mother is Kiamitia Scott, a Creek citizen.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 27, 1906, transmitting the record relative to the application of Daniel N. Scott for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

On June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Daniel N. Scott as a citizen.

On February 27, 1906, the Commissioner held that the applicant was not entitled to such enrollment.

The Commissioner reports that the applicant is identified at No. 2043 on a partial list of citizens of the Creek Nation approved by the Department on March 13, 1902, and that he has selected an allotment of land in the Creek Nation.

In view of paragraph 8 of Section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat .L., 495), the decision of the Commissioner adverse to the applicant is recommended for approval.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Alex Swimmer as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

--:--

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Alex Swimmer as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Alex Swimmer is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee by blood.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

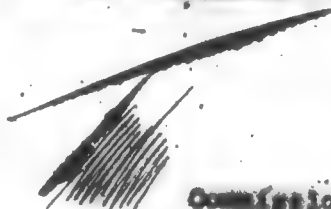

During the months of August, September and October, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 31, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed as information has been obtained tending to show the status of

Alex Swimmer

as September 1, 1902.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Alex Swimmer as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Campbell Tartle as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

---:---

O R D E R.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of Campbell Tartle as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

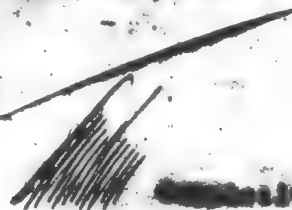

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That said Campbell Tartle is identified on the Cherokee Authenticated roll of 1880 as an adopted Mexican.

The application made on June 30, 1902, in behalf of the above named applicant, included all persons whose names were found upon the Cherokee rolls of 1880 and 1896, not theretofore accounted for. Since these applications were made the Commission, and the Commissioner, to the Five Civilized Tribes, have diligently sought information that would enable them to identify the persons whose names are included therein.

During the months of August, September and October, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes maintained an office at Tahlequah, the Capital of the Cherokee Nation, during which time the National Council of said Nation was in session, each and every member of which, upon request, appeared before said office and gave such information as he possessed relative to the identity of the persons whose names are included in said applications; a special enrolling party, traveling overland, has covered the Cherokee Nation seeking information as to these persons; at the Cherokee Land Office opened on January 1, 1903, at Vinita, and afterward removed to Tahlequah, Indian Territory, such information has been constantly sought; and since the filing of said applications the General Office of the Commission and the Commissioner, located at Muskogee, Indian Territory, has used all available means to secure evidence as to whether or not the persons whose names are included in said applications were living on September 1, 1902, and if so, whether or not they were entitled to Cherokee citizenship on that date.

On July 28, 1905, a published list containing the names of all persons included in these applications, who had not theretofore been accounted for, was issued in the form of a supplement to several newspapers in general circulation in the Cherokee and Creek Nations, and notice was given that the applications for the enrollment of the persons named in said list concerning whom no information could be secured prior to December 1, 1905, would be dismissed. Information has been obtained tending to show the status of Campbell Tartle on September 1, 1905.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED: That the application for the enrollment of Campbell Tartle as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same be, hereby dismissed, without prejudice.

Commissioner.
